DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING THE ANNUAL GOALS AND ACTION PLAN SECTION

The CEP goal-setting is done in collaboration with the school community to support student achievement and the implementation of school-wide goals as well as to document how your school is meeting Federal, State, and City regulations.

Below you will find guidance on documenting annual goals and action plans.

WHICH SCHOOLS NEED TO COMPLETE THIS?

All Reward, Recognition and In Good Standing schools should identify and submit annual goals and action plans in consultation with their School Leadership Team (SLT).

HOW DO CEP GOALS RELATE TO GOALS SET FOR THE PRINCIPAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW (PPR)?

CEP goals are generally intended to guide school-wide planning and development. CEP goals may be coordinated with goals set by the principal for the Principal Performance Review (PPR) if they are appropriate for use as school-wide goals.

HOW SHOULD A SCHOOL DEVELOP ITS GOALS AND ACTION PLANS?

- Your school should identify a minimum of three and a maximum of five annual goals.
- Goals should be aligned with the current citywide instructional expectations.
- Goals should be “SMART” - specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound.
- Goal development should be based on an assessment of your school’s needs.
- Your school should use quantitative and/or qualitative data in providing the rationale for each goal. Cite sources that contributed to the rationale, such as the Progress Report, Quality Review, School Survey, NYS Accountability report (SQR, SCRA, or JIT), state and school assessment results, attendance records, inquiry team work, etc.
- Each goal and action plan requires your school to cite the strategies and activities in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve the goal identified. The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15. Your school is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with your school’s goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. You may use or amend relevant sections of your PIP directly to respond to the parental involvement section of each goal and action plan.

ANNUAL GOAL #1 AND ACTION PLAN

Use this template to identify an annual goal. Respond to each section to indicate strategies and activities in support of accomplishing this goal.

Annual Goal #1

To strengthen academic rigor by embedding CCLS tasks in the ELA, Math, Science and Social Studies Curricula.

Comprehensive needs assessment

In seeking to align our instructional expectations with the NYC DOE Citywide Instructional Expectations For 2012-2013, we will deepen and broaden the work being done in ELA, mathematics, social studies and science pedagogy at ENYMSE. We will work with teachers to adjust their practice as they work together to understand the learning needs of all students, including students with disabilities and English language learners, in order to support them in developing the qualities and skills necessary to enroll, persist, and succeed in college and careers. During the 2011-2012 school year, teachers were only required to engage students in at least one literacy and one math task aligned to strategically selected Common Core standards. For the 2012-2013 school year, our students will experience eight Common Core-aligned units of study: two in math, two in ELA, two in social studies, and two in science.

Instructional strategies/activities

- Teachers will participate in weekly professional development facilitated by Legacy Pathways (professional development team), ENYMSE administrative team (principal, assistant principal, SPED coordinator), Lead Teacher team, and C.U.N.Y. PSO, to strengthen best practices and facilitate the development and revision of Common Core aligned tasks and units.
- Lead teachers will be identified in each of the core instructional disciplines and they will receive additional professional development by the C.U.N.Y PSO which they will turnkey to their colleagues on a periodic basis
- The administrative team will conduct frequent informal observations and provide feedback utilizing Charlotte Danielson's Framework for Teaching as a guide
- Teacher teams will meet weekly during our common planning time to analyze students' work and assessments and develop strategies to support pedagogy to increase student outcomes
- Teacher leaders will facilitate a weekly session to examine student work using a school-designed protocol
- Principal, Assistant Principal and Teacher leaders will attend monthly professional development provided by CUNY PSO
- CUNY PSO will provide onsite support in and out of the classrooms

Strategies to increase parental involvement

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental involvement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in our school. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents, and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. - schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed;
- conduct an Annual Title I Parent Fair/Event where all parents are invited to attend formal presentations and workshops that address their student academic skill needs and what parents can do to help;

DIRECTIONS: This submission form assists schools with gathering and organizing the quantitative and qualitative information necessary for a well-conceived school-based language allocation policy (LAP) that describes quality ELL programs. This LAP form, an appendix of the CEP, also incorporates information required for CR Part 154 funding so that a separate submission is no longer required. Agendas and minutes of LAP meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school. Also, when preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the green spaces. Spell-check has been disabled in this file, so consider typing responses to these questions in a separate file before copying them into the submission form. Part II: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [see tool kit].)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

