ANNUAL GOAL #1 AND ACTION PLAN

Use this template to identify an annual goal. Respond to each section to indicate strategies and activities in support of accomplishing this goal.

Annual Goal #1

- Describe a goal you have identified for the year. Refer to the directions and guidance for assistance in developing your goals.

By June 2012, Students with Disabilities student group will demonstrate progress towards achieving state standards as measured by a 5% increase in SWD subgroup scoring at Level 3 and 4 on the NYS ELA Assessment.

Comprehensive needs assessment

- Describe the identified need that generated this goal. The needs assessment should encompass the entire school and be based on the performance of students in relation to State academic content and student achievement standards.

After conducting an analysis of student performance data on state assessments last year, it was determined that all student groups showed increases in performance on the English Language Arts Assessment, except for the SWD student group which underperformed all other student groups for the last year. As a result we have made progress for our SWD subgroup a priority goal for the school year.

Instructional strategies/activities

- Describe the research-based instructional strategies and activities that will be used to achieve this goal. Include descriptions of the following in your response:
 - strategies/activities that encompass the needs of identified student subgroups,
 - staff and other resources used to implement these strategies/activities,
 - steps taken to include teachers in the decision-making regarding the use of academic assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies/activities,
 - timeline for implementation.

Activity #1

- Professional Development: PD will be given on the following topics: Interim Assessments to monitor and revise curriculum; use of rubrics with the language of the standards to provide specific feedback to students regarding their work; use of student data to plan and set goals; further development of inquiry as teams of teachers using data to inform differentiated lesson planning.
- Target Population(s): Teachers servicing SWDs and students in the SWD subgroup.
- Responsible Staff Members: Principal, Assistant Principal, CFN-210 Instructional Specialist, Data Specialist and IEP Teacher.
- Implementation Timeline: September 2011 through May 2012

Activity #2

- Creation of a Data Room: A data room will be designated so that instructional teacher teams will have a designated location to be trained in the use of disaggregated student data. This will include the use of cross curriculum data, made accessible in the room, focusing on SWDs and at risk students. Activities carried out in the data room will include monitoring student progress, setting initial goals for groups and individual students in ELA, programmatic implications based on indicators of interim progress assessment results and follow-up activities. Responsible staff will facilitate discussions of the students' progress and strategies for improved student outcomes, including Level 1-4 students.
- Target Population(s): Teams of Teachers working with SWDs and all Teacher Teams.
- Responsible Staff Members: Principal, Assistant Principal, Teachers, Data Specialist and IEP Teacher.

- Implementation Timeline: September through December 2011.

Activity #3

- Effective Instruction:
 - Utilization of Comprehension Strategy Instruction (Fountas and Pinnell and Stephanie Harvey) during Reader's/Writers Workshop. Daily small group, needs based differentiation aligned with CCLS. Unit Plans and Lesson Plans with entry points for all SWD will be revised and implemented.
 - Flexible, needs-based grouping to be determined by teacher assessment, push-in assistance by classroom teachers, cluster, teachers and support personnel during extended day (50 minutes; 2 times a week).
 - Ongoing throughout the school year, the pedagogical staff will use tracking sheets from Benchmark (Fountas and Pinnell) maintained on an ongoing basis for all SWDs.
- Target Population(s): All SWD students in Grades 3 through 5.
- Responsible Staff Members: Principal, Assistant Principal, Classroom Teachers, ELA AIS Support Teacher, Cluster Teachers.
- Implementation Timeline: September 2011 through June 2012

Steps for Including Teachers in the Decision-Making Process:

- Teachers will meet in grade-level and cross functional teams to review student data gathered from periodic assessments.
- Staff determined that a 2% increase in student performance would be the interim benchmark used by teacher teams to measure the effectiveness of the activity/strategy; and whether additional support in using multiple data points to analyze data and differentiated instruction is needed.
- Periodic Assessment Dates: November 2011, January 2012 and March 2012.

Strategies to increase parental involvement

- Cite the strategies and activities in your school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve this goal.

 - The school will host curriculum nights and provide parents with user-friendly instructional materials and guides (e.g., Grade Specific Handouts Pre-K through 5).
 - The Parent Coordinator and designated teachers will attend scheduled parent meetings (e.g., PA) to share information and respond to parent questions and inquiries.
 - Parents will be trained on how to use ARIS Parent Link.

Strategies for attracting Highly Qualified Teachers (HQT)

PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY (PIP)

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental involvement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association, and Title I Parent Committee as trained volunteers and welcomed members of our school community. P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School will support parents and families of Title I students by:

- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional development opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of our P.S. 194 community;

P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School's Parent Involvement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of English Language Learners and students with disabilities. P.S. 194's community will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent involvement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association, as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, our school will:

- actively involve and engage parents in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the Comprehensive Educational Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to schools to promote parent involvement, including family literacy and parenting skills;

- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent involvement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in our Parent Involvement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association and Title I Parent Committee. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional development, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend our school and will work to ensure that P.S. 194's environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;
- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., NCLB/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, Progress Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting on or before December 1st of each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent involvement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1118 and other applicable sections under the No Child Left Behind Act;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed;
- conduct an Annual Title I Parent Fair/Event where all parents are invited to attend formal presentations and workshops that address their student academic skill needs and what parents can do to help;

