My favorite athlete is Donovan McNabb.

He is was born on November 25, 1976 in Chicago, Illinois.

Growing up, he played baseball, football, and basketball.

McNabb went to college at Syracuse University in New York and was an awesome football player and basketball player.

Since 1999, Donovan McNabb has played football for the Philadelphia Eagles in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

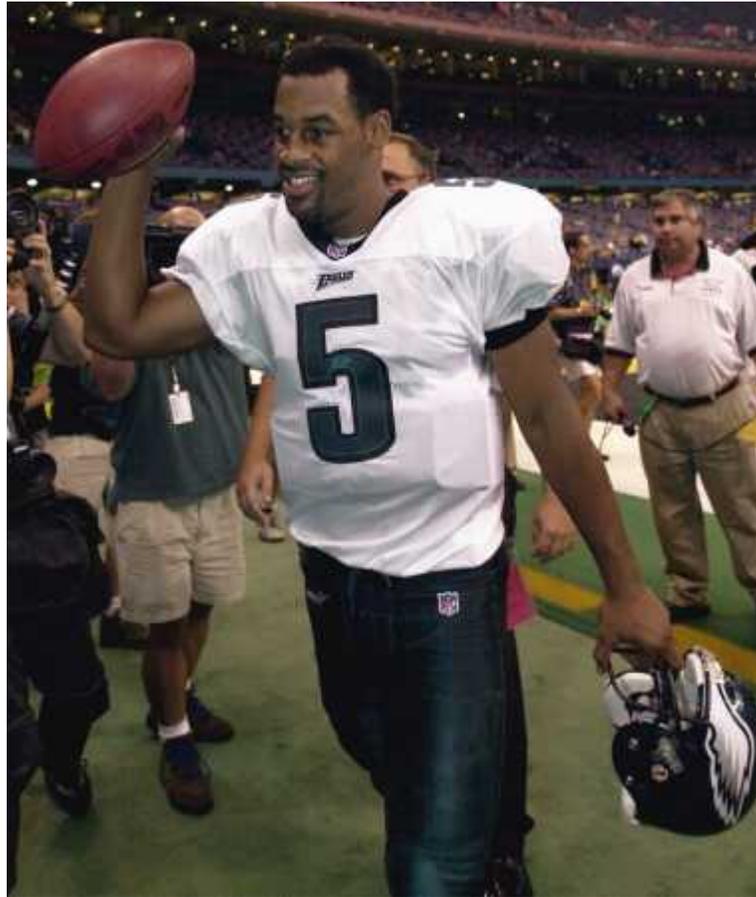

McNabb is the quarterback of the team which means he throws the ball to the other players.

The thing I like about McNabb is even though he is the quarterback, he runs the ball sometimes.

You have to be tough to run the ball because you might get hit.

I think Donovan McNabb is cool!
