School Overview

Jill Chaifetz Transfer High School is a small transfer school dedicated to providing a challenging education to students who have previously been excessively truant or who have dropped out of high school. Founded through a partnership with the Department of Education and BronxWorks, our school's mission is to help all of our students earn a high school diploma and graduate prepared for postsecondary success. Our relationship with BronxWorks strengthens our ability to serve our students effectively, providing academic support and social services to ensure student success.