1. When a new student begins school at East New York Middle School of Excellence (ENYMSE), we check to see if they are already in the DOE system and that an HLIS has been administered, to determine if the student is eligible for ELL services. Our team of ESL certified teacher, guidance counselor, and school secretary conduct informal oral interviews. If the parent of the student requires the native language support during the intake process, our parent coordinator will request a translation services provided by the DOE if our school staff cannot provide such services. If a student is from outside the DOE system, we administer the Home Language Survey (HLIS). Based on the HLIS results, if it is determined that the student is qualified to take the LAB-R test, then we administer the LAB-R within ten days. We administer the NYSESLAT in late April or early May. A certified teacher administers the tests. For Spanish speakers only, a Spanish Lanugage Assessment Battery (S-LAB) is given once upon arrival to NYCDOE schools to determine native language ability. If a student is already in the DOE system, we use the S-LAB to determine eligibility for ELL services.

The pedagogue who is responsible for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, and the LAB-R (if necessary) are our school secretary, gudance counselor (native Spanish speaking) and the ESL certified teacher.

ESL students take the NYSESLAT given each spring to measure progress of English language proficiency. This assessment is administered by our ESL certified teacher. The ATS report is used to determine NYSESLAT eligibility. ENYMSE has procedures in place to ensure that all four component of the NYSESLAT are administered.

2. ENYMSE has protocols in place to ensure that parents understand all three-program choices for ELL qualified students, including the Traditional Bilingual, Dual Language, or Freestanding ESL program choices. Students who score below the 40th percentile of the LAB-R fall into the beginning or intermediate language proficiency category (as per NYS) and our candidates for Bilingual, Dual Language, or ESL classroom placements. Parents review these options with our LAP team during an initial orientation meeting and choose the appropriate placemnt for their child. At the meeting, the LAB-R test results (if available or applicable) are explained, and the parents are shown the Program Selection Video. If the registering school does not have the chosen program, parents have the option of transferring their child to a neighboring school that does. Our default program at ENYMSE is ESL. Since we do not currently offer TBE or DL, we keep record of parent requests and address Aspira Consent Decree.

3. As part of this meeting, after parents watch the Program Selection Video, the parents are given a program selection form and parent surveys. We ask the parents to complete the forms at the meeting, or to return them as soon as possible, within the week, to ENYMSE. Based on the parent's choice, students are placed in one of the programs: Traditional Bilngual, Dual Language, or Freestanding ESL. If a form is not returned, students are placed in the default program choice of Transitional Bilingual Education, pursuant to CR Part 154. Our school secretary is responsible for the distribution of the entitlement letters which are collected and stored along with the Parent Survey and the Program Selection Forms.

4. Parents are given the required form to complete. After the letters are returned, ENYMSE determines which program to place the student in as stated by the parents' choice. ENYMSE communicates with parents in their native language, utilizing ENYMSE faculty for Spanish and the DOE translating service for other native languages as needed. ENYMSE provides translations of the letter communications with parents, as well as at meetings.

5 For the past three years, ENYMSE has had <5 students who qualify as ELLs. So far all parents have wanted ESL services instead of TBE or DL services. Because of the trend in parent choice, ENYMSE has not felt the need for the other ELL services.

6. Yes. ENYMSE will continue to work with parents to build alignment between program choice and program offerings. As the ENYMSE population of ESL students grows, we will continue to work with parents to meet the needs of ESL students.

Part IV: ELL Programming

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered?
 - a. What are the organizational models (e.g., Departmentalized, Push-In [Co-Teaching], Pull-Out, Collaborative, Self-Contained)?
 - b. What are the program models (e.g., Block [Class travels together as a group]; Ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class]; Heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels]; Homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?
2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
 - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?
3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to enrich language development.
4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages?
5. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
 - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
 - b. Describe your plan for ELLs in US schools less than three years (newcomers). Additionally, because NCLB now requires ELA testing for ELLs after one year, specify your instructional plan for these ELLs.
 - c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
 - d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6 years).
6. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?
7. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the least restrictive environment?

