School Overview

ACCI^{LL}N stands for "Achievement, Community, Consciousness, Integrity, Opportunity Now!" Our family-oriented school community focuses on student achievement, student activism, and service. Our students are exposed to high school, college, and career readiness through High School level courses, college campus visitations, technology, and opportunities to interact with experts from various career fields. Through activities such as Student Congress, Beyond the Bell Afterschool Program, access to technology, and our hands-on learning opportunities, ACCI^{LL}N Academy students are prepared to become change agents within their communities. We pride ourselves on providing a sense of family, opportunities for parental involvement, and a well-rounded educational experience for all students.
