DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING THE ANNUAL GOALS AND ACTION PLAN SECTION

The CEP goal-setting is done in collaboration with the school community to support student achievement and the implementation of school-wide goals as well as to document how your school is meeting Federal, State, and City regulations.

Below you will find guidance on documenting annual goals and action plans.

WHICH SCHOOLS NEED TO COMPLETE THIS?

All Reward, Recognition and In Good Standing schools should identify and submit annual goals and action plans in consultation with their School Leadership Team (SLT).

HOW DO CEP GOALS RELATE TO GOALS SET FOR THE PRINCIPAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW (PPR)?

CEP goals are generally intended to guide school-wide planning and development. CEP goals may be coordinated with goals set by the principal for the Principal Performance Review (PPR) if they are appropriate for use as school-wide goals.

HOW SHOULD A SCHOOL DEVELOP ITS GOALS AND ACTION PLANS?

- Your school should identify a minimum of three and a maximum of five annual goals.
- Goals should be aligned with the current citywide instructional expectations.
- Goals should be “SMART” - specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound.
- Goal development should be based on an assessment of your school’s needs.
- Your school should use quantitative and/or qualitative data in providing the rationale for each goal. Cite sources that contributed to the rationale, such as the Progress Report, Quality Review, School Survey, NYS Accountability report (SQR, SCRA, or JIT), state and school assessment results, attendance records, inquiry team work, etc.
- Each goal and action plan requires your school to cite the strategies and activities in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve the goal identified. The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15. Your school is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with your school’s goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. You may use or amend relevant sections of your PIP directly to respond to the parental involvement section of each goal and action plan.

ANNUAL GOAL #1 AND ACTION PLAN

Use this template to identify an annual goal. Respond to each section to indicate strategies and activities in support of accomplishing this goal.

Annual Goal #1

- Improve student performance in literacy by increasing the number of students performing at level 2 or above school wide as measured by the New York State ELA Examination.
- As of September 2012, 16% of students enrolled at Dual Language Middle School achieved a proficiency rating of 1 on the NYS English Language Arts Examination.
- By June 2013, the number of students achieving a proficiency rating of Level 1 will decrease from 16% to 11% or less.

Comprehensive needs assessment

- Describe the identified need that generated this goal. The needs assessment should encompass the entire school and be based on the performance of students, in relation to State academic content and student achievement standards.
 - At the beginning of each school year, staff and administrators at Dual Language Middle School engage in comprehensive data analyses. Analyses of the ELA data indicate that at the beginning of each school year, approximately 16% of students have achieved a proficiency rating of 1 on the NYS ELA exam during the previous school year. English Language Learners, General Education Students, and Special Education Students are all represented in the category of students achieving a level 1 proficiency rating; as a result, school leaders and staff members recognize the importance of strengthening curriculum and instruction in order to leverage improved student outcomes in the area of English Language Arts.
 - A review of qualitative data streams including student work samples and unit assessment data indicate that students' greatest needs are in the areas of analytical writing.
 - According to New York State student assessment data, as of September 2012 16% of students enrolled at Dual Language Middle School achieved a proficiency rating of 1 on the NYS English Language Arts Examination.
 - During Fall 2012 a school-wide Reading assessment was conducted using Read180 and the Village Academies Reading Assessment in order to identify students' independent reading levels to strengthen data streams used to differentiate instruction. At this time, school leadership determined that more than 50% of students enrolled at Dual Language Middle School are reading below grade-level.
 - According to the 2012 New York City Progress Report, Dual Language Middle School students in the lowest third demonstrated a 72.0 percent growth percentile while the school median adjusted growth percentile was 66.0%. This data indicates that universally students require support in developing literacy skills as applied in both Reading and Writing.
 - According to the 2012 New York City Progress Report, the percent of Special Education students in the 75th growth percentile on the New York State ELA exam was 62.0%, which was a ten percent increase compared to the results in 2010-2011. However, the percent of English Language Learners in the 75th growth percentile or higher was 38.2%, a decrease of 7.3% as compared to the 2010-2011 results. These trends provide impetus for increasing instructional alignment and further informing curricula with student data, resulting in improved differentiation.

