School Overview

At Queens High School for Language Studies, all students graduate ready for success in college, proficient in both Mandarin Chinese and English. Students receive a well-rounded curriculum, taking a variety of advanced math and science classes, arts classes, and CUNY College Now courses in higher grades. English proficient students commit to four years of Mandarin Chinese study. Native Chinese-speaking English Language Learner students take intensive English as a Second Language classes. All students graduate having communicated actively in both Mandarin Chinese and English. Our teachers strive to develop critical thinking skills and spark intellectual curiosity in a caring, small-school environment. Our entire community works to embody QHSL PRIDE: persistence, responsibility, inquiry, determination, and empathy. ...
