The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in our school. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. Our school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association, and Title I Parent Committee as trained volunteers and welcomed members of our school community. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents, and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. 1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [see tool kit].)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

When a student is admitted at P.S. 123, parents are actively involved in the decision-making process. There is a mult step process that ensures that students are properly identified, proper paper work such as entitlement letters, parent survey and program choice are distributed to parents. Each family is assisted by a licensed pedagogue, Ms. Lucy Velez, during the ELL identification process. This ensures appropriate placement and educational services for every child in the New York City educational system.

The first step in the ELL Identification Process is the screening/enrollment. At this time, the home language questionnaire is administered. If the home language is other than English or student's native language is other than English, the child is identified as an eligible candidate for Bilingual instructional service. At this time, an informal interview is administered. If student speaks a language other than English and students speaks little or not English step #2 - initial assesement is conducted. Candidates are administered the language Assessment Battery-Revised (LAB-R) by a Ms. L. Velez, pedagogue. First they take it in English, if they don't score a passing level. Students are administered the Spanish LABR. During the interview, parents are given the Parent Survey and walked through it. They are also given the Parent Option Form. Step #3 is program placment. If candidate is found to be an ELL, students are placed in an appropriate program. In order to enable parents to make sound educational decisions as to which program (Transitional Bilingual or Freestanding ESL) best meets the needs of their child, parents participate in several activities prior to making a placement student decision. Parents participate in an orientation that describes various programs for ELL students and visit classrooms to observe the various programs. Each family is assisted by the parent coordinator and a licensed pedagogue, Ms. Velez, during the ELL identification process. An entitlement letter is provided to parents to inform them of the child's language identification. The child is enrolled in the appropriate program within ten days of indentification. Parent Survey letters and Parent Option letters are given during the initial screening process. All letters must be returned to Ms. Velez by the conclusion of the ELL identification process. Both parent surveys and parental option letters are kept in students cumulative records. All other entitlement letters are distributed by the assistant prinipical, or the coordinator and collected and kept in a binder in the AP's office.

If at any time, parents need translators, we use the parent coordinator or staff members if it is Spanish. If it is a language less common we call the translating services for assistance.

The steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Lange Achievement Test (NYSESLAT). First, we determine eligibility by reviewing the following ATS reports: RLER, RLAT, REXH and the LABR. This is usually done by Ms. Hidalgo, the Assistant Principal. Ms. Hidalgo, provides teachers administering the NYSESLAT a schedule for the administration of the Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing Components. Components of NYSESLAT test are administered by the classroom teachers during designated times and dates.

At P.S. 123k, the trend in program choices over the last five years has been ESL and Bilingual classes. ESL has been the greater of the two. In grades K-2, we have two ESL freestanding classrooms in each grade and one bilingual classroom in order to aligne with parent request. In grades 3-5, we have one ESL freestanding classroom due to request and proficiency scores on NYSESLAT.

Part IV: ELL Programming

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered?
 - a. What are the organizational models (e.g., Departmentalized, Push-In [Co-Teaching], Pull-Out, Collaborative, Self-Contained)?
 - b. What are the program models (e.g., Block [Class travels together as a group]; Ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class]; Heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels]; Homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?
2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
 - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?
3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to enrich language development.
4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages?
5. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
 - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
 - b. Describe your plan for ELLs in US schools less than three years (newcomers). Additionally, because NCLB now requires ELA testing for ELLs after one year, specify your instructional plan for these ELLs.
 - c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
 - d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6 years).
6. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?
7. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the least restrictive environment?

Currently, we have a Transitional Bilingual Program (TBE), and ESL Self-Contained classes. For our students in the TBE classes, instruction is provided in the students' native language with rigorous support in English. The native language is utilized to reinforce comprehension skills while developing fluency and comprehension in English. As per CR Part 154 policy guidelines, English instruction will increase from 60%/Spanish – 40%/English to 60%/English – 40%/Spanish (dependent upon student progress and linguistic needs).

The goals of our TBE and ESL programs are:

- To achieve L2 (English) proficiency within three years.
- To utilize English as a Second Language techniques in all subject areas with the purpose of facilitating comprehension.
- To support the ELL students in acquiring English language proficiency and meeting state requirements for exiting the program successfully.
- To identify 'at risk' students, their needs and provide AIS services.

