Use this page to identify SLT members and confirm their participation in the development of this Comprehensive Educational Plan (CEP), which includes goals and action plans, a summary of Academic Intervention Services, and the Parent Involvement Policy. The signatures of SLT members indicate their participation in the development of the CEP and serve as confirmation that consultation has occurred to align funding in support of educational programs. The SLT must include an equal number of parents and staff and have a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 17 members, in accordance with the Chancellor's Regulation A-655, available on the NYC DOE Web site.

DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING THE ANNUAL GOALS AND ACTION PLAN SECTION

The CEP goal-setting is done in collaboration with the school community to support student achievement and the implementation of school-wide goals as well as to document how your school is meeting Federal, State, and City regulations.

Below you will find guidance on documenting annual goals and action plans.

WHICH SCHOOLS NEED TO COMPLETE THIS?

All Reward, Recognition and In Good Standing schools should identify and submit annual goals and action plans in consultation with their School Leadership Team (SLT).

HOW DO CEP GOALS RELATE TO GOALS SET FOR THE PRINCIPAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW (PPR)?

CEP goals are generally intended to guide school-wide planning and development. CEP goals may be coordinated with goals set by the principal for the Principal Performance Review (PPR) if they are appropriate for use as school-wide goals.

HOW SHOULD A SCHOOL DEVELOP ITS GOALS AND ACTION PLANS?

- Your school should identify a minimum of three and a maximum of five annual goals.
- Goals should be aligned with the current citywide instructional expectations.
- Goals should be “SMART” - specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound.
- Goal development should be based on an assessment of your school’s needs.
- Your school should use quantitative and/or qualitative data in providing the rationale for each goal. Cite sources that contributed to the rationale, such as the Progress Report, Quality Review, School Survey, NYS Accountability report (SQR, SCRA, or JIT), state and school assessment results, attendance records, inquiry team work, etc.
- Each goal and action plan requires your school to cite the strategies and activities in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve the goal identified. The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15. Your school is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with your school’s goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. You may use or amend relevant sections of your PIP directly to respond to the parental involvement section of each goal and action plan.

ANNUAL GOAL #1 AND ACTION PLAN

Use this template to identify an annual goal. Respond to each section to indicate strategies and activities in support of accomplishing this goal.

Annual Goal #1

- Describe a goal you have identified for the year. Refer to the directions and guidance for assistance in developing your goals.

By June 2013, the subgroup Students with Disabilities (SWDs) will demonstrate progress towards achieving state standards as measured by a 3% increase scoring at Level 3 & 4 on the NYS ELA examination.

Comprehensive needs assessment

- Describe the identified need that generated this goal. The needs assessment should encompass the entire school and be based on the performance of students, in relation to State academic content and student achievement standards.

Through review of our most current quantitative and qualitative data, it was determined that all student groups showed increases in performance on the ELA assessment including the SWD subgroup. As a result of a three year trend analysis, we have made great progress for our SWD subgroup for the school year. Aggregate performance on the NYS ELA for SWDs was 78.3% at level 3 and above, and 100% at level 2 and above. It is important that we continue to focus on the students scoring in Level 2 (21.7%) to provide them with the instructional strategies to bring them up to proficient language levels.

Instructional strategies/activities

- Describe the research-based instructional strategies and activities that will be used to achieve this goal. Include descriptions of the following in your response:
 - a) strategies/activities that encompass the needs of identified student subgroups,
 - b) key personnel and other resources used to implement these strategies/activities,
 - c) steps taken to include teachers in the decision-making regarding the use of academic assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies/activities,
 - d) timeline for implementation.

. Activity #1

- Professional development: Our classroom teachers receive PD from the Coach and SETSS teachers on a monthly basis in the use of strategies in all curriculum areas. Interim assessments will monitor and help revise curriculum; use of rubrics with the language of the standards to provide specific feedback to students regarding their work; use of student data to plan and set goals; further development of inquiry as teams of teachers use case studies and data to inform differentiated lesson planning.
- Target Population: Teachers servicing SWDs (ICT teachers, SETSS).
- Responsible Staff Members: Assistant Principals for SWDs, Staff Developers and Data Specialist
- Implementation Timeline: September 2012 through May 2013

Activity #2

- Data room availability: a data room will be designated so that coaches and other instructional teacher teams will have a location to be trained in the use of disaggregated student data. This will include the use of cross curriculum data, made accessible in the room focusing on SWD students. Activities carried out in the data room will include monitoring student progress, setting initial goals for groups and individual students in ELA, programmatic implications based on indicators of interim progress assessment results and follow-up activities. Responsible staff will facilitate discussions of the students' progress and strategies for improved student outcomes, including L1-4.
- Target Population: Teams of Teachers working with SWDs, and former SWDs not making acceptable gains.