The following strategies have been developed in order to ensure that all teachers are HQT:

- As part of the hiring and interview process, school leaders prioritize teachers who are HQ and hold multiple certification; and
- Weekly professional development (staff-wide and individual) will be differentiated based on staff members' interests and areas in need of further support as identified during informal and formal observations and teacher reflection; and
- Moneys from the yearly budget will also be set aside to fund continuing education and professional development for those staff members who are identified as non-"HQT".

DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR DEVELOPING OR UPDATING THE PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY (PIP) (A REQUIREMENT FOR TITLE I SCHOOLS ONLY)

The template below meets the parental involvement requirements of Title I. Your school is encouraged to use the template below to update your school's current policy or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. The PIP should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent involvement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact is a component of the PIP that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility. Schools are encouraged to include feedback from the Parent Coordinator when updating the policy. In addition, if your school community will be engaged this year in central parent involvement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in your policy.

Dual Language Middle School will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parental involvement policy in improving school quality. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The school will use the findings of the evaluation about its parental involvement policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parental involvement policies. (List actions, such as describing how the evaluation will be conducted, identifying who will be responsible for conducting it, and explaining what role parents will play)

- The PA in conjunction with the Parent Coordinator will conduct surveys to assess parents' satisfaction with DLMS' parent outreach.
- The School Leadership Team will utilize the PA's findings and identified trends in parental feedback forms to address specific areas of concern in the upcoming Comprehensive Educational Plan.

Dual Language Middle School will build the schools' and parents' capacity for strong parental involvement in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership with the parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement through the following activities:

The school will provide assistance to parents of children served by the school, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following, by undertaking the actions described in this paragraph

- the State's academic content standards
- the State's student academic achievement standards
- the State and local academic assessments including alternate assessments, the requirements of Part A, how to monitor their child's progress, and how to work with educators:

The Parent Coordinator will conduct workshops to educate parents about the state standards and academic assessments several times during the school year.

DLMS will offer Open School Week wherein parents can pick up informational documents about the standards and assessments.

Academic Advisors will answer individual questions as they come up.

The school will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training, and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement, by:

- We will keep parents abreast of NYCDOE and UFT resources available to support them.
 - The school will, with the assistance of its parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principal and other staff, in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by :

Professional development sessions for all teachers will be held to educate teachers of the responsibilities as Academic Advisors.

All teachers will be encouraged to participate with parents in the PA and SLT.

The school will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities with Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, and public preschool and other programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children, by: (List activities.)

N/A

The school will take the following actions to ensure that information related to the school and parent- programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand: (List actions.)

- All calendars, letters, and flyers will be sent home in both English and Spanish following the same format.
- The Parent Coordinator will orient the parents to the formats of school communications during Open School Week.

III. Discretionary School Parental Involvement Policy Components

The School Parental Involvement Policy may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school and school system to support their children's academic achievement, such as the following discretionary activities listed under section 1118(e) of the ESEA:

- involving parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of that training;
- providing necessary literacy training for parents from Title I, Part A funds, if the school district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for that training;
- paying reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions;
- training parents to enhance the involvement of other parents;
- in order to maximize parental involvement and participation in their children's education, arranging school meetings at a variety of times, or conducting in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend those conferences at school;
- adopting and implementing model approaches to improving parental involvement;
- developing appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses, including faith-based organizations, in parental involvement activities; and
- providing other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under section 1118 as parents may request.

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

Our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Staff and parents of students participating in activities and programs funded by Title I, agree that this Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share responsibility for improved academic achievement and the means by which a school-parent partnership will be developed to ensure that all children achieve State Standards and Assessments.

School-Parent Compact:

Dual Language Middle School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2009-10.

