

“High School Choice” Application

To District 75 Parents and Guardians:

For the 2011-2012 school year, District 75 has established a new admission process for choosing a High School. As the parent/guardian of a student transitioning to District 75 high school you have three choices. After reviewing the District 75 High School Choice Directory, print your three (3) choices in order of priority. Please complete this application and begin this exciting new transition to a high school.

STEP 1: Fill out the student information completely. Applications missing any student information will not be processed.
