

Professional Development Webinar – November 19th and December 3rd
Building Emotionally Literate Schools: “Prevention versus Intervention”

District 75 is offering a 2-day Emotional Literacy webinar for teachers and administrators on November 19th and December 3rd. This webinar is FREE for District 75 administrators and teachers.

New York Public public school administrators and teachers may register by logging on to FAMIS and enter vendor T97000001, course # T97000170 for payment. It will result in a 100% discount. NYCDOE personnel should use Coupon Code: nyc2em for a $20 discount. DISTRICT 75 personnel should use the following coupon code when registering: Coupon Code: d75em.

For more information visit www.emotionalliteracyconference.org

- Administrator Only Workshop: November 19th, 2009, 3:30pm to 5:30pm- Administrators will learn about emotional literacy and acquire tools they can use as school leaders to build a healthy climate and culture. The session will conclude with a set of strategies that participants will be invited to try in their own school environments.
- Administrator and Teacher Workshop: December 3rd, 2009, 3:30pm to 5:30pm- Administrators, joined by teachers, meet with Dr. Marc Brackett and fellow participants to discuss the role and importance of developing emotional literacy in teachers and students. Practical tools will be introduced for teachers to try in their classrooms.