- Responsible Staff Members: Assistant Principal, Coach, Data Specialist

Steps for Including teachers in the decision-making process

- Teachers will meet in grade-level and cross functional teams to review student data gathered from periodic assessments.
- Staff determined that a 2% increase in student performance would be the interim benchmark used by teacher teams to measure the effectiveness of the strategy; and whether additional support in using multiple data points to analyze data and differentiated instruction is needed.
- NYC Acuity Baseline (ongoing) and Benchmark Assessment Dates: December 2012, and February 2013.

Strategies to increase parental involvement

- All schools should cite strategies to increase parent involvement that aligned to the goal when applicable. Title I schools should reference these activities in your school’s Title I Parent Involvement Policy (PIP). The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15 in this CEP.

P.S. 66 Queens is committed to developing and implementing a parent policy that fosters a partnership between the home, school and community. We have identified areas that contribute to a partnership that supports greater student achievement.

- In September the school will host “Meet the Teacher Night” where parents are introduced to the teacher, the curriculum goals and student expectations.
- The school will host a curriculum night and create a parent resource library with user-friendly instructional materials and guides
- Parent Coordinator will host bookmaking and storytelling workshops for parents.
- The Parent coordinator and other staff, will attend regularly scheduled parent meetings to share information and respond to parent questions and inquiries
- The school will create and distribute a parent handbook that is translated in all the dominant languages.
- Parents will be trained on how to use ARIS Parent Link.
- At an Open House, the parents of Students with Disabilities will receive an orientation session on state standards assessment program, school expectations and general program requirements.
- Parent workshops will focus on basic educational concerns.
- Students with Disabilities/Professional Development: Regional monthly professional development will be made available to all parents of students with disabilities. Parents will be afforded opportunities to learn about NYS standards, instructional strategies and NYS and NYC assessments given to their children.

Budget and resources alignment

- Indicate your school’s Title I status: School Wide Program (SWP) Targeted Assistance Program (TAP) Non-Title I
- Select the fund source(s) that your school is using to support the instructional goal.

Service and program coordination

- Describe how you will coordinate fiscal and human resources with the instructional strategies/activities to achieve this goal, referencing specific FY'13 PS and OTPS budget categories selected above that will support the coordination and integration of Federal, State and local services, including programs supported under NCLB (i.e., services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH) violence prevention programs, nutrition programs, housing programs, Head Start).

HIGHLY QUALIFIED TEACHERS (HQT)

Teaching candidates are hired centrally by the NYCDOE. As described in the NYCDOE Consolidated Application, this process ensures that all NYCDOE teachers meet State eligibility requirements. Schools, in turn, ensure that teachers are HQT, as defined by NCLB

Describe the strategies and activities including strategies for recruitment, retention, assignments and support including High Quality professional development that ensures staff is highly qualified.

At PS 66:

- All recruited teachers will be appropriately certified and highly qualified MATH and ELL teachers.
- The Payroll secretary will work closely with the Network Director of Human Resources who will follow the policies set forth by the DOE to ensure that the selection of highly qualified teachers follows the guidelines set by the NYS Education Department.
- Mentors are assigned to support struggling and un-qualified teachers.
- The school's professional development committee will target the assessed pedagogical needs of the staff with differentiated high quality

DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR DEVELOPING OR UPDATING THE PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY (PIP) (A REQUIREMENT FOR TITLE I SCHOOLS ONLY)

The template below meets the parental involvement requirements of Title I. Your school is encouraged to use the template below to update your school's current policy or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. The activities and/or strategies included in your school's policy should align with current CEP goals for improving student achievement.

