Virtual UN Kick-Off

(November 3, 2008):

Teachers will be introduced to the interactive, online format of the District 75 Virtual UN, where students will connect with their peers around the world to investigate issues of global importance. Workshop will include approaches to collaborative planning and interdisciplinary learning incorporating technology and will explore relevant topics, resources, and activities. Register online at <http://www.district75pd.org/> (course code D75-08-198-1). We invite you to view last year's Virtual UN project website at: <http://home.learningtimes.net/un>. Both new and returning teachers are welcome. Participation signifies a yearlong commitment to each program. Please contact Cara Coffina at ccoffin@schools.nyc.gov for more information.