1.a) ENYMSE uses an organizational model of a Push-in and Pull-out program. The ESL teacher also collaborates with ELA teachers.

1.b) Since only three students are in need of ESL services, they are currently services both in and out of class with the same if not similar levels of support. As the ESL population grows, heterogeneous model will be used.

2. ENYMSE staff works together to ensure that the appropriate amount of instructional time is provided to each ESL student. Each ESL student is assigned a weekly schedule to meet the minutes assigned, using a combination of one period of ESL and one period of enriched English instruction.

2.a) As required for students who qualify as an advanced English speaker, 180 minutes of time is allotted.

3. To provide students with the language skills they need to be successful in grade level classrooms and to accomplish this in a short of a period as possible, our school utilizes the Push-In and Pull-Out model. In the Push-In ESL model, our ESL certified teacher goes into a classroom to provide ESL instruction. This includes a small group of students inside a class, while the regular classroom teacher is providing instruction to the remainder of the students. The ESL teacher scaffolds the instruction delivered by the regular classroom teacher and must therefore cross-articulate continuously to plan appropriately. This ensures that the ESL methodologies are incorporated in all four content areas for the language skills such as listening, speaking, reading and writing. In the Pull-Out model, our ESL certified teacher provides ESL instruction to a group of students in a separate classroom appropriate to the number of students being served. Again, the focus is to use ESL methodologies to make the grade level core curriculum comprehensible. Materials being used to support our ESL students include: Non-fiction text across content areas, grade level appropriate literature, leveled text for reading instruction, visuals and realia. The ESL teacher pushes into certain content area classes in order to provide specific and targeted services for the ELL students.

4. ENYMSE administers the Spanish LAB-R in order to determine their needs.

5.a) The ENYMSE instructional plan to meet the needs for Students with Interrupted Formal Education is designed to meet the individual needs of our ELL students who have had interrupted schooling so that they can succeed here at ENYMSE. Teachers work with the parents to develop a plan to bring the student up to grade level and able to complete our accelerated curriculum. When students will be away, ENYMSE works with the students and families to provide the work in advance, so that students will not fall behind if they miss any time from school.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

5.b) Teachers apply different ESL strategies, including differentiated instruction and scaffolding, in order to meet the needs of their students. Students that test as beginners will receive additional ELL periods. Our ELL students are provided with opportunities to interact with native English speakers, intrinsic motivation through positive feedback, collaborative learning through heterogeneous groupings, encouragement to use higher-order thinking, problem solving, and creative thinking.

5.c) ENYMSE does not currently have any students who are in the category of having received services for 4-6 years. Working with teachers, parents and the students, the ELL team creates an individualized plan to maximize the learning outcomes for every student, with the goal of improving English language skills on the NYSESLAT and in other forms of assessment to optimize school performance and learning.

5.d) As stated above, ENYMSE works with teachers, the parents and the student, to put together a plan with both long-term goals to pass the NYSESLAT as well as short-term goals to improve English language skills, to optimize student performance and learning outcomes. The ENYMSE ELL team also works closely with the school guidance counselor, as well as the classroom teachers and the special education team in order to develop an Individualized Educational Plan (IEP) for each student. This plan is designed to optimize school performance and learning outcomes for each student.

6) All students are required to create Individualized Student Action Planning (ISAP) in order to support their various academic needs. As part of this program, the transitional support will be built into the various levels of instruction and will scaffold their learning needs for various levels of English proficiency.

7) ENYMSE makes sure that all students are served effectively through benchmarking as part of the schoolwide curriculum. Each student is serviced through a Push-In model to keep an atmosphere of least restrictive environment. Our ESL certified teacher works closely with the content area teacher to provide the most effective means of ESL services while keeping the students in the class with their peers.

Native Language Usage and Supports

The chart below is a visual representation designed to show the variation of native language usage and supports across the program models. Please note that native language support is never zero.

TBE and dual language programs have both native language arts and subject areas taught in the native language; ESL has native language supports.