P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School will further encourage school-level parental involvement by:

DIRECTIONS: This submission form assists schools with gathering and organizing the quantitative and qualitative information necessary for a well-conceived school-based language allocation policy (LAP) that describes quality ELL programs. This LAP form, an appendix of the CEP, also incorporates information required for CR Part 154 funding so that a separate submission is no longer required. Agendas and minutes of LAP meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school. Also, when preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the green spaces. Spell-check has been disabled in this file, so consider typing responses to these questions in a separate file before copying them into the submission form. Part II: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [see tool kit].)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

Parents of newly admitted ELL students meet with the in-take team, which consist of the Principal, ESL teacher and Parent Coordinator when they arrive. A Home Language Survey, in their native language, is issued to the parent to help identify if there's a second language spoken at home. As the parent is completing the survey the ELL teacher, Mrs. Florian (who is fluent in English/Spanish) conducts an informal oral interview with the student and parent to gather additional information on the student. Mrs. Sullivan, an AIS teacher, who has been trained by our ELL teacher, will conduct the interview if Mrs. Florian is not available. If the parent requires an interpreter to communicate with we have staff members available in the languages of Spanish, Russian, Chinese and Hebrew. When a parent whose language is not represented at our school we turn to either a parent volunteer or the Translation and Interpretation Unit's Interpretation hotline for help. Once the parent completes the HLIS the ELL teacher then reviews the survey and identifies whether or not the student is eligible for testing. If the student is eligible the ELL teacher informs the parent that the student will be assessed within 10 days of their registration to determine proficiency in the English language and based on their overall score they will be identified as an ELL and be eligible for additional services. To ensure that all our students are assessed within 10 school days the pupil account secretary Mrs. Perlmutter and Mrs. Florian (ELL teacher) are in constant communication. The pupil account secretary provides the ELL teacher with the weekly ELL Reminder to Administer the LAB-R report that is generated every Monday morning. In addition, the ELL teacher provides the parent orientation and completes the required ELPC (ELL Parent Choice Updated) screen in ATS within the 10 days as well.

Once the students are assessed with the LAB-R the ELL teacher gathers their HLIS, makes a copy of the survey and places the original HLIS in their cumulative record. The copy of the HLIS is retained by the ELL teacher. Parent of students who pass the LAB-R are sent home Non- Entitlement letters informing them that their child is not eligible to receive ELL services. Mrs. Florian, our ELL teacher, keep a record of copies of the letters and the dates the letters were sent home Parents of students who fall below the cut off scores in the LAB-R are invited to participate in a Parent Orientation to discuss program options for their child. The Parent Orientations are held throughout the year as needed, the first orientation always being in September within 10 school days. Additional Parent Orientations are held during the school year depending on the dates we receive newly admitted students. All parent orientations whether they are in September or December are held within 10 school days from when the student is registered. Parents are sent invitations to the orientation in their native language and a follow up phone call is made remembering parents of the upcoming orientation. Along with the orientation invitations an Entitlement letter in their native language is sent home. The letter informs the parent that their child was administered the LAB-R and are entitled to receive additional services. Mrs. Florian keeps copies of the letters and well as a record of when these entitlement letters were sent home. At the orientations, the ELL teacher, Mrs. Florian presents the Parent Orientation video in the parents native language by accessing it through the New York City Department of Education website. After viewing the orientation video the parents are presented with pamphlets in their native language that describes the various programs available to their child. An English/Spanish orientation is held with our ELL teacher Mrs. Florian, an English/Chinese with our Chinese speaking classroom teacher Ms. Chin and ELL teacher Mrs. Florian, an English/Russian orientation with our Russian speaking para Ms. Miller and ELL teacher Mrs. Florian and an English/Urdu orientation with our ELL teacher Mrs. Florian and a contracted vendor.

Parents who do not attend the orientation are contacted by phone and a make up session is scheduled. Once the parents first viewed the video, then read and understood all the information on the various programs, they are given a parent selection form for them to fill out and return the next day with their selection. A reward is given to the students who return the forms the next day to serve as an incentive. The completed Parent Survey and Selection forms are photocopied-the original is placed in the student's cumulative record and the copy is held with the ELL teacher. Mrs. Florian keeps a list of all the ELL students, on that list she verifies that all the students have submitted a completed Parent Survey and Selection form. Copies of the Parent Survey and Selection forms are kept in Mrs. Florian ELL Binder.

Depending on the parents selection students are placed in their requested program. A placement letter is then sent out to the parents in their native language informing them that their child will be participating in their requested program. If the parent requests a program that is not available at our school the parent is informed that they can obtain a transfer to another school were their program is offered. If the parent opts to maintain their student in our school they are informed that the student will receive ESL services and if the program they select becomes available at our school they will be notified. Our process to inform our parents who have previously chosen a TBE/DL program when the program becomes available is we send out a letter in their native language informing them of the availability of the program and the ESL teacher Mrs. Florian along with the parent coordinator Mrs. Stevens make phone calls to the parents and schedule an additional parent workshop with all the parents interested in the TBE/DL programs informing them of the program and our next steps as a school to ensure that their child is placed.

