School Overview

Are you hoping four years of high school will lead you to a good college, a challenging career, or both? Do you like projects, working with your hands and learning by doing? How do you feel about field trips and being outdoors in all kinds of weather in all of the seasons? Are you creative, inquisitive, action-oriented, responsible, a positive risk-taker, collaborative, and conscientious? At Stephen T. Mather Building Arts & Craftsmanship High School (Mather HS), you will prepare for college and beyond through hands-on learning and skills training. With the National Park Service (NPS), our school offers CTE pathways in the specialized building arts or landscape management, all through the lens of historic preservation. You will build a strong academic foundation and learn solid trade skills, opening doors to a successful future.
