Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in May 2016 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York Department of Education's efforts to ensure that schools are providing students with high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards:

New York State Guidelines and Requirements for Arts Education

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has specific guidelines and requirements for arts instruction.

At the elementary level, in grades PreK-6, students should receive instruction in dance, music, theater, and visual arts. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8 one half-unit in dance, music, theater, or visual arts, and second half-unit in a second arts discipline.

At the high school level, the NYSED requires that all students graduate having taken at least two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater, and/or visual arts).

School's Arts Program Description

This school has submitted the following description of its arts program:

At P.S. 70 our goal is to incorporate the Arts into everyday instruction throughout the school year with daily support from visual arts and dance teachers. In addition to our teachers, we continue to build upon that support with outside programs and organizations such as Midori and Friends that bring performance opportunities for the students. The Arts teachers connect lessons with careers in the Arts. They also serve as advocates for students' interested in specialized middle schools and high schools. The dance teacher works with individual students for middle school performing arts applications.

We have teachers who implement visual arts and dance to various classes in multiple grades during the school day. After-school students are also given the opportunity to engage in dance with school teachers and there are professionally taught music classes so that students have multiple opportunities to participate in the Arts. Students are able to explore dance, music and visual arts throughout their learning experience across the grades. The organization, Midori and Friends has developed an after-school chorus program and brought performances into our school for students.

The Arts are an important piece to the overall academic program that we provide at P.S. 70. We work with classroom teachers to incorporate the Arts whenever available. As our students grow, the Arts will provide them with a well-rounded experience that will allow them to explore their interests and keep them on track for career and college readiness.