DIRECTIONS: This submission form assists schools with gathering and organizing the quantitative and qualitative information necessary for a well-conceived school-based language allocation policy (LAP) that describes quality ELL programs. This LAP form, an appendix of the CEP, also incorporates information required for CR Part 154 funding so that a separate submission is no longer required. Agendas and minutes of LAP meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school. Also, when preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the green spaces. Spell-check has been disabled in this file, so consider typing responses to these questions in a separate file before copying them into the submission form. Part II: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [\[see tool kit\]](#).)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway. ①

Each year DLMS begins the process of identifying students who have previously identified as ELLs through NYSESLAT analysis and review of ATS data. The ESL teacher administers the home language survey in order to identify necessity of administration of the LAB-R. For those students who are newly admitted to the New York City Public Schools system upon enrollment at DLMS, Home Language Identification Surveys are completed immediately when students are enrolled by the ESL teacher(s). All students' whose families indicate a home language other than English are then administered the LAB-R in order to determine eligibility for ESL services during the school day. Within 10 days of enrollment, students' whose home language survey indicates any language other than English, the ESL teacher administers the LAB-R to the student. Finally, each year begins with a strategic analysis of the NYSESLAT by administrators and instructional staff. Staff use these data to identify trends in students' instructional needs across the content areas as well as within models of instruction provided ELL students throughout the school day. In order to ensure that parents are aware of the different options available, workshops are organized by School Leadership Team members, the parent coordinator, and community assistants on staff.

At the beginning of the school year, language-support services available in our school are discussed with parents during parent workshops. The ESL teacher, School Leadership Team, and Parent Coordinator and Community Associates explain and discuss options for ESL and dual language instruction with parents. Parents are also consulted regarding TBE, DL, and ESL support.

In order to ensure that program selection and parent survey letters are returned, community associates, ESL staff, and the Parent Coordinator organize a comprehensive parent outreach effort through phonecalls, one-on-one conferences, and meetings with parents to address any questions about program availability and/or ESL services within the school. All parents are asked to complete entitlement letters during the orientation phase of the school year. Letters are collected, catalogued, and responses are organized in order to meet the needs of ELLs as indicated by parent choice. According to parent survey and program selection letter responses, 100% of respondents indicate a desire to participate in the 70% English/30% Spanish Dual Language program with freestanding ESL support.

 - a. What are the organizational models (e.g., Departmentalized, Push-In [Co-Teaching], Pull-Out, Collaborative, Self-Contained)?
 - b. What are the program models (e.g., Block [Class travels together as a group]; Ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class]; Heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels]; Homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?
2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
 - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?
3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to enrich language development.
4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages?
5. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
 - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
 - b. Describe your plan for ELLs in US schools less than three years (newcomers). Additionally, because NCLB now requires ELA testing for ELLs after one year, specify your instructional plan for these ELLs.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

- c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
- d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6 years).
6. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?
7. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the least restrictive environment?

Students identified as ELLs receive support within content-area instruction to support learning in ELA, math, and other content areas. All students, regardless of language proficiency, receive 450 minutes of literacy and English Language instruction through whole-class and small group reading and content area instruction. In addition to intervention provided during the school day, students participate in small group afterschool instruction for ELA, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Most students scoring within the Beginner range of proficiency according to the NYSESLAT are those who have been in an English Language system for three years or less. In order to support transition, these students receive small group reading instruction three times per week, as well as small group afterschool support in order to improve language acquisition and proficiency. Students scoring within the intermediate range of proficiency are generally identified as long-term ELLs or students who are both ELLs and those who receive Special Education Services. All students mandated to participate in the NYSESLAT exam during the current academic year receive ESL services during their daily program as push-in or team-teaching support in the areas of English Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, and/or Math. Students who demonstrate NYSESLAT results within the Beginner or Intermediate proficiency range receive small group Freestanding ESL instruction for a minimum of three 60-minute periods per week in addition to mandated English Language Arts instruction and instruction available in students' native language, Spanish for a total of 180 minutes per week. Those students who are identified as SIFE (although none are currently enrolled at our school), we use the LAB-R and school-based reading and Math assessments to identify students' levels of mastery within the grade level curriculum. In addition, the LAB-R is provided for those SIFE students who indicate a home language other than English (upon enrollment). These students are provided small group support within content-area instruction in order to differentiate and address students' learning needs. Finally, students are provided enrichment throughout the school day and access to after school programs for small group instructional support and experiential learning in order to further build background knowledge and provide students' with relevant, non-classroom experiences that support instructional outcomes. ELL subgroups are experience differentiated, small-group literacy instruction rooted in students' independent reading levels and aligned with NYSESLAT outcomes. Those students performing within the beginner range also have an opportunity to participate in intensive, small group literacy instruction through a program called READ180.