The trend in program choices that parents have been requesting through the parent survey and program selection forms has been English as a Second Language. In order to monitor our school's trends in parent choice. The ELL teacher Mrs. Florian analyses all the parent surveys and selection forms. She reviews all the forms from all the current and newly admitted ELL students and verifies that our school is honoring our parents choices. We currently have 48 ELL students, out of the 48 students a total of 48 parents requested that their child participate in an ESL program. We aligned our program model with parent requests. We currently have a Free Standing ESL program that is designed to assist ELL students achieve the Common Core State Standards for their grade level. Through academic subject area instruction in English, using Balanced Literacy methodologies and instructional strategies of ESL, we target their specific needs by strengthening their reading skills with particular emphasis on decoding skills, phonemic awareness, comprehension, fluency, vocabulary development and writing.

In addition to the newly admitted ELLs, Mrs. Florian takes steps to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT). She runs the ATS report RLER which provides her with a list of student names that are eligible to take the LAB-R and NYSESLAT. She then cross references the ATS report with her student roster and creates a schedule for the administration of the NYSESLAT. Once a schedule of the days and times the NYSESLAT has been created, Mrs. Florian distributes a letter to all the ELL parents in their native language informing them of the days and times their child will be taking the NYSESLAT. She also sends a NYSESLAT Pamphlet that she downloads from the New York City Department of Education English Language Department website that entails information on the NYSESLAT. To ensure that all the ELL students are tested, Mrs. Florian creates a student roster and keeps a record of which students were tested and not tested. Any student not tested during the initial testing window is tested during the make up period. Before the NYSESLAT testing window is complete, Mrs. Florian reviews her roster and certifies that all eligible ELL students in P.S. 194 are tested in all four modalities of the NYSESLAT.

Parents of identified ELL students who do not reach language proficiency on the NYSESLAT receive a continued entitlement letter stating that their child did not reach english proficiency and is still entitled to receive ESL services in early September. Mrs. Florian distributes the letters to the students, they are instructed to have their parents read the letter and return the signed letter the following school day, students are given a treat to serve as an incentive in getting all the letters returned. The signed continued entitlement letters are stored in Mrs. Florian's ELL binder along with the rest of the ELL letters and documents. A record of who has returned and not returned the letters are kept. Second notices are sent home if the student has not returned the letters within two school days. During our September Welcome Breakfast the ELL teacher Mrs. Florian meets and greets ELL parents. She communicates with parents regarding any entitlement services and honors parent choices. All of our ELL parents have chosen ESL as their program of choice for their child to participate in.

Part IV: ELL Programming

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered?
 - a. What are the organizational models (e.g., Departmentalized, Push-In [Co-Teaching], Pull-Out, Collaborative, Self-Contained)?
 - b. What are the program models (e.g., Block [Class travels together as a group]; Ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class]; Heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels]; Homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?
2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
 - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?
3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to enrich language development.
4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages?
5. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
 - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
 - b. Describe your plan for ELLs in US schools less than three years (newcomers). Additionally, because NCLB now requires ELA testing for ELLs after one year, specify your instructional plan for these ELLs.
 - c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
 - d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6 years).
6. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?
7. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the least restrictive environment?

At P.S. 194 we implement Free Standing ESL Pull-Out program. The program will fulfill mandated units of ESL (as per CR Part 154 requirements) for each student depending on English language proficiency level. Our ELLs are grouped heterogeneously by grades and proficiency levels. We currently service a grade K/1, 2/3 and 4/5. If the ELL is at a beginning or intermediate level, the ELL will be serviced five times a week for an hour and 15 minutes per day for a total of 375 minutes. If the ELL is at an advanced level, the ELL will be serviced three times a week for an hour and 15 minutes per day for 225 minutes per week. We provide native language support to all ELL students through multi-lingual libraries and books, buddy/partners of same language, use of dual language dictionaries and glossaries and the use of multi-lingual leap pads for independent reading. Our advanced ELL students are provided with 180 minutes of ELA instruction through participation in the reader's/writer's workshop during their classroom time. ELL Instruction will focus on reading/writing skills and meaningful content so that students understand why they need to learn details of language use. Integration of reading and math content, with emphasis on problem solving will incorporate ESL strategic instruction that is aligned with grade level math curriculum and Common Core Standards. ELL students are supported through small group math instruction and math AIS push-in grades 3,4, and 5. The integration of technology to support math concepts help our beginning and intermediate level students attain a deeper understanding. The use of math glossaries assist the students in expanding their knowledge of vocabulary needed to solve math problems.

We incorporate explicit ESL instruction, and our ESL teacher aligns her instruction with the ESL and Common Core State Standards (copies of both are located in our ESL classroom). She groups her students heterogeneously giving opportunities for students in levels beginning, intermediate and advanced to interact with each other. The use of leveled readers allows for the teacher to provide differentiated instruction to address all language levels. Informal teacher observations are used to determine how effectively students participate in and complete each skill lesson at their level of proficiency.

