

$ Jeopardy $

Point Value - Color Codes

Green $ 100

Yellow $ 200

Pink $ 300

Purple $ 400

Blue $ 500

Categories

Opposites

Mobility Words

Crossing the Street

Transportation

Things Indoors

Things Outdoors

Things in Your Neighborhood

Opposites – Level A (K-2)

100	200	300	400	500
top	on the top	on top of	over there	rough
in	on	hard as a rock	near	come
front	over	cold	sunny	bumpy
up	inside	wet	fast	forward
open	right	to the left	dangerous	opening

Opposites – Level B (3-5)

100	200	300	400	500
on top of	toward	in danger	far away	helpful
far away	push	slow down	high up	deep
above	moving	put down	smooth	right side
inside of	walking	take away	full	step down
straight	forward	round	safely	running

Opposites – Level C (5-7)

100	200	300	400	500
far away	crooked	clockwise	distant	decline
high above	safe	north	elevator	deep
strong	pushing	east	complete	sharp
come here	crowded	empty out	carefully	evening
uptown	backwards	go away	bend down	on time

Mobility Words - Level B & C (3-5, 5-7)
(This category does not exist for Level A)

100	200	300	400	500
The teacher who shows kids how to use a cane	These are special lessons to teach kids how to cross the street	This is the right way to travel with your guide	Kids hold this to their eye to read street signs and see traffic lights	If this breaks the cane can fall apart
The part of the cane that touches the ground	Kids hold their canes this way to follow the wall	How you know that the sidewalk is broken	You know you are here when your cane bumps down indoors	Kids have this so people know where they go to school
Your teacher tells you to do this when you bend down	3 things you do to go up the stairs with your cane	Your cane does this at the corner	You know you are here when your cane bumps down outdoors	Only this part of your hand touches the wall when you trail
Your teacher tells you to do this to follow the wall	A mobility tool that fits in your backpack or desk	The name of the cane technique where your cane is slanted across your body	A mobility tool grown ups use that has four legs and a tail	Drivers are supposed to be careful when they see a person using this
You do this to go across the hall	Someone who helps you by letting you hold their arm	The part of the cane you hold in your hand	You use these to figure out if a car is coming	Three kinds of cane tips

Things Indoors – Level A (K-2)

100	200	300	400	500
This is where you get a drink	It covers the floor and feels soft and fuzzy	You use this to wipe your feet when you come inside	You can ride in this to go from one floor to another	This is sometimes near the door on a rainy day
You use this to open the door	Push the button and water comes out	This is where your teacher sits	It is on the wall and tells you what room you are in	The lowest floor in a building
This is where you go to wash your hands	It is on the wall, people open and close it for fresh air	You walk up and down these to go from one floor to another	The security guard sits here	The very top of a building
You open this to go outside	The room where you eat breakfast and lunch	You use this to turn on the water	It has a big screen. Kids use it to read print that is too small to see.	Sometimes your teacher closes this to block the sun
Everyone walks on this	You go to assembly here	These are in the middle of long hallways	You can find this on both sides of most stairways	You walk in this to go from class to class

Things Indoors – Level B (2-5)

100	200	300	400	500
This is where you get a drink	It covers the floor and feels soft and fuzzy	You wipe your feet here when you come inside	Teachers hang students work here	This is at the bottom and top of stairways between floors
You use this to open the door	Push the button and water comes out	The lowest floor in a building	It is on the wall and tells you what room you are in	It stops running during a fire drill
This is where you go to wash your hands	It is on the wall, people open and close it for fresh air	It makes your classroom cool	A place to play ball inside	The very top of a building
You use this to go outside	The room where kids eat together	A key opens this	It has a big screen. Kids use it to read print that is too small to see.	Use this to turn the lights on and off
Everyone walks on this	You walk in this to go from class to class	In hallways and classrooms, they keep you warm	These are on both sides stairways	The top of every room

Things Indoors – Level C (5-7)

100	200	300	400	500
It has a spout and gives you a drink	It covers the floor and feels soft and fuzzy	You wipe your feet here when you come inside	Teacher hang students work here	This is at the bottom and top of stairways between floors
On a door, it turns or goes up and down	Push the button and water comes out	Two names for the lowest floor in a building	It is on the wall and tells you what room you are in	It stops running during a fire drill
This is where you go to wash your hands	People open and close it for fresh air	It makes your classroom cool	You can find a basketball court here	Stairs that keep moving
It let you go in and out of a building	The room where kids eat together	You put a key here to open something	A floor that slants up or down	Doors that go round and round
Everyone walks on this	You walk in this to go from class to class	These stay closed and are in the middle of long hallways	These are on both sides stairways	Things we use to hang up our coats