The Transitional Bilingual/ESL Programs at P.S. 123K are designed and implemented in accordance with CR part 154 Title III guidelines. Servicing approximately one-third of the student population, the programs are demonstrative of natural learning conditions. These environments reflect communities of learners who share common cultural and linguistic similarities. The bilingual classrooms emulate student cultural and linguistic backgrounds. (There are seven K-5 self-contained ESL classes.) Moreover, they are enriched with the learning experiences of the target language (English). Our vision is to create environments that promote successful academic careers, emotional solidity and strong positive social skills.

In addition, the TBE Program aims at utilizing the student's native language to develop conceptual skills. The focus is to teach and challenge students at high levels of thinking in their native language with the purpose of embedding comprehension skills while they are learning English. This coupled with the ESL strategies will develop skills in understanding the cognitive areas (listening, speaking, reading and writing) in English. Content area instruction will be provided in the native language and English according to the student's language proficiency. This will enable the students to maintain an appreciation for their history and culture while developing effective communication skills. Teachers use linguistic summaries of all teaching points for the last 15 minutes of each lesson. Lessons include Independent work, group work or partnerships and ability-based activities that align with the language proficiency. The teachers encourage the use of the instructional language and discourage code switching. The acquisition of L2 (English) provides for an increase of English instruction and a decrease of L1 (Spanish) instruction. This gradual process is closely monitored by classroom teachers, AIS and the Administration. It will be monitored through conference observation, running records and continual assessment. As a result, differentiated instruction is applied and the groups are functional, flexible and temporary.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

Beginners (60/40)

- 360 minutes per week (ESL)
- Native Language Arts = 45 minutes daily
- Social Studies/Science = 35 (NL)/ 10 (EL)
- Art/Music = 45 (EL)

Intermediate (50/50)

- 360 minutes per week (ESL)
- Native Language Arts = 45 minutes daily
- Social Studies/Science = 35 (NL) /10 (EL)
- Art/Music = 45 (EL)

Advanced (25/75)

- 180 minutes per week (ESL)
- 180 minutes per week (ELA) =as per CR Part 154)
- Social Studies/Science = 35 (EL) 10 / (NL)
- Art/Music = 45 (EL)

All students are appropriately grouped and instructed in accordance with CR Part 154 Regulation. The teachers are continuously assessing (Conference notes, running records, student observation and formal assessments) with the purpose of driving instruction that is conducive to their needs. The students are gradually moved (flexible grouping) as their needs change linguistically, academically, socially and emotionally.

Teachers instruct, assess, diagnose, and prescribe in a cyclical manner. No group ever remains stagnant. There is ongoing active engagement within the groups with the teacher serving as a facilitator. When children reach the level of proficiency, they are placed in a monolingual environment.

To lessen the burden of the transition, students are placed in an environment where the preponderance of the class is composed of children who have had similar experiences. The teacher in this class will have received the required ESL professional development and will have ongoing staff development in the area of ELL instruction.

TBE teachers are the linguistic role models. Strong efforts have been made to provide high quality teachers who have mastery over both languages (Spanish/English) with the aim of affording the students high quality instruction. The teachers design lesson plans based on the results of the NYSESLAT, ECLAS-2, EL SOL, State ELA /Math Exams, and other formal/informal assessments. The activities are designed to develop cognition, higher order thinking, introduce relatively novice language concepts, and develop vocabulary. To achieve this, teachers are utilizing challenging techniques that provoke the minds to link their processing skills to the new language. Rubrics are created and utilized so that the individual student goals are generated to motivate progress, challenges and needs. All activities are highly contextualized to encourage thinking, reading, speaking and writing.

ESL Program (Services)

At P.S. 123K self-Contained ESL classes. In our Self Contained ESL Program, we have licensed pedagogues who incorporate recognized and researched ESL instructional strategies across content subject areas. We have ESL Self Contained classes in grades K-5 with approximately 20-25 students in each class. Teachers used the natural approach to learning English.

The following denotes the manner of instruction.

- Instruction is delivered only in English, but supported by the use of ESL methodologies and techniques.
- The ESL teacher and the classroom teachers share ongoing articulation with the purpose of aligning instruction to student needs.
- Scaffolding is an essential part of the instructional delivery, such as modeling, bridging, schema building, contextualization, text representation and meta-cognition.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

- The students are assisted during class lessons, individual conferencing with students to address specific needs.
- Prior to all state assessments, additional small group AIS sessions for each grade are provided to focus on literacy and academic language.
- All beginning and intermediate students receive 360 minutes a week of ESL instruction. Advanced students receive 180 minutes a week of ESL instruction. Intermediate and Advanced Proficiency levels all receive 360 minutes of ELA a week.
- Differentiated instruction is considered during planning to include students' cultures, language background, and academic status.
- Planning includes interdisciplinary instruction (content areas).
- ESL instruction includes the buddy system (shared pair) where one child can assist another child in the native language in order to avoid code switching.
- Instruction is delivered with comprehensible input; teachers utilize clear and unambiguous teaching points.
- Instruction promotes higher-order thinking; teachers utilize a variety of questioning techniques that include Bloom's Taxonomy.
- Teachers Implement and support the workshop model utilizing ESL strategies in all lessons.

