SMART Board User Conference - January 9, 2010

Learn, Touch, Share

Come and be a part of the TeqSmart SMART Board User Conference. The conference will be a place where passion, experience, and educational artistry are shared. At this event teachers from across the New York metropolitan area will have the opportunity to network, and explore SMART Board lessons and ideas with other educators and professionals. Visit the Solutions Room where you can experience the new SMART Table and Generation 3 SMART Board, and work one-on-one with one of our Sales team or Instructional technologists.

Registration includes registration, breakfast, lunch, and chances to win SMART Products.

Registration fee is $49.99
