School Overview

At Bronx High School for Writing and Communication Arts (BHSWCA) we value academics, college and career preparation, and participation in extracurricular activities. We expect all of our students to graduate on time and with a Regents or Advanced Regents diploma. To attain this goal we offer academic support such as lunch and learns, after school and Saturday tutoring. In addition, we have advisory periods where students engage in college and career exploration beginning in the ninth grade. We are a community of writers. Students compose poetry, drama, fiction, non-fiction, and songs. They write for school publications, participate in poetry slams, act in school plays, make films, and create artwork with professional writers, actors, and artists from our leading partners Epic Theatre Ensemble and Community-Word Project. We encourage all students to take part in extracurricular activities throughout their high school tenure.
