Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in May 2015 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York Department of Education's efforts to ensure that schools are providing students with high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards:

New York State Guidelines and Requirements for Arts Education

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has specific guidelines and requirements for arts instruction.

At the elementary level, in grades PreK-6, students should receive instruction in dance, music, theater, and visual arts. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8 one half-unit in dance, music, theater, or visual arts, and second half-unit in a second arts discipline.

At the high school level, the NYSED requires that all students graduate having taken at least two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater, and/or visual arts).

School's Arts Program Description

This school has submitted the following description of its arts program:

Our Long Term partnership with Studio in a School was extended. One fifth grade class worked on a special project with Studio and the Asia Society building robots inspired by the work of Nam June Paik which is on exhibit at the Asia Society. We continued our collaboration with Music for Many bringing dance and theater to our Grade 1 and 2 students. This year, Grade 2 students celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Sound of Music and a new generation of students "fell in love" with the songs and the movie. We added an additional arts partner this year, Education Through Music, bringing a string orchestra to our school. Grade 4 and 5 students (48 of them) play violin, viola, bass and cello in the school orchestra. Students arrive at 7 a.m. twice a week to practice. This collaboration brought our arts programming to a new level for our school community. Our current third graders are already thinking about which instruments they will play while working on their recorders! A set of African drums that were gathering dust were finally pulled off the shelf to be played by students and parents in our collaboration with the Caribbean Cultural Center. This year, 2014-15, has been a satisfying year in the arts at P.S. 87. Our hallways are filled with vibrant art, the sounds of recorders, drumming and strings permeate the building and backdrops to the Lion King and Sound of Music are becoming keepsakes because they are so spectacular!

Notes

- The Annual Arts in Schools Report is based on schools' responses to the 2014-2015 NYCDOE Annual Arts Education Survey as well as from NYCDOE databases.
- Data on arts instruction provided by school-based teachers to students in Kindergarten through sixth grade were retrieved from the NYCDOE Scheduling, Transcripts, and Academic Reporting System (STARS) database.
- Data on sixth through twelfth grade students participating in arts classes; high school sequences; the NYSED middle school arts requirement; and the NYSED high school arts requirements were retrieved from the NYCDOE STARS database.
- Full-time certified teacher data were retrieved from the NYCDOE Division of Human Resources.
- All data are based on arts instruction offered during the school day. This Annual Arts in Schools Report does not report on after school, weekend, and summer arts education.
- Throughout this report, a blank field represents "none" or no data provided.

Definitions

- "Pull-out" programs refer to those school day instructional activities that are scheduled for groupings of students across a grade or grades and not by official class.
- An Individualized Education Plan (IEP) describes the special education and related services specifically designed to meet the unique educational needs of a student with a disability. An IEP is the guiding document for a student's educational program. It includes all of the goals, objectives, present levels of performance and related services that are recommended for the student.
