Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in May 2016 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York Department of Education's efforts to ensure that schools are providing students with high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards:

New York State Guidelines and Requirements for Arts Education

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has specific guidelines and requirements for arts instruction.

At the elementary level, in grades PreK-6, students should receive instruction in dance, music, theater, and visual arts. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8 one half-unit in dance, music, theater, or visual arts, and second half-unit in a second arts discipline.

At the high school level, the NYSED requires that all students graduate having taken at least two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater, and/or visual arts).

School's Arts Program Description

This school has submitted the following description of its arts program:

PS 238 is a small K-8 school located in Midwood, Brooklyn. The arts programming consists of a full-time certified visual arts teacher, a music teacher/ drama teacher, and a dance teacher. Student in the elementary grades have an opportunity to experience dance, chorus, drama, and visual arts at least one period a week if not more. Students in the middle school have visual arts twice a week. Sixth graders have chorus. In addition, the middle school offers drum, dance, and guitar talent which meets twice a week.

The school takes students out of the building to visit Museums that are integrated with their social studies, science, and ELA curriculum. This year students went to the Brooklyn Museum, The Whitney Museum, and the Holocaust Museum and the Bodies exhibition. In addition they took trips to see the cityscape where they drew from observation at the Brooklyn Bridge Park and Coney Island.

The school also brought in several arts partnerships this year including the New York Historical Society, The Cooper Hewitt Design Museum, and The Brooklyn Public Library.

The students at PS 238 are growing artistically. This year six students made the semi-finalist for PS ART and one of the six made the final show. In addition three students are represented in the Brooklyn Borough Arts festival.

For the upcoming year, the school is looking to further strengthen the arts department by developing more arts partnerships in the music and dance disciplines as well continuing to develop the community involvement in the arts.