Our targeted intervention programs at P.S. 123K include but are not limited to Extended Afternoon and After School Programs. Our ELL students are notified by teachers and encouraged to participate. Our ELL Parents are notified via letters, parent teacher conferences, parent teacher association meetings. During these times, our ELLs receive assistance and intervention in ELA, math, reading and/or writing. In addition, targeted intervention is provided for our ELLs based on the inquiry criteria in the classroom about 3 to 4 times a week. Students get guided practice in the class in reading, math and/or writing. Guided practice is provided via small group and/or differentiated instruction. Our ELLs are afforded equal access to all school programs. Some of the materials used are: Treasures ELL component, Envisions ELL component, RAZ Kids computer program.

ELLs who reach proficiency in 2 years get one year maintenance in a ESL class if there is room. If there is no room, the teacher is informed of their former ELL status and required to monitor progress.

In order to assist and track progress, we have implemented a periodic assessment using the NYSESLAT sampler. This assessment will allow us to monitor the students progress with a baseline, midline and endline. The data of this test will be used to monitor strengths and weaknesses. It will allow teachers to focus on specific modalities to help the students improve and show growth on the NYSESLAT.

Students are provided native language support with content area books in their native language in all ESL classroom. Students in the 4th grade and 5th grade are supported in their native language by having the assistance of a bilingual para for 1 period daily. Initially, she works with them in basic interpersonal skills. As their English improved, she will also increase their cognitive abilities in English.

would be immediately placed in a program that provides Sheltered English for part of the day. This approach helps the student develop knowledge in specific subject area through the medium of their second language. Teachers modify their use of English to teach core subjects in order to ensure that the material is comprehensible to learners and that it promotes their second language development. Often

E. Parental Involvement

1. Describe parent involvement in your school, including parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?

In addition, we have parent workshops delivered in Spanish by school staff on various topics of interest, including curricular and technology. Our parent Association has a parent lending library. Parents have the opportunity to borrow books in a variety of languages. Books vary from specific genres to self help books.

- Family Celebrations: Throughout the year, parents come to the school to take part in community celebrations, such as mother's day, father's day, family day, and various cultural events.

Native Language Usage and Supports

The chart below is a visual representation designed to show the variation of native language usage and supports across the program models. Please note that native language support is never zero.

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

8. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.
9. Describe your plan for continuing transitional support (2 years) for ELLs reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.
10. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?
11. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?
12. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.
13. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?
14. How is native language support delivered in each program model? (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)
15. Do required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels?
16. Include a description of activities in your school to assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year.
17. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

Our targeted intervention programs at P.S. 123K include but are not limited to Extended Afternoon and After School Programs. Our ELL students are notified by teachers and encouraged to participate. Our ELL Parents are notified via letters, parent teacher conferences, parent teacher association meetings. During these times, our ELLs receive assistance and intervention in ELA, math, reading and/or writing. In addition, targeted intervention is provided for our ELLs based on the inquiry criteria in the classroom about 3 to 4 times a week. Students get guided practice in the class in reading, math and/or writing. Guided practice is provided via small group and/or differentiated instruction. Our ELLs are afforded equal access to all school programs. Some of the materials used are: Treasures ELL component, Envisions ELL component, RAZ Kids computer program.

ELLs who reach proficiency in 2 years get one year maintenance in a ESL class if there is room. If there is no room, the teacher is informed of their former ELL status and required to monitor progress.

In order to assist and track progress, we have implemented a periodic assessment using the NYSESLAT sampler. This assessment will allow us to monitor the students progress with a baseline, midline and endline. The data of this test will be used to monitor strengths and weaknesses. It will allow teachers to focus on specific modalities to help the students improve and show growth on the NYSESLAT.

Students are provided native language support with content area books in their native language in all ESL classroom. Students in the 4th grade and 5th grade are supported in their native language by having the assistance of a bilingual para for 1 period daily. Initially, she works with them in basic interpersonal skills. As their English improved, she will also increase their cognitive abilities in English.

