ANNUAL ARTS IN SCHOOLS REPORT 2007-2008

This Annual Arts in Schools Report provides data for:

School: 15 K442

2007-2008 Principal: Mary Lou Aranyos

Arts Education Liaison: Kathleen McArdle

INSIDE THIS REPORT

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is a tool for school leaders to understand their delivery of arts education to every child in their school. Each Annual Arts in Schools Report measures two areas:

Student Access to and Participation in Arts Education

Uses surveys and information from DOE databases to understand if students are meeting the New York State Instructional Requirements for the Arts as well as the activities, resources and facilities used to support arts learning in each school. In addition, this section reports on questions asked in the Learning Environment Surveys about arts education.

Resources to Support Arts Education

Uses information from DOE databases and surveys to understand the resources that schools are allocating for arts education. This section includes information on certified arts teachers, arts and cultural organization services, space for arts learning, arts fundraising and professional development opportunities for teachers.

Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in June 2008 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York City Department of Education's effort to ensure that schools are providing students with the high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards: <http://schools.nyc.gov/offices/teachlearn/arts/blueprint.html>

New York State Requirements for Arts Education

At the elementary level, in grades 1-6, the New York State Education Department (NYSED) requires that students receive instruction in dance, music, theater and visual arts in every grade. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.ⁱ

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8, one half-unit of study in visual arts and one half-unit of study in music. NYSED has allowed New York City schools to offer any two of the art forms to meet the requirements.

At the high school level, the New York State Education Department requires that all students graduate having taken one unit or two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater and/or visual arts). High schools have the option of offering a three or five year sequence in any one of the four art forms. Students who complete five units in a single art form and successfully complete the exit exam in that art form are eligible to receive a Regents diploma with advanced designation in the arts.

This school has submitted the following information about its arts program:

Students in All grades served (6-8) actively participate in visual arts education through drawing, painting, and graphic design, as well as comic book creation, cartoon drawing, mural painting, sculpture and various mediums and visual arts disciplines. Students are exposed to every level of the art making process, including classical drawing, painting and design techniques, which focus on the thought process as well as the final product. The basis of art is explained and encouraged as an alternate form of communication, as well as an additional vehicle for personal self expression. Students also investigate the lives and artwork of historic figures in the art world, their artistic and cultural influences and impact made on society, as well as the underlying themes of their work and respected styles. Students participate in assignments that infuse art and art-making as it relates to the communities they are a part of: inside and outside of school. Student art projects are closely aligned to both state as well as national arts learning standards, along with the NYC Blueprint for the Arts and its prescribed benchmarks. Lessons are also tailored to align with material being taught in other content areas (Social Studies, Science, Math, etc.), enabling students to apply newly-acquired knowledge, resulting in a more concise mastery of the concept/topic being taught. Students are also active in contests and exhibitions offered outside of school and through private organizations. Student work has appeared in exhibits, as winning entries in numerous contests and/or collections, as well as district-wide festivals and exhibits. Students are encouraged to create work outside school as well as during their studio/ class time. Students work closely with the Visual Arts teacher to construct and develop portfolios in preparation for admission auditions for Arts-Specialized High Schools. The strength of our visual arts program lies within our instructors, our students, and our family of parents, and administrators devoted to delivering a top-notch visual arts curriculum.

Notes

- Throughout this report, N/A signifies that data were not applicable.
- Learning Environment Survey data are based on responses from schools where students provided responses to the 2007/8 Learning Environment Survey and are based on the perception of students about the arts in this school. For more information on how well this school supports student learning in the arts, please visit the 2007 - 2008 Learning Environment Survey which is located on the Statistics section of this school's website.
- Schools may have more than six arts and cultural service providers, but due to space constraints we were unable to list all of the arts or cultural organizations with which they work.
- All data are based on arts instruction offered during the school day. This Annual Arts in Schools Report does not report on after school, weekend, and summer arts education.
- Percentages of the Learning Environment Survey data may not add up to 100 percent due to rounding. The percentages are not based on a student response rate of 100%.