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

8. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.
9. Describe your plan for continuing transitional support (2 years) for ELLs reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.
10. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?
11. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?
12. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.
13. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?
14. How is native language support delivered in each program model? (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)
15. Do required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels?
16. Include a description of activities in your school to assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year.
17. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

8) We currently have built into our school-wide effort to focus on benchmarking. All students, including ELLs, are required to create an action plan as part of their weekly activities to promote self reflection of where they are in their learning. ELLs are encouraged to focus on their language skills as part of their targeted instruction and the ESL teacher works closely with them to monitor their progress. The action planning is done for all content areas and can be customized to the needs of each student. The ELL students will also focus on improving their overall academic performance in all areas as part of this effort. All intervention services are currently offered through English as all our ELL students are at an Advanced or Proficient levels. Targeted instruction is also provided by our AIS teacher along with the ESL teacher.

9) ELLs are afforded the same learning opportunities as all ENYMSE students. Laptops are available after school in order to facilitate instruction. Additionally, ELL students have access to Academic Support Programs offered in math, science and ELA to support the core content areas. Finally, ELL students have access to After School Tutoring with one-on-one tutoring.

10) ELLs are supported with a diverse range of instructional material, including instructional materials in their native language. Additionally, ELL students are also a part of Achieve 3000 instruction that supports various language learners including ELLs. Achieve 3000 also offers second language support – which can serve as bilingual aide. Students are provided with dictionaries and glossaries, as well as with translation devices such as Google translator and other online translators. Some books are also published in multiple languages.

11) N/A - No programs will be discontinued.

12) Our ELL students are provided with the same opportunities as the non-ELL population. As part of their regular class instruction, all ELL students participate in all activities. The ESL teacher provides cross content help as needed by the students. We currently do not offer any afterschool programs for our ELL students.

13) ELL students use the same materials as our non-ELL students since their reading and writing levels are similar. The ESL teacher scaffolds by providing support in understanding the material when needed as well as providing help with skills to address their needs.

14) None

15) Yes. The ESL certified teacher provides age and grade appropriate services to all of the ELL students. The reading materials and ESL materials used correspond to their appropriate grade and age levels.

16) ELL students participate in Bridge to School Activities, which acts as an orientation to ENYMSE. Orientation materials are provided in English and Spanish, and translation services are also provided for other native language speakers as needed.

17) ENYMSE currently does not offer language electives.

C. Schools with Dual Language Programs

1. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
2. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
3. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
4. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
5. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

N/A

D. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What support do you provide staff to assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle and/or middle to high school?
3. Describe the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff (including non-ELL teachers) as per Jose P.

1. We currently have one ESL teacher serving as the point person. The teacher is supported through various trainings and workshops to keep up with the current trend and to provide effective services to the ELL students (i.e. Demystifying ELL data).

2. Teachers are trained in best teaching practices to facilitate student transition to middle school and also to high school. Training includes understanding the needs of students and parents who are non-native English speakers.

3. The CUNY network representative provides professional developments to ENYMSE teaching faculty in ELL instructional strategies, including differentiation, scaffolding and using data to drive instruction. Teachers also utilize the ARIS online professional development program available through the DOE website. Records are maintained through the professional development binders.

E. Parental Involvement

1. Describe parent involvement in your school, including parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

1. Parents are very involved at ENYMSE, engaging in a wide variety of roles on the School Leadership Team, as well as through the Parent Teacher Association. Parents are an active presence in the ENYMSE school community, including the parents of ELLs. The PTA has an active committee to ensure the rights of non-native English speaking parents.

2. Our school currently does not have a partnership with a CBO that provides workshops or services to ELL parents.

3. ENYMSE staff, including the parent coordinator, guidance counselor, and the secretary, evaluates the needs of the parents first by interviewing them. Administrators, guidance counselor, and the parent coordinator are familiarized with the Language Allocation Guidelines, LAP Handbook for ELL Programs, LAP principles, and NYS regulations (CR Part 154).

4. ENYMSE provides bilingual simultaneous translation as needed, to the greatest extent possible. Parents are provided with in-house translation, as needed, through the principal, guidance counselor, and other staff members who are able to speak the language fluently.