Things Outdoors – Level A (K-2)

100	200	300	400	500
This is where you walk outside	They are tall and have leaves in the spring and summer	You use this to throw away your papers outside	They fly around and live in nests	Don't slip on this in the winter
This is where cars ride	People plant flowers here	They fall to the ground in the month of October	It covers the ground in the winter, it is cold and white	It blows around and messes up your hair
This is where you go to play outside	This is what you find at the end of the sidewalk	They are pretty and they smell good	When you step in this, your shoes and feet get all wet	They park at the curb
You hear them high in the sky	It goes up and down and kids play on it	It grows in the ground, it's green, and is in a yard or garden	It shines on everyone	They tell you what street you are on
People live here	It is tall, made of metal, and goes around your school yard	They buzz around and bother you in the summer	Rain falls from these	It can have two or three wheels for kids to ride on

Things Outdoors – Level B (2-5)

100	200	300	400	500
It is made of cement and you walk on it	They are tall and have leaves in the spring and summer	You use this to throw away your papers outside	You find these at the curb in busy neighborhoods. Drivers put quarters in them.	Don't slip on this in the winter
This is where cars drive	It blows around and messes up your hair	Firemen get their water here	You can buy newspapers from these	Water, snow, and ice drain down over here
It is the shape of a rectangle and has sidewalks all around	This is what you find at the end of the sidewalk	They tell you what street you are on	When you step in this, your shoes and feet get all wet	The name for cars, buses, and trucks
You hear them high in the sky	Three kinds of emergency vehicles	It grows in the ground, it's green, and is in a yard or garden	They look like shadows or feel like bumps when you walk along the sidewalk	They are round bumpy metal plates in the sidewalk
It shines on everyone	It is tall, made of metal, and goes around your school yard	Wheelchairs use this to cross the street	These vehicles sell kids treats in the summer time	A big vehicle that removes snow

Things Outdoors – Level C (5-7)

100	200	300	400	500
It is made of cement and has a curb at the outer edge	The rough outside on a tree trunk	There are four of these on a block	They are on short poles at parking spots	Don't slip on this in the winter
Vehicles travel here	These are up high on poles at the corner so you know where you are	It is short, near the curb, firemen get their water here	Wet dirt is called by this name	Water, snow, and ice drain down over here
It is the shape of a rectangle and has sidewalks all around	You use this to throw away your papers outside	They are short and leafy	When you step in this, your shoes and feet get all wet	The name for cars, buses, and trucks
Two things you hear them high in the sky	It is tall and thin, maybe made of metal or wood	It is green, and is in a yard or garden. Sometimes has a "keep off" sign.	They look like shadows or feel like bumps when you walk along the sidewalk	They are round bumpy metal plates in the sidewalk
Emergency vehicles have these	It is tall, made of metal, and goes around your school yard	In the winter this is what we call the wet sloppy snow at the corner	Wheelchairs use this to cross the street	A big vehicle that removes snow

Crossing the Street – Level A (K-2)

100	200	300	400	500
Someone at home who can cross you safely	The traffic signal that tells you it is OK to cross	This color traffic light tells cars to go.	This tool lets kids who don't see find the curb.	A car that goes too fast is...
A tool on your body you use to cross the street	The traffic signal that tells you, "do not cross the street now."	Someone who is not allowed to cross you	Ask this person for help to play with your friends across the street.	Cars start going when the traffic light changes from red to this color.
This is where you wait to cross the street	This is what you find at the end of the sidewalk	You wait to cross when you hear the siren from this vehicle.	What you should do when your ball rolls into the street	It is very noisy when you hear these on the road
The person at school crosses you safely	A big red sign that tells the cars to stop	Drivers know you are a kid who is visually impaired when you use this.	What you say when someone you don't know says, "cross the street with me."	Drivers honk this when they see something dangerous.
The place where cars, buses, and trucks travel	The sound cars make when they start moving	This color traffic light tells cars to stop.	The place where you are supposed to walk when you cross the street	The noise from this up in the sky makes it hard for kids who are visually impaired to hear cars coming.