The use of scaffolding strategies such as modeling, bridging, contextualization, schema building, text representation and metacognitive development are implemented throughout our program to help academic development and support our ELLs in the content areas. The comprehension of academic content is supported through the use of visuals and manipulatives. Language functions and structures are imbedded in lessons along with language objectives. Students participate in accountable talk during class instruction through the use of activities such as literature circles and partner/buddy share. The teacher models the use of language and charts language structures that should be used during conversations. These language structures remain posted throughout the room for ELLs to refer to. Pre-taught vocabulary is used to deepen comprehension of lessons. Pictures and manipulatives are used to help ELLs develop meaning vocabulary words.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

We align our ESL program with the Common Core State Standards and with classroom core curriculum. Students have access to a leveled and genre organized classroom libraries in English.

Students are assessed in content areas (math, science, social studies and technology) in English only (they are not assessed in their native language) with accommodations. Such accommodation include: time and a half, separate location, option of bilingual dictionaries, simultaneous use of English and direct translation alternate language editions of exams. The classroom teacher as well as the ESL teacher assists in guiding instruction and identifying a student’s strengths and weaknesses. Both analyze the results of these assessments. The classroom teacher, ESL teacher and school coaches will work together to integrate reading and math context.

We offer the following plan for our ELL students receiving service 4 to 6 years. As a school, when we analyse student data (NYSESLAT, NYS ELA/Math/Science, Predictives, ITAs, Fountas & Pinnell levels) we study and interpret student work to identify areas of strengths and needs. Then we develop an action plan that helps the ELL and classroom teacher provide tailored small group instruction on students needs. Academic Intervention services in content areas using ESL strategies are also provided to assist these students.

Newcomers to P.S. 194 are grouped by grade level and language proficiency. Services addressing verbal communication, vocabulary, literacy and acculturation are provided during regular school day and during extended day programs. A Welcome Breakfast is held early September to welcome our newly admitted students and parents to our school community. At this breakfast they are introduced to the administrative staff as well as our entire school staff.

Test sophistication and instruction in content areas is provided for long-term ELLs in small group settings and during extended day programs. Students are also provided with AIS services in content areas that are grade appropriate.

Our plan for Special Education ELLs provides guidance services and pull-out services as they are indicated in a student’s IEP. In addition, ELL Special Education students have a Special Education teacher who provides ongoing support and articulates regularly with the ESL teacher and guidance counselor. To ensure that we meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the lease restrictive environment our ELL-SWDs are grouped along with GE english language learners. They both participate in heterogeneous group work with students with varied proficiency levels and abilities.

Our plan for Students with Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE) includes intensive academic intervention based on assessment (formal and informal) of a student’s academic and social need. Both small group and whole classroom settings will be provided that address needs via lessons and activities that are age and grade appropriate.

Improvements that we are currently working on this school year is getting our ELLs college and career ready. Our ELL teacher along with our monolingual classroom teachers are aligning their curriculum with the Common Core State Standards as well as the NYS ESL Standards. The integration of technology within their lessons helps our students equip themselves with the resources needed to succeed in the future.

8. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.
9. Describe your plan for continuing transitional support (2 years) for ELLs reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.
10. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?
11. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?
12. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.
13. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?
14. How is native language support delivered in each program model? (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)
15. Do required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels?
16. Include a description of activities in your school to assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year.
17. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

Through the use of manipulative and ESL strategies we will deepen the students understanding of key math terms and number facts. Lesson plans include all four components of literacy listening, speaking, reading and writing. All ELLs are expected to participate in small group activities to help in the development of oral and written language. Our ESL teacher follows the writer's workshop model to guide students in writing activities. ELLs produce persuasive, informative and narrative writing pieces following an author's writing process: prewriting, drafting, revising and publishing and aligned to the ESL and Common Core State Standards. Computers are available in our ESL classroom and regular classrooms for our students to use. Teachers are encouraged to integrate the use of such computers in their lessons.

In analyzing the New York State English Language Art assessment and the New York State Math assessments we noticed that our Grade 4/5 students needed additional support in their reading and writing skills and they needed to receive continued support in math. The majority of our ELL students are level 2's in ELA and Math. As a school, we decided to continued support by providing AIS reading and math push-in for all our grades 4/5 ELL students. The AIS ELA and Math teachers push in during a time that the ELLs are not being serviced by the ELL teacher. The ELL teacher, AIS Math and AIS ELA teachers engage in many collegial conferences discussing students progress with the additional AIS support.

Our plan on continuing transitional support for ELLs that achieve proficiency in English are during the day push in small group AIS services in reading and math. Former ELLs also receive testing accommodations for two years after their exit of the program. These testing accommodations include:

- Time extensions
- Separate locations and/or small group administration
- Bilingual glossaries and dictionaries (word for word translations only)
- Simultaneous use of English and other available language editions
- Oral translations for lower incidence languages
- Written responses in the native language
- Third reading of listening selections

After looking closely at our ELLs performance on the NYSESLAT and NYS ELA results we concluded that our ELLs needed support in reading and writing. So we as a school developed an action plan to expose our ELLs to rich literature and higher order thinking skills. This school year we decided to improve our ELL program by providing in house PD for all our teachers on Higher Order questioning to help promote our students critical thinking. Also, we are implementing a new morning book club for ELLs in grades 4/5 twice a week for 50 minutes a day to expose them to classical childrens novels and chapter books.

