Training: Introduction to Mental Health, Rehabilitation and Recovery

The Center for Rehabilitation and Recovery

The Coalition's Center for Rehabilitation and Recovery is pleased to announce that all of our trainings will now be FREE to the mental health provider community. If you have already submitted payment for an upcoming Center training, please contact Deborah Short at 212.742.1600, x-235 about reimbursement. Please be advised that our cancellation policy still applies (see below). We hope that this new opportunity will make it easier for you to benefit from our trainings!

Introduction to Mental Health, Rehabilitation and Recovery

DATE: October 29-30th, 2009 / TIME: *9:30am-4:30pm

Registration begins 9:00am. Light breakfast will be served.

This two-day training is designed for mental health staff in various roles and settings who seek the most up-to-date information and resources on mental health, psychiatric rehabilitation and promising practices that promote recovery. Participants will explore the value and guiding principles of recovery and how these translate for consumers, practitioners, programs and mental health systems. The facilitator encourages peer learning and will use a combination of training techniques that promote active participation in the educational process.

Day I Guest Presenter: Matt Wofsy, Director of Best-Practice & Evidence-Based Initiatives, Institute for Community Living, will discuss the latest in evidence-based practice strategies that support a person's recovery and self-growth.

Day II Guest Presenter: Pat Feinberg, Peer Educator, Coalition's Center for Rehabilitation and Recovery, will share her story of recovery and talk about the ups and downs of her journey integrating in the community both personally and professionally.

Facilitator: Marie Sabatino | Fee: FREE

Please note: If you register for a Center training and are unable to attend, you must cancel your registration at least one business day prior to the training date. Otherwise, your agency will be assessed a $50 cancellation fee. This policy helps ensure that those who are waiting to register have the opportunity to do so.