In order to enhance all ELL students' language proficiency, language support is provided as a part of the general education curriculum. In the 2011-2012 year, Dual Language Middle School will implement a computer-based reading comprehension and fluency program that is research based and proven to improve language development of ELLs as a part of the ESL program. With respect to assessments, LEP students are given all examinations first in the language of instruction, with a supplemental examination in the students' native language (in this case, Spanish) for reference. All ELL students participate in Spanish language instruction in order to strengthen the transference of language development in both native and second language. In addition, all ELLs are offered both visual and performing arts classes during the school day. Sixth, seventh, and eighth grade ELL students and ELL students with disabilities participate in the general education curriculum full-time with push-in support. Finally, Visual Art is offered at least two periods per week and performing arts (Dance) a minimum of three periods per week for all students, including ELLs and ELLs with disabilities.

NOTE: This section refers to classes/subject areas in which the language of instruction is English and another language which all students in the class speak. Do not include:

- classes that are taught in English using books in the native language
- heritage classes
- foreign language (LOTE) classes

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

8. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.
9. Describe your plan for continuing transitional support (2 years) for ELLs reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.
10. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?
11. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?
12. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.
13. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?
14. How is native language support delivered in each program model? (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)
15. Do required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels?
16. Include a description of activities in your school to assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year.
17. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

Although we are not a strict Dual-Language model school, we do offer a 70% English/30% Spanish Dual Language approach to Native Language instruction across all three grades. The language needs of ELL students inform instruction across all content areas in several ways. In order to enhance listening, reading, and writing skills, all students identified as LEP participate in small group literacy intervention three times per week. The literacy intervention, known as Book Club, focuses on differentiating instruction to meet students' comprehension needs at their instructional reading level. Time allotted during the extended school day also allows ELLs small group, free-standing ESL instruction. After school programs allow homogenous ELL groups (Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced, respectively) to work within their own proficiency levels in a small group setting. Those ELLs in need of intensive ELA and/or Mathematics intervention participate in additional enrichment during both extended day and after school programs. During the school day all teachers participate in collaborative planning meetings within and among departments in order to enhance language instruction within the content areas. Within the ESL program, specifically, all ESL instruction is delivered within the core content areas. Students' schedules and service provision reflect students needs and proficiency levels, as follows: for those students within the beginner range of language proficiency, ESL services are provided according to mandates within ELA and small group literacy in addition to Social Studies instruction. For those students within the intermediate or advanced ranges of proficiency, ESL is provided within ELA and Social Studies instruction. In all content areas teachers use SmartBoards, individual computers, and audiovisual equipment (including video clips and audiobooks, as appropriate) to engage and support students' language development and overall learning. With respect to language electives, a unique feature of Dual Language Middle School is Spanish language and literacy instruction: one-hundred percent of students, including English Language Learners, participate in Spanish language instruction during all three years of enrollment.

Patterns identified in all four modalities inform instruction in several ways. In order to enhance listening, reading, and writing skills, all students identified as LEP participate in small group literacy intervention three times per week. The literacy intervention, known as Book Club, focuses on differentiating instruction to meet students' comprehension needs at their instructional reading level. Time allotted during the extended school day also allows ELLs small group, free-standing ESL instruction. After school programs allow homogenous ELL groups (Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced, respectively) to work within their own proficiency levels in a small group setting. Those ELLs in need of intensive ELA and/or Mathematics intervention participate in additional small-group enrichment during both extended day and after school programs.