Unfortunately, due to budgetary constraints we had to discontinue the additional AIS during the day support for our grades 1 and 2 ELL students in reading and math. They continue to receive mandated services in ESL and participate in extended day twice a week. This current school year we also decided as a school to move away from ECLAS testing and assess our students using the Fountas and Pinnell benchmark assessments.

Our ELLs participate in all the curricular and extracurricular activities offered at our school. Such as the Math Initiatives "Star Facts," AIS services are provided for long term ELLs and ELLs who have recently exited out of the ELL program, Music and Art. After school programs are also provided for our English Language Learners such programs include Title III programs for developing their reading, writing and math skills and a morning program for ELLs in Grades 4 and 5 twice a week beginning November 2011. The school uses the

D. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What support do you provide staff to assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle and/or middle to high school?
3. Describe the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff (including non-ELL teachers) as per Jose P.

Our ELL teacher attends off site workshops, seminars and conferences related to ELLs.. She attends monthly ELL professional development meetings within our network to enhance her teaching techniques and to be up to date with ongoing ELL policies and changes. Our teachers participate in inter-visitations, mentoring and participation in professional conferences. These professional development activities will deepen the teacher's understanding of scaffolding skills. Teachers also participate in conferences and workshop aimed at increasing parent involvement in our school community, especially with the immigrant community. The mainstream classroom teacher participates in workshops with the ESL teacher to assist in extending teaching skills to support ELLs in the classroom. All our classroom teachers, out of classroom teachers and service providers (OT/PT/Speech/ Guidance Counselor/Paraprofessionals) as well as our AP and Parent Coordinator participate in monthly Faculty conferences which incorporate ELL strategies and methodologies. Our clerical staff will also participate in mini workshops throughout the school day with our ELL teacher to provide information on how to interact with our ELL Parents and procedures in obtaining translation and interpretation services. Our entire teaching staff participates in Teacher Team Meetings as well as monthly Grade Conferences. Our ELL teacher participates in a Core Teacher Team where she gathers with principal, assistant principal, AIS math and reading teachers, and a grade leader from grades 2-5 twice a month. During scheduled Grade Conferences monolingual classroom and cluster teachers will participate in teacher team meetings that help them incorporate ELL strategies and methodologies with content area. Such strategies will include the use of cooperative learning activities and the use of scaffolding techniques integrated into their balanced literacy. Teachers will be encouraged to keep observation logs of their ELLs to assist in identifying their learning habits and abilities. On September 13, 14 and 15, 2011 grades K-5 and Cluster teachers participated in grade conferences that focused on Everyday Math and implementation of ELL strategies. On October 03, 2011 the ELL teacher provided a faculty conference for all staff members on "Teaching ELLs in Content Areas." On January 10, 11 and 12, 2012 grades K-5 and Cluster Teachers will participate in grade conferences concentrating on differentiating instruction during their ELA periods using ELL strategies and on March 13, 14 and 15, 2012 all classroom and cluster teachers will participate in grade conferences on integrating ELL strategies with their Harcourt Science curriculum.

In addition we are holding PD meetings on ELL strategies and ELL compliance for all our staff members during after-school hours to assist them in obtaining the minimum requirement of the 7.5 hours as per Jose P. We will be holding a workshop on February 27, 2012 from 2:40 pm- 4:40 pm. This workshop will focus on how to integrate ELL strategies within content area and will be given by a licensed ELL teacher. Each teacher participating in this workshop will be required to maintain a copy of the agenda along with any handouts given. The school will maintain a copy of the sign in sheet with an attached agenda to keep a record of our teachers participation towards meeting the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training.

The ESL and classroom teacher meet at designated times to discuss their student's progress and identify additional needs. They work closely together to align their curriculum during common preps. Long term ELLs are serviced by the ESL teacher as well as an AIS provider. They meet to discuss the student's progress, analyze assessments and plan the next steps to be taken as they assist the student in achieving academic success. Additional staff members will attend workshops during common preps and after school workshops that concentrate on ESL methodology to develop and integrate ESL strategies designed to help ELL students.

In order to support our staff in assisting our ELLs transition from elementary to middle school our ELL teacher meets with all the Fifth grade teacher, our School Guidance Counselor and Pupil Personnel secretary to make sure that all ELLs are transitioned to the appropriate school program. They assure themselves that all documents needed for the student is organized and completed to follow the student to his/her new school.

C. Schools with Dual Language Programs

1. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
2. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
3. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
4. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
5. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

E. Parental Involvement

1. Describe parent involvement in your school, including parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

The program makes every effort to involve parents of ELLs in every aspect of student's learning. When an ELL enters the program, his/her parent(s) are given an orientation in which they are shown a New York City Department of Education video (in the home language when possible) and have the program, state standards, assessments, school expectations, general program requirements, and other program choices explained to them. Scheduled parent/teacher conferences take place at least twice a year. Throughout the year, efforts are made to ensure that all possible program and school information are distributed to the parents of ELLs in their home language. The translation funds are used to translate parent letters and forms. The parent coordinator works collaboratively with the ESL and classroom teachers to increase parent participation in school activities.

A translation and interpretation policy has been implemented to facilitate communication between school administrators, teachers and parents of ELLs. Translated versions of school letters will be available to parents of ELLs and interpreters will also be available to assist parents in communicating with teachers and school staff.