The PIP should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent involvement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact is a component of the PIP that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility. Schools are encouraged to include feedback from the Parent Coordinator when updating the policy. In addition, if your school community will be engaged this year in central parent involvement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in your policy.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY (PIP) TEMPLATE

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental involvement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in our school. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. Our school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association, and Title I Parent Committee as trained volunteers and welcomed members of our school community. Our school will support parents and families of Title I students by:

- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional development opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of our school community;

Our school's Parent Involvement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of English Language Learners and students with disabilities. Our school community will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent involvement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of our school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents, and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership

Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, our school will:

- actively involve and engage parents in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the Comprehensive Educational Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to schools to promote parent involvement, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent involvement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in our Parent Involvement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Committee. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional development, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend our school and will work to ensure that our school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;
- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., NCLB/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, Progress Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting on or before December 1st of each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent involvement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1118 and other applicable sections under the No Child Left Behind Act;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed;
- conduct an Annual Title I Parent Fair/Event where all parents are invited to attend formal presentations and workshops that address their student academic skill needs and what parents can do to help;

Our school will further encourage school-level parental involvement by:

- holding an annual Title I Parent Curriculum Conference;
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Committee;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents;

- hosting events to support, men asserting leadership in education for their children. parents/guardians, grandparents and foster parents;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between /teacher and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand;

DIRECTIONS: This submission form assists schools with gathering and organizing the quantitative and qualitative information necessary for a well-conceived school-based language allocation policy (LAP) that describes quality ELL programs. This LAP form, an appendix of the CEP, also incorporates information required for CR Part 154 funding so that a separate submission is no longer required. Agendas and minutes of LAP meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school. Also, when preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the green spaces. Spell-check has been disabled in this file, so consider typing responses to these questions in a separate file before copying them into the submission form. Part II: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [see tool kit].)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

1. All parents or guardians of newly enrolled students are required to complete a Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS). This survey lets school staffs know what language is used in the home. If the HLIS indicates that a child uses a language other than English, he or she is first informally interviewed through oral dialogue by the school's ESL teachers and other trained pedagogues. If the child speaks English fluently and is capable of using academic language during this initial interview process, also known as the informal interview in native language, the child will not be administered the Language Assessment Battery-Revised (LAB-R) by the school's ESL teachers. However, if the child is unable to respond and has difficulty comprehending questions conducted during the interview then the LAB-R is administered. During this time, parents of students who speak another language are accommodated with native language support during the intake process. On staff, at the present time, we have trained pedagogues and translators who speak other languages. On staff are Mrs. Kudo, an ESL teacher who is a speaker of Chinese, Mrs. Ravinder Kaur, a paraprofessional who is a speaker of Urdu and Punjabi, Mrs. Marta Laurette, an ESL teacher who is a speaker of Polish, and Ms. Sandra Buitrago, the school's Parent Coordinator, who is a speaker of Spanish. If the ESL teachers are not available to evaluate the HLIS, other trained pedagogues are ready to assist. They include the assistant principal, testing coordinator, the coach and the principal. If a parent speaks a language other than the ones listed, trained pedagogues contact the translation and interpretation unit. Over-the-phone interpretation services are available to all Department of Education personnel that come into contact with limited-English-proficient parents. This service offers the ability to communicate with a parent with the assistance of an interpreter on the phone. This service is useful for overcoming language barriers when contacting a child's household, or for unexpected visits from parents who cannot communicate proficiently in English.

All LABR eligible students are tested within the first ten days of initial enrollment. ESL teachers access ATS reports, specifically RLER, on a daily basis to identify LABR eligibility. Performance on the LABR determines the child's entitlement to English language development support services. If LAB-R results show that a child is an ELL and Spanish is used in the home, he or she also takes a Spanish LAB to determine language dominance. Once student is enrolled into the ELL program, the student is given English support services. Parents of newly enrolled ELL students are notified and are invited to the school for orientation to inform them of the different ELL programs that are available. At orientation, parents have the opportunity to receive materials about ELL programs in their home language, view the Parent Orientation Video in their native language, and to ask questions about ELL services with assistance from a translator. At the end of each orientation, the school staffs collect the Parent Survey and Program Selection Form, which indicates the program that parents are requesting for their child. Once a program has been selected and the students are placed within the first ten days of their initial enrollment, students receive ELL services and will only exit out of the program when the child scores at a certain level of proficiency in English on the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT). In this case, he or she can enter a monolingual instructional program.

