May 7, 2009

NEW YORK CITY STUDENTS MAKE PROGRESS IN ENGLISH

Key Points:

- > At every grade level (3 – 8), New York City students made progress in English between 2008 and 2009.
- > This year's gains build on substantial, continued progress in English since 2002.
- > Since last year, New York City students have gained on students in the rest of New York State, closing the gap that has traditionally separated students in the City from their peers. This is the most single-year progress the City has made in closing the gap since the State began testing in all grades from 3 – 8 in 2006.
- > New York City students of all races made gains this year, but Black and Hispanic students are making the greatest gains, narrowing the racial achievement gap. This is the most progress NYC has made in closing the achievement gap since NY State started testing in all grades from 3 – 8.