Parents of ELLs are invited to participate in all of our parent outreach programs such as: ELL Technology night on October 12, 2011, Math night on October 25, 2011 and October 27, 2011, ELA night on November 29, 2011 and December 01, 2011, Family Science Night on January 31, 2012 and February 02, 2012. They are also invited to our September Welcome Back breakfast which was held on September 20, 2011. A Title III parent workshop on April 26, 2012 will be held to inform them on upcoming assessments and how to further assist their children to prepare for the exams. Interpreters will be present to assist in interpreting with our parents during these workshops.

During many of these parent workshops interpreters will be present to assist the parents in Spanish, Chinese, and Urdu (these are the major languages present in our school community). The use of contracted vendors will provide the interpretation services and if any additional language is needed during the event we will contact the interpretation hotline or request for a parent volunteer to assist.

P.S. 194 partnership with the YMCA after school program services many of our ELL students and provides the opportunities for parents of ELLs to participate in on-site parent workshops and activities. These activities are offered in the parents native languages.

On going parent involvement and support is provided through the parent coordinator's availability to meet and discuss concerns. Our parent coordinator, Ms. Stevens, meets all new students including ELLs. The parent coordinator helps establish a welcoming environment for our parents, she helps educate the parents on the importance of each school members role and their child's educational process. She maintains communication with all parents including parents of ELLs through written and oral forms. She helps organize parental involvement workshops and events based on parents needs and requests. Parents are invited to participate in PA monthly meetings and freely discuss their concerns and needs.

B. After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following

- Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How can this information help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
- What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
- How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions?
- For each program, answer the following:
 - Examine student results. What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the Native Language used?
- For dual language programs, answer the following:
 - How are the English Proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
- Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs.

Our ELLs are grouped heterogeneously according to grade level. This gives an opportunity for low-level English proficiency students to interact with higher-level English proficiency students. The ESL teacher guides classroom instruction and addresses ELLs specific needs by analyzing NYSESLAT and LAB-R scores. The ESL teacher uses data driven instruction to plan for her students and set individual student goals.

In examining our student's results in the four modalities (listening, speaking, reading and writing) we noticed that our ELLs perform well in the modalities of listening and speaking and poorly in reading and writing. This information correlates with our analysis of the New York State English Language Arts assessment. We noticed that the majority of our ELLs were performing below the state standards in reading. Their lack of ability to read and write in English is making it very difficult for them to score levels 3 and 4 on the NYS ELA. We address their needs by strengthening their reading skills with particular emphasis on decoding skills, phonemic awareness, comprehension, fluency, vocabulary development, and modeled and guided writing activities. We are also addressing their needs by providing support in reading and writing through our Title III After-School program. In addition to the students mandated CR Part 154 units of service the ELL students are receiving academic intervention services in grades 1-5 through their extended day program. AIS reading is being provided through push-in model for ELLs in Grades 4-5. The teachers providing the additional services to the ELLs work closely with the ELL teacher to ensure that they incorporate ELL strategies into their small group instruction.

In review of the New York State Math results, we noticed that the majority of our ELLs in grades 3, 4 and 5 were performing on a level 2 and level 3 in Math. Based on this information we plan to continue to assist and develop vocabulary skills to help in problem solving. Continue to support classroom teachers and AIS providers with ESL strategies and methodologies.

Once we studied our data in grades 3, 4 and 5 we concluded that many ELLs perform at approaching or on level for content areas. We believe that the use of their native language during the assessments help scaffold their comprehension of the exam making it possible for them to perform better. During their content area assessments ELLs are given the opportunity to view a translated version of the exam in their native language as well as translated glossaries whereas in any ELA assessments they are only given the exams in English. Our high intermediate and advanced level ELLs in grades 3, 4 and 5 out perform our beginning and low intermediate level ELL students in ELA, but when assessed in content areas (with their native language support) all our ELLs (no matter what proficiency levels they may be) perform at levels 2 or 3.

All our ELL students in grades 3, 4 and 5 participate in Periodic Assessments. Our school leadership and teachers log on to the Acuity website and download student rosters with results as well as student item analyzes. This information helps our school leaders and teachers

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2011-2012

CEP Appendix 7

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 22K194 School Name: Raoul Wallenberg P.S. 194

Cluster: 210 Network: Children First Network Cluster Two

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

Throughout the years at P.S. 194 we have seen our immigrant student population increase. With this growth we have noticed the importance of providing our immigrant families with written translations of all our school letters and forms. We find this to be important because parents need to be informed of all ongoing activities, assessments and events within our school and concerning their child.

Upon registration of new admits our principal, ELL teacher and parent coordinator meet and greet our parents. This opportunity is taken to interview the parent and child to see if a language other than English is spoken at home and preferred by the parent. Then we have our parents complete a Home Language Identification Survey. Parents are requested to check off what language/s are spoken at home to help us identify the different languages in our school community. Parents are also asked to see what their preference of language is when receiving school notices. This information is checked off on the Home Language Survey and our pupil accounting secretary enters the information into ATS. Based on their responses we identified at least 7 different languages throughout our school: Uzbek, Arabic, Chinese, Haitian Creole, Spanish, Urdu and Punjabi.