B. After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following

1. Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How can this information help inform your school’s instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
2. What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
3. How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions?
4. For each program, answer the following:
 - a. Examine student results. What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - b. Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - c. What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the Native Language used?
5. For dual language programs, answer the following:
 - a. How are the English Proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - b. What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - c. How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
6. Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs.

1) ENYMSE uses a range of diagnostic as well as instructional testing, including Periodic Assessments, Acuity, and teacher made tests, in order to assess the ELL students at ENYMSE to inform and improve their instructional program. By using the gathered data, instructors disaggregate and use the data to find areas of need and incorporate the finding in their instructions. If we see a trend in students lacking specific skills, lessons are modified as part of the curriculum to address those needs. The students are also assessed through DRA – three times a year to measure their growth.

2) There is an overarching need to reading and writing skills in general. Listening and speaking is another area that needs to be addressed as part of their previous NYSESLAT exams. DRA, State ELA exams and classroom assessments are utilized to monitor student progress and the needs of the students. Our current data on LAB-R shows that freestanding ESL model suites the needs of our population of ELL students.

3) The ESL teacher, content area teachers and special education teachers monitor patterns and results from NYSESLAT in order to improve its instructional program. Since the majority of the students are either advanced or proficient in listening and speaking/reading and writing, the ESL teacher makes sure to reinforce specific areas to advance the students in their respective areas.

4.a) The ELL students at ENYMSE receive Freestanding ELL instruction. Our ENYMSE student performs well on Math and other content tests given in English.

4.b) School leadership and faculty use the results of ELL periodic assessments to guide instruction and improve student outcomes. The administration looks at the NYSESLAT data along with the schoolwide ELA data to find trends. The also works with the ESL teacher to effectively schedule Push-In services for the ELL students.

4.c) The current data on the Acuity shows similar areas of need for both our ELL and Non-ELL students. One of our main area of concern is the critical reading and analysis of information. Across the grades, 6-8, most students are also having difficulties in identifying multiple meanings of text. We are realizing that ELL students are performing at the same level as their non-ELL counterparts. Since our program focuses on freestanding ESL model, native language support is available but usually not necessary due to the ELL students' proficiency in the English language.

5.b) N/A

5.c) N/A

6. ENYMSE ensures the success of all ELL students by closely monitoring the NYSESLAT scores as well as ELA periodic assessments, classroom assessments, and other school assessments. So far, we have seen a trend in the significant improvement of their NYSESLAT scores during the past three years. Even our SIFE student scored significantly higher on the latest NYSESLAT and we hope to continue to provide the most effective ESL service possible.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2011-2012

CEP Appendix 7

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 19K678 School Name: East New York Middle School of Exc

Cluster: Network: CUNY

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

Translated documents containing critical information regarding a student's education in each of the covered languages from the DOE website are utilized when written parent communication is necessary. Translators are provided for oral communication when necessary for the parent or teacher. School wide telephone announcements have translation options.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

The major findings of our school's written translation and oral interpretation needs are from the Home Language Surveys. Once the student is identified as an ELL, this is then reported to the student's teachers. The student's teachers work with the ESL teacher to ensure proper written and oral interpretation needs of the parent(s) are being met as the year proceeds.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

The written translation services provided by the school are from within the NYC DOE website or within the school. Individualized translated documents can be produced by the principal or other staff members in Spanish. Other languages would be provided by an outside vendor.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

The oral interpretation services are provided by in-house school staff. Other languages besides Spanish are provided by an outside vendor. The ESL teacher has resources with common phrases concerning school situations in multiple languages for parent communication.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link:
<http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

The school provided a copy of the Bill of Rights and Responsibilities, which include their rights regarding translation and interpretation services, to parents whom require language assistance services. Signs are posted and required forms are provided in each of the covered languages in conspicuous locations indicating the availability of interpretation services. Our safety plan contains procedures ensuring that parents are not prevented from reaching the school's administrative offices due to language barriers. Language translations are available as part of the emergency broadcasting system and staff members are readily available to communicate with parents in their familiar language.
