

Commending Professionalism...

Thank you, Karen! I also wanted you to know how I've been amazed by how professional your team is when they've been here at MCC to evaluate our students. In spite of behaviors and non-typical developing skills, they always bond with the students and in the short amount of time they're here, develop enough rapport and understanding to make an appropriate recommendation. I commend them for their professionalism, skill, and knowledge!