In early September we held a Parent Orientation Welcome Back breakfast. Our principal, assistant principal, parent coordinator, school coaches and service providers were present to greet and meet parents. At the end of our orientation our major finding was the need of providing school letters in their native languages. We also became aware of our parents' concerns regarding their inability to communicate with their child's teacher and the schools administrators. Many parents felt that their lack of English proficiency prevented them from attending Parent/Teacher conferences and parent workshops.

We found that our teachers had the same concerns regarding their inability of sharing with parents their child's academic performance. Parents and teachers feel there is a great need for providing oral interpretation services for their 1 to 1 meeting with parents and their open house orientations.

The first staff members to greet our parents are our main office staff. Our findings in talking with our office staff was their concern of the language barrier between them and parents coming into the school building. Parents are unable to communicate their reasons for visiting the school and our staff unable to assist them.

Our teachers are very instrumental in identifying the written translation needs of their students. As is our school parent coordinator who establishes good relationships with all our parents in our school community and keeps us inform of their concerns and needs. Our parent coordinator meets and greets all parents in the morning arrival and afternoon dismissal.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

Analysis of our assessments indicated a need for providing written translation of our school letters and forms. Our goal is to have written translated versions of our school letters/memos regarding safety procedures, school calendars and activities in all of our identified languages. Our assessments also indicated a need for parents to communicate with teachers, administrators and office staff and vice versa.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

We currently have Spanish, Chinese, Hebrew and Russian speaking staff members who are willing to assist us in translating our school letters and memos. For the additional languages we will recruit the Translation and Interpretation Unit and/or outside vendors provided by the Department of Education Translation Unit such as Eriksen Translations. Our school secretary along with our Parent Coordinator and ELL teacher have had experience in contacting the Translation and Interpretation Unit for assistance in translating our school letters. They submit the school's request to the unit when needed.

We also provide our parents with a translated version of the Parents' Bill of Rights and Responsibilities. These forms are sent home to the parents and additional copies are maintained in our main office. At P.S. 194 we make sure to be in compliance with the Chancellor's Regulation A-663. Our school provides our parents whose language is a covered language and who requires language assistance services with written notification of their rights regarding translation and interpretation services in the appropriate covered languages, and instructions on how to obtain such services. We have posted in our primary entrance a sign in each of the covered languages indicating the office where a copy of the Bill of Rights is available. In addition, we have signage in our main entrance notifying parents to see a staff member for interpretation services in Chinese, Spanish and Russian. An additional sign is posted informing parents of the available interpretation services in any other language through the Translation and Interpretation Unit and hotline.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

With the growth of our immigrant population in our school community we have noticed the importance of providing our immigrant families with oral interpretation services. These services will benefit parents, teachers and our entire school community.

We plan to use contract vendors for interpretation services through Legal Interpreting Services for our parent/teacher conferences on November 15 2011 and March 13, 2012. We also make use of the Interpretation Hotline provided by the Translation and Interpretation Unit to assist in communicating with our parents. In addition we have staff members who speak in Spanish, Russian, and Chinese who assist in interpreting with parents when needed.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link:
<http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

Through the ELL Parent Orientation Workshop and our Welcome Back breakfast, which are held in September, we plan to notify our parents of the translation and interpretation services that are available. Letters in their native languages will be sent home at the beginning of the school year informing them of the availability of these additional services. Our Parent Coordinator will also assist in notifying parents and all family members. We will display flyers and posters by the main entrance promoting the service.

2011-12 Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP): Appendix 8

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs

Directions: Title III supplemental services for ELLs must include all of the following three components:

- Direct instruction: activities must be used to support language development, English and native language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or other core academic areas.
 - The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need
 - These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ESL services required under CR Part 154.
 - Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs as well as reduced class-size, and/or push-in services.
 - Teachers providing the services must be certified bilingual education and/or ESL teachers.
- High quality professional development that is “of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers’ performance in classrooms.”
 - Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs.
 - These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist.

Part B: Direct Instruction Supplemental Program Information

Describe the direct instruction supplemental program here and include the

- rationale
- subgroups and grade levels of students to be served
- schedule and duration
- language of instruction
- # and types of certified teachers
- types of materials

Begin description here: In examining our student's results in the four modalities (listening, speaking, reading and writing) of the NYSESLAT we noticed that our ELLs perform well in the modalities of listening and speaking and poorly in reading and writing. This information correlates with our analysis of the New York State English Language Arts assessment. We noticed that the majority of our ELLs were performing below the state standards in reading. Their lack of ability to read and write in English is making it very difficult for them to score levels 3 and 4 on the NYS ELA. We address their needs by strengthening their reading skills with particular emphasis on decoding skills, phonemic awareness, comprehension, fluency, vocabulary development, and modeled and guided writing activities

In review of our data for ELLs performance in two content areas, we noticed that ELLs in grades 4 and 5 on an intermediate and advanced level were performing on a level 2 and level 3 as per State Math assessments. The implication for our instructional program in reference to this information is to continue to assist and develop vocabulary skills to help in problem solving. The implication for instruction is to assist our students in developing their decoding skills, phonemic awareness and comprehension skills. We must strengthen their fluency by deepening their vocabulary and building large stable sight word recognition. Also, we saw the need in exposing our ELLs to informational texts and literature. Therefore, the Title III funds allocated to P.S. 194 will be used to provide supplementary services to further develop our students reading and writing skills. We are planning for our ELLs to participate in the following program.