C. Schools with Dual Language Programs

1. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
2. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
3. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
4. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
5. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

During the 2011-2012 school year, Dual Language Middle School is implementing a 70% English/30% Spanish approach to dual language instruction in all three grades. English Proficient students and ELLs are integrated throughout the classes, all of whom participate in the same amount of English and Spanish language instruction during the school day. Currently, native language instruction takes place in Native Language Arts and Social Studies. With respect to emergent literacy, literacy skills are taught simultaneously in English Language

D. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What support do you provide staff to assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle and/or middle to high school?
3. Describe the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff (including non-ELL teachers) as per Jose P.

In addition to ESL support, all content area teachers incorporate ESL strategies into classroom instruction. Teachers participate in no fewer than 5 professional development sessions (a total of 7.5 hours) focusing upon ESL language instruction across content areas. Instructional staff use multiple resources, including Building Academic Vocabulary by John Marzano and Classroom Instruction That Works with English Language Learners by Jane D. Hill and Kathleen M. Flynn to improve content area instruction for ELL students in all content areas. All instructional staff members including the assistant principal, ESL coordinator, content area teachers, guidance counselors, and Special Education teachers are thoroughly trained in backwards planning and models of explicit vocabulary instruction that is rooted in data and language need. All of the aforementioned school staff utilize strategies from professional development and ample co-planning opportunities with ESL certified teachers to ensure differentiation based upon the linguistic and learning needs of ELLs across the curriculum.

E. Parental Involvement

1. Describe parent involvement in your school, including parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

Dual Language Middle School uses multiple approaches to ensure that parents understand program choices available for all English Language Learners. In September, DLMS hosts a parent orientation for all parents of students new to the DLMS community. During this meeting parents are informed of the programs available within the school. School administrators, faculty and staff, office support staff and the Parent Coordinator work tirelessly to provide parent workshops throughout the school year to encourage parent involvement and understanding of all available options. During this time, parents participate in informative workshops to enhance understanding of resources available through the New York City Department of Education. After reviewing parent program choice letters for the current school year, 100% of respondents indicate a wish to continue the current program of service delivery: push-in ESL services within the content areas. Given this knowledge, there is no need to adjust the current model of ESL instruction within our school community. In addition, all students who are newly admitted to the New York City Public Schools upon enrollment at Dual Language Middle School are asked to complete a Home Language Identification Survey. Students whose families indicate a home language other than English are then administered the LAB-R in order to determine students' eligibility for ESL services.

Throughout the year, all notices and school-home communication are provided to parents in both Spanish and English. ESL teachers, the Parent Coordinator, and support staff members remain in constant communication with parents as new program options arise. During all parent meetings, support staff and all bilingual staff are available to interpret information in the parents' native language. Parent survey data indicate that Free Standing ESL instruction is the current program of preference. In accordance with these findings, DLMS currently offers Free Standing ESL in grades 6-8. This program takes place both during the school day and after school hours in the form of team-teaching and small group instruction, respectively. The Parent Coordinator, Advisors, and ESL teachers continuously use informal conversations and parent workshops to further identify parent preferences. In addition to these ongoing, informal means of data collection, students' advisors and ESL teachers reach out to individual families to identify students' ESL needs in conjunction with NYSESLAT proficiency levels and length of time in an English-language school system. In sum, ESL programs currently offered at DLMS are aligned with parent requests and undergo revision as necessary. ESL programs are differentiated to meet the needs of students testing in all levels of proficiency according to the NYSESLAT, as well as students who have recently matriculated to an English Language Education system.

B. After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following

- Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How can this information help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
- What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
- How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions?
- For each program, answer the following:
 - Examine student results. What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the Native Language used?
- For dual language programs, answer the following:
 - How are the English Proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
- Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs.