Crossing the Street – Level B (3-5)

100	200	300	400	500
Someone at home who can cross you safely	The traffic signal that tells you it is OK to cross	This color traffic light tells cars to go	A car that goes too fast is...	Kids who don't see use this to cross the street
Two important tools you use to cross the street	The traffic signal that tells you, "do not cross the street now."	Kids who are visually impaired see or hear this at a corner with traffic lights.	Kids should ask this person for help to play across the street.	You see or hear the cars go when the traffic light changes from red to this color.
This is where you wait to cross the street	You find this at the end of the sidewalk	You wait to cross when you hear sirens from this vehicle.	This is what you should you do when your ball rolls across street.	The sounds you hear in a traffic jam
Kids who are visually impaired wait for this to cross where there is no traffic light.	A big red sign that tells the cars to stop	Drivers know you are a kid who is visually impaired when you use this.	You should say this when someone you don't know says, "cross the street with me."	Drivers do this when the see something dangerous.
The person at school who crosses you safely	The sound you hear when cars start moving	This color traffic light tells cars to stop.	The white painted lines where you are supposed to walk when you cross the street	The place where two streets meet and you cross the street. It starts with the letter I.

Crossing the Street – Level C (5-7)

100	200	300	400	500
Someone at home you can ask to cross you	Kids who are visually impaired see or hear this when the traffic signal says it is OK to cross.	Kids who are blind find the curb using this tool.	The four syllable word for people who walk outside. It starts with the letter P.	A car that goes too fast is...
Three important tools you use to cross the street	Kids who are visually impaired see or hear this when the traffic signal says, “do not cross the street now.”	Kids who are visually impaired use these sounds to figure out if there is traffic light.	This tool helps kids with low vision see the pedestrian signal.	Cars start going when the traffic light changes from red to this color
The place where two streets meet and you cross the street. It starts with the letter I.	You find these at most corners. They help people in wheelchairs.	Kids who are visually impaired do this when they hear an emergency vehicle at a crossing	What you should do when your ball rolls across street.	The sounds you hear in a traffic jam
Kids who are visually impaired wait for this to cross the street when there is no traffic light.	A big red sign that tells the cars to stop	Drivers know you are a kid who is visually impaired when you use this.	What you say when someone you don’t know tells you, “it’s safe to cross the street, go ahead.”	It makes so much noise that it is not safe to cross the street
This is the first thing kids who are visually impaired do when they get to the corner.	Kids who are visually impaired see or hear this when cars start moving.	Kids who are visually impaired do this if cars turn when they start crossing.	The place where you are supposed to walk when you cross the street	The two different kinds of signal lights at intersections

Transportation – Level A (K-2)

100	200	300	400	500
It flies high in the sky	Kids ride these on the sidewalk	You wait for the bus here	It brings food to the supermarket	Grown-ups use this to move furniture and boxes
It rides under the ground	Kids buy ice cream here	Airplanes take off and land here	Kids wear this when they ride a bike	You have to pay for a ride in this yellow car
It is big and yellow and takes kids to school	A big red truck that comes to put out fires	This is the noisy part of the school bus	It rides on tracks	You pay for the subway here
Babies have to sit here when they ride in a car	It collects the garbage	The subway stops here	You wait here to get on the subway	You use this to pay for the subway
On a bus, they go round and round	It has four wheels, four doors, an engine, and a trunk	Lots of people ride in this above ground	The person who opens and closes the subway doors	You use this to pay for the city bus

Transportation – Level B (3-5)

100	200	300	400	500
It flies high in the sky	Kids ride these on the sidewalk	The person who opens and closes the subway doors	It has more than 4 wheels, and brings food to the supermarket	Grown-ups use this to move furniture and boxes
It rides under the ground	Kids buy ice cream here	Airplanes take off and land here	Kids wear this when they ride a bike	You have to pay for a ride in this yellow car
Kids in the first grade ride this to go to school	You wait for the bus here	This is the noisy part of the school bus	You travel on the water when you are in this	You read this to figure out how to get where you are going
A big red truck that comes to put out fires	You pay for the subway here	The subway stops here	You wait here to get on the subway	This is where you buy a metro card
There are 4 of these at the bottom of cars	It has four wheels, four doors, an engine, and a trunk	Lots of people ride in this above ground	You hear this sound when a subway door closes	It looks like a bike, but has a noisy engine

Transportation – Level C (5-7)

100	200	300	400	500
It take off, lands, and flies high in the sky	It tells you what bus you are on	Grown-ups use this to move their furniture and boxes	It brings food to the supermarket	Their names are A, D, R, and F
Trains that ride underground	When you hear the tune you go to this truck	Airplanes take off and land here	Kids wear this when they ride a bike	You have to pay for a ride in this yellow car
You pay for the subway here	Cars and trucks pay a toll here	This is the noisy part of the school bus	It rides on tracks	It takes people to and from Manhattan on the water
You pay for the bus here	It collects the garbage	The subway stops here	You wait here to get on the subway	You use this to pay for the subway
These are big and round, and made of rubber	You use this to get off the bus at your stop	Lots of people ride on this above ground	The person who opens and closes the subway doors	You use this to pay for the city bus