Project Excellence: a program whose goal is literacy and that provides additional intervention and support services for ELLs. Our ELLs in grade 2, 3, 4, and 5 (total of 31 students) participating in the Title III program will be grouped in groups of 15 students. A licensed/certified ELL teacher along with a licensed common branch teacher will teach students. The teachers will be grouping the students according to their specific needs, e.g. grade and proficiency levels reading and writing. The group instruction will be in English and aimed to help ELLs in their reading and writing. They will be using research based programs such as Treasure Chest for English Language Learners and Rigby In- Step Readers to build upon their reading and writing skills. The program provides small group instruction in English for vocabulary and oral language development, phonemic awareness/phonics, comprehension strategies/skills and writing. As we know our ELLs are now participating in state reading exams. They will also be reading biographies of famous explorers, heroes, inventors as well as informational texts. In order to prepare them for the NYSESLAT as well as the NYS ELA the teachers will be incorporating testing sophistication strategies through the use of Ladders to Success 2 and Write It Out Skills Coach by Triumph Learning. Students will meet on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 3:30 pm to 5:00 pm. There will be a total of two groups: 1 group for our 2/3 graders and another group for our 4/5 graders. The Title III will be the only after school program available at our school so a supervisor/teacher will be our on site supervisor. He will be overseeing the program and will be the coordinator of the after school program, he is licensed Sp.Ed. Teacher with a supervisor license. He will be present from 3:30 pm to 5:30 Tuesdays and Wednesdays. This will be a 16-week program beginning December 06, 2011 and ending April 04, 2012. Our goal is to help our ELLs achieve the same level of proficiency in reading and math as our mainstream students. By offering this additional service we are giving ourselves an opportunity to achieve our goal.

Part C: Professional Development

Describe the school's professional development program for Title III Program teachers as well as other staff responsible for delivery of instruction and services to ELLs.

- rationale
- teachers to receive training
- schedule and duration
- topics to be covered
- name of provider

Begin description here: We at PS 194 realize there is always a need for additional development of best practices by teachers of ELLs. All instruction personnel participating in the Title III program at PS 194 will be provided professional development to build upon their knowledge and skills. Including standard based instruction and improvement of language proficiency instruction of ELLs. This professional development will be only for teachers involved in the Title III program and will not be combined with their regular PD hours (this professional development will be above and beyond teachers regular school assigned PD hours). Staff will attend workshops and professional conferences to sharpen and update skills throughout the 2011-2012 school year. They will attend a series of 2 PD sessions. The professional developments will be given by a licensed/certified teacher for example: our literacy teacher will provide literacy skills and strategies to the teachers of ELLs in the Project Excellence program she will also be receiving per session pay for the PD provided. She will conduct 2 PD sessions concentrating on reading and writing along with the ESL teacher to incorporate ESL instructional strategies. A total of 2 teachers will participate in these sessions and they will run 1 Thursday a month from 3:30 pm- 5:30 pm beginning January 2012 and ending February 2012. Topics to be discussed will be the integration of ELA literacy contents with ESL instructional strategies. PD session titles will be: How do we modify ELA strategies for our ELLs? and How do we incorporate ESL strategies within our ELA content?

These professional developments will be given in English and will concentrate on teaching the English language. The teacher giving the professional development (literacy teacher) will be paid per session and the teachers receiving the training (ESL teacher and Common Branch teacher) will be paid at training rate. The professional development will be held after school for a minimum of 2 hours in addition to all the other staff developments mandated by the state.

We at PS 194 strongly believe in our staff and their dedication to our student. With this in mind we believe that in order for our teachers to keep up with the on going curriculum changes and standards they need to be properly trained especially when teaching ELLs. We are trying to achieve this by providing our teachers with staff development meetings that will give them the opportunity to learn new strategies and new teaching methods. Through the help of the professional development the teachers are adding to their experiences and become better resources for their students.

Part C: Professional Development

Part D: Parental Engagement Activities

Describe the parent engagement activities targeted toward parents of ELLs that will impact higher achievement for ELLs. NOTE: These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

- rationale
- schedule and duration
- topics to be covered
- name of provider
- how parents will be notified of these activities

Begin description here: The program makes every effort to involve parents of ELLs in every aspect of their student’s learning. For this reason we will conduct a series of parent workshops concentrating on many different topics such as

- ELL Technology Night on 10/12/2011
- Title III Parent Workshop 04/26/2012
- ELL/Math Night on 10/25/2011 (Grades K-2) and 10/27/2011 (Grades 3-5)

These workshops will be to expose our ELL parents to the different assessments that their children will be participating in as well as to help them familiarize themselves with the various websites available. These workshops will be available for parents of students involved in the Title III and will run from 5 pm-7 pm. There will be a total of 1 teacher presenting for each workshop. For the Technology workshop, the technology teacher will be presenting, for the Title III Parent Workshop night the ELL teacher will be presenting. For the Family Math night our math teacher will be presenting. Flyers notifying the parents in their native language of the upcoming parent workshops will be sent home.
