

New York Liberty School Day Game

All schools / Event: May 11

Schools can get $10-$15 tickets to a New York Liberty preseason basketball game at Madison Square Garden during the 5th annual School Day Game on May 11 at 11:00 a.m. Book early to purchase the best seats. If your school purchases a minimum of $1,500 worth of tickets, then Liberty Legend Kym Hampton will visit your school to speak to students. School groups can also qualify for other fan experiences where they interact with the players on the Garden court, including singing the national anthem, making a fan tunnel with players, and getting autographs. Educational materials will be available online for teachers to integrate the experience into class activities. Click here for more information or e-mail matt.cohen@thegarden.com.
