New comprehensive special needs summer directory:

Resources for Children with Special Needs, Inc. Publishes

CAMPS 2009-2010 Directory

Parents and caregivers of children, teens and young adults with disabilities, and professionals who work with them, can plan ahead for summer with the wealth of information offered in the newest edition of Resources for Children with Special Needs, Inc.'s comprehensive publication, CAMPS 2009-2010: A Directory of Camps and Summer Programs for Children and Youth with Disabilities and Special Needs in the Metro New York Area.

This 133-page summer resource directory provides information on more than 300 day summer programs primarily within the five boroughs of New York City and sleepaway programs in the Northeast. A "More Summer Fun" section, for everyone from tots to teens, includes listings of more than 100 additional recreational, educational and employment programs and volunteer opportunities. All disabilities are covered in this invaluable resource directory.

CAMPS 2009-2010 is available by accessing the Resources for Children website www.resourcesnyc.org and by calling 212-677-4650. The single copy price is $25.00 plus $8.00 shipping and handling. A generous grant from MetLife Foundation has made a Spanish version possible for free in a .PDF format by emailing gshulman@resourcesnyc.org or for $10.00 a printed copy.

Resources for Children with Special Needs, Inc. is a citywide information, referral, advocacy and training center serving children with disabilities birth to 26, their parents and caregivers, and professionals who work on their behalf.
