School Overview

The Multicultural Magnet School û P.S. / M.S. 212 is a laboratory for learning. This prek through grade 8 school provides a rigorous, academically rich environment that is fully aligned with the newly mandated Common Core learning standards. The P.S. / M.S. 212 learning continuum includes a diverse menu of academic offerings in addition to traditional ones. Some of these courses include NYSESLAT Test preparation, Academic Intervention Services, and Technology. Our community organization partnership with Vacamas provides an array of after-school opportunities for our students. Parents appreciate the skiing and sleep-away camp experiences that the Vacamas program provides for their children. On Saturdays, parents have the opportunity to learn how to speak English in our Unidos Program for Newcomers and English Language Learner students.