The DLMS data inquiry team members and LAP team members have reviewed the results of the 2010-2011 NYSESLAT in depth to identify student trends and needs in all grade levels. Most students scoring within the Beginner range of proficiency according to the NYSESLAT are those who have been in an English Language system for three years or less. Students scoring within the intermediate range of proficiency are generally identified as long-term ELLs or students who are both ELLs and those who receive Special Education Services. All students mandated to participate in the NYSESLAT exam during the current academic year receive ESL services during their daily program as push-in or team-teaching support in the areas of English Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, and/or Math. Students who demonstrate NYSESLAT results within the Beginner or Intermediate proficiency range receive small group Freestanding ESL instruction for a minimum of three 60-minute periods per week. With respect to assessments, LEP students are given all examinations first in the language of instruction, with a supplemental examination in the students' native language (in this case, Spanish) for reference. Students given access to the general education curriculum with ESL support provided through a push-in model demonstrate significant gains in proficiency in all four modalities assessed. In addition, these students demonstrate consistent improvements in all of the modalities year to year.

General trends from the 2007-2008 school year to now indicate that students in all grades consistently demonstrate the highest levels of proficiency in the speaking portion of the NYSESLAT. This can be attributed to the fact that English Language Learners practice speaking skills in all content areas throughout the school day, as well as during push-in and small-group ESL instruction. Additionally, all teachers incorporate cooperative learning activities into daily lessons to encourage spoken language proficiency of all students, especially English Language Learners. In contrast, students have demonstrated the lowest levels of proficiency in reading comprehension. This need is being addressed through multi-modal ESL support, including small group, computer-based literacy instruction. Finally, students demonstrated marked improvements within the writing portion of the NYSESLAT assessment during the 2010-2011 school year. During the 2006-2006 school year the LAP team determined that students demonstrated an average decrease of one percent from grade to grade on the writing portion of the NYSESLAT. These findings inspired a school-wide focus on writing instruction across content areas, resulting in a vast improvement during the 2010-2011 school year. This improvement can be attributed to collaborative efforts of ESL and content area teachers focusing upon strengthening all students' writing skills across the grade level curriculum.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2012-2013

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 03M247 School Name: Dual Language Middle School

Cluster: 101 Network: Marina Cofield

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

DLMS has several native speakers of Spanish on staff, as well as many members who are proficient Spanish speakers and writers. All written communications between the school and students' homes are provided in both languages as a matter of school protocol. All school functions, such as Open School Night, graduation, and other celebrations, are also conducted bilingually. A bilingual staff member is always available to facilitate parent-teacher conferences if the need arises. Additionally, our bilingual school aides are always available to assist any non-English speaking parent at school. The Parent Coordinator at DLMS is also bilingual individuals who strive to strengthen the connection between home and school.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

We fulfill all our school's written translation and oral interpretation needs using the resources present in our staff. Based on the minutes of Parent Association meetings and communication with Parent Coordinator, our parent community is very satisfied with our method of home-school communications.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

DLMS will continue to provide the translation and interpretation services described above. All written translations will continue to be performed by native Spanish speaking staff members, and checked by a bilingually certified teacher.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

DLMS will continue to provide oral interpretation services described above. When needed, all oral interpretation will be provided by native Spanish speaking staff members.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link:
<http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

All parental notification translation and interpretation needs for the DLMS community are met in-house. All notices to parents go home in both English and Spanish throughout the year. Due to the nature of the school, i.e. a Spanish-English dual language program, English and Spanish are the only languages needed to communicate information to parents. All notices, schoolwide events, parent-teacher conferences, parent workshops, etc. are provided in both English and Spanish to consistently meet the language needs of our school community.

 - Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs as well as reduced class-size, and/or push-in services.
 - Teachers providing the services must be certified bilingual education and/or ESL teachers.
- High quality professional development that is “of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers’ performance in classrooms.”
 - Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs.
 - These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo #66 or contact your Senior ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Submit this form to your Senior ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist by October 26.
