Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in May 2015 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York Department of Education's efforts to ensure that schools are providing students with high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards:

New York State Guidelines and Requirements for Arts Education

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has specific guidelines and requirements for arts instruction.

At the elementary level, in grades PreK-6, students should receive instruction in dance, music, theater, and visual arts. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8 one half-unit in dance, music, theater, or visual arts, and second half-unit in a second arts discipline.

At the high school level, the NYSED requires that all students graduate having taken at least two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater, and/or visual arts).

School's Arts Program Description

This school has submitted the following description of its arts program:

The PS 277 school community has once again made every effort to ensure that our students are being provided with arts education in various arts disciplines. With the absence of an in-house art instructor, one of our school's goals this year was to get a cultural arts organization teaching artist into every classroom for the majority of the school year. We were successfully able to make this happen with our SIG grant and our partnership with Studio in a School. As a result of this, each grade in our school was able to work with a visual artist. Additionally, through a partnership with the Change for Kids organization, we were able to bring in a music teacher to work with our Pre K students. The school's music teacher wrote a grant to partner with the Disney organization. With this grant we received funding and resources to present the musical, "One Hundred and One Dalmatians." Along with this, our students were given the added treat of seeing the musical "Aladdin" on Broadway. Our afterschool program, Doing Art Together, provides our students yet another opportunity to work on arts-based projects after the school day. Finally, we have brought a drumming artist into the school to work with students once a week. In terms of our plans for the next school year, we intend to continue the work we have done with Studio in a School, rethink some of the other programs we currently house, as well as to explore alternate possibilities for additional arts disciplines.

Notes

- The Annual Arts in Schools Report is based on schools' responses to the 2014-2015 NYCDOE Annual Arts Education Survey as well as from NYCDOE databases.
- Data on arts instruction provided by school-based teachers to students in Kindergarten through sixth grade were retrieved from the NYCDOE Scheduling, Transcripts, and Academic Reporting System (STARS) database.
- Data on sixth through twelfth grade students participating in arts classes; high school sequences; the NYSED middle school arts requirement; and the NYSED high school arts requirements were retrieved from the NYCDOE STARS database.
- Full-time certified teacher data were retrieved from the NYCDOE Division of Human Resources.
- All data are based on arts instruction offered during the school day. This Annual Arts in Schools Report does not report on after school, weekend, and summer arts education.
- Throughout this report, a blank field represents "none" or no data provided.

Definitions

- "Pull-out" programs refer to those school day instructional activities that are scheduled for groupings of students across a grade or grades and not by official class.
- An Individualized Education Plan (IEP) describes the special education and related services specifically designed to meet the unique educational needs of a student with a disability. An IEP is the guiding document for a student's educational program. It includes all of the goals, objectives, present levels of performance and related services that are recommended for the student.