C. Schools with Dual Language Programs

1. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
2. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
3. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
4. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
5. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

B. After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following

- Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How can this information help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
- What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
- How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions?
- For each program, answer the following:
 - Examine student results. What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the Native Language used?
- For dual language programs, answer the following:
 - How are the English Proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
- Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs.

Paste response to questions 1-6 here

- Early literacy assessment tools are Fountas and Pinnel, baseline, midlines and endlines in reading and writing. These assessments provide us with the ability to see where our students stand in reading and writing. Thus, it allows teachers to see what skills students need to improve their skills. The data guides the instruction and flexible grouping in the classroom
- Our Nyseslat scores for Spring 2011 demonstrated that many of our students are becoming proficient. The NYSESLAT data revealed that many of our students are progressing faster in reading and writing than in listening and speaking.
- As a result, we teachers have been instructed to have students use accountable talk stems, turn and talks and sharing at the end of lessons so that students will have an opportunity to speak. Teachers are implementing the use of listening centers and read alouds on a daily basis to provide students with listening activities that will improve their listening skills.

Nyseslat 2011:

13% of our students scored on the Beginner level.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2011-2012

CEP Appendix 7

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 32k123 School Name: 123

Cluster: 2 Network: 204

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

•Translation and Interpretation Services: At P.S. 123K a form was created and given to parents to determine the language they prefer to receive school notices. Parents had to return the sheet. Once sheet was received a Parent Biography Screen was developed on ATS. Everytime a new student arrives at our school, parents are given the sheet and a biography of language preference is created on ATS. In addition, parents fill out a Blue Emergency Card which depicts language of preference as well.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

•Most of our parents written translation and oral interpretation needs are in spanish. Everything we send home is sent in spanish and English. Our findings were reported in parent teacher association meetings and in letter form.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

All of our notifications are sent in Spanish and English. Whenever written translation services are required, we use in house staff and teachers to assist in translation. We used actual oral translations services once for our chinese parent.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Our oral interpretation services are provided by staff, teachers, and translation/interpretation services whenever necessary.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link:
<http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

At P.S. 123K we have our notification requirements at the main entrance. The Bill of Rights and Responsibilities and Translation and Interpretation services for parents are posted in at the main entrance in 8 languages. Our safety plan contains procedures that specifically call for interpretative services if parents need or request it. In addition, our parent coordinator assist us in ensuring that parents are aware of their rights in their specific language. She makes certain that all parents are aware of the Translation and Interpretation Unit available.

2011-12 Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP): Appendix 8

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs

Directions: Title III supplemental services for ELLs must include all of the following three components:

- Direct instruction: activities must be used to support language development, English and native language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or other core academic areas.
 - The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need
 - These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ESL services required under CR Part 154.
 - Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs as well as reduced class-size, and/or push-in services.
 - Teachers providing the services must be certified bilingual education and/or ESL teachers.
- High quality professional development that is “of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers’ performance in classrooms.”
 - Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs.
 - These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist.

Supplementary Programs

In order to support learning and foster community involvement, we use a portion of our Title III, funding to create supplementary programs for ELLs and their families. These include:

- Saturday ELL Academy for 5th Grade: Our Saturday Academy offers both remediation and enrichment in Science, Mathematics, and ESL. Additionally, activity clubs in art, gym, and dance are offered.
- After School Program: Our students are given the opportunity to stay in school at 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. We assist students academically in reading, writing and math.
- Parent Classes: We offer several classes weekly for parents in ESL, computer, literacy, math, nutrition, arts and crafts. We have special sessions that focus on HIV, and citizenship classes. In addition, we have parent workshops delivered in Spanish by school staff on various topics of interest, including curricular and technology. Our parent Association has a parent lending library. Parents have the opportunity to borrow books in a variety of languages. Books vary from specific genres to self- help books.
- Spring Institute- During our Spring Break we will have classes for all ELLs in grades K-5 to practice and give students extra support in Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing.
- Family Celebrations: Throughout the year, parents come to the school to take part in community celebrations, such as Mother's Day, Father's Day, Family Day, and various cultural events.
- Translation and Interpretation Services: These services are offered to increase the involvement of parents in our school. This Title III, funding is used to translate important policy documents, mainly in Spanish. The Parent Handbook is the document we have made available. Additionally, interpretation services are a daily help in communication between school staff and parents.