All ELL students who are eligible for services are mandated to take the NYSESLAT in the spring of that school year. ESL teachers have access to ATS and are required to retrieve reports that provide sufficient and important information regarding the ELLs who are taking the NYSESLAT, i.e. RLAT, RYOS, RPOB, RNMR, RSFE, and RCHK. The RLAT is printed and evaluated to ensure that entitled students participate in the NYSESLAT. The RYOS is used to provide information regarding the years of services necessary for documentation on answer documents. The RPOB provides home languages necessary for documentation on the answer documents. The RNMR is used to provide information on the separate modalities. The RSFE is used to provide information on SIFE children. The RCHK indicates if our ELLs are correctly listed as LEP. Mrs. Kudo, Mrs. Laurete, and Mrs. Sinrich, who are the ESL teachers administer the NYSESLAT with the assistance of the testing coordinator, Mrs. Amore. Based on the academic testing calendar, ESL teachers and the testing coordinator work closely to ensure ELLs are tested correctly within the testing window. The speaking portion subtest is administered individually to the student by a trained pedagogue, i.e. ESL teacher or testing coordinator. Subsequently, based on the testing calendar, the other modality subtests are administered within the testing window where the grade bands K-1, 2-4, and grade 5 are grouped accordingly for assessment. ELL students in grades 2 through 5 participate in the listening portion of the NYSESLAT by listening to the audio CD provided by New York State. Kindergarten and first grade students participate in the listening portion based on the testing manual read aloud by an ESL teacher provided by New York State. Reading and writing subtests are administered whole group based on grade bands. Any students who are absent during any of the subtests are administered the test(s) at a later time.

2. The parents are given the choice of three programs. During the orientation process which is within the first ten days of initial enrollment, parents are encouraged to watch the EPIC video in their native language to wisely select the program that they feel appropriately meet the needs of their child. Each parent is given a parent brochure in their native language. Based on parent choice and program selection forms, the parents select one of the following programs: Dual Language, Transitional Bilingual or freestanding English as a Second Language. If the parent chooses freestanding English as a Second language, that student is placed accordingly. However, if a parent selects a TBE/DL program, parents are notified that in order for that program to be available in our school, there needs to be a minimum of 15 students in two consecutive grades whose parents first choice is TBE/DL in the same native language. If parents insist on placing their child in TBE/DL, trained pedagogues provide these parents with alternate neighboring schools that have these programs for the current school year. At the present time, based on our Parent Survey and Program Selection Forms, freestanding ESL is the dominant choice.

In consultation with parents, the following activities are supported during the school year:

- the ESL teachers, Mrs. Kudo, Mrs. Sinrich and Mrs. Laurette in conjunction with Ms. Sandra Buitrago, parent coordinator, hold parent workshops in order to provide appropriate information on each program throughout the school year. If a parent needs additional assistance, the school provides interpretation and translation services by the Department of Education.
- parents are also invited into the classroom to observe and engage in ESL strategies and materials
- parent participation in school activities to keep parents informed of all school events

3. After students are administered the LAB-R and the student is deemed entitled to receive English support services, the student and parent(s) or guardian(s) are invited to parent workshops where the three program choices are described. The ESL teachers, Mrs. Kudo, Mrs. Sinrich and Mrs. Laurette are responsible for the distribution and collection of entitlement letters within the first ten days of initial enrollment. Letters of entitlement are distributed, along with the parent survey and program selection forms to the entitled students, in their native language. Participating parents are asked to complete the survey and the parent orientation session, after viewing the video in their native language. However, if a parent of an ELL child is unable to attend, letters are sent home with the child and follow up calls are made to ensure that the forms return. The school ensures that these letters and forms are safely maintained where the originals are placed in the students' cumulative folders and photocopies of these forms are kept in the school's compliance binders.

4. If a parent does not complete a Parent Survey and Program Selection Form, the school automatically places the child in a TBE program. However, in our school, the TBE program is not available. Parents are informed of a neighboring school within the district where a TBE program is available with the assistance of translators. Yet, most of our parents prefer to keep their children in our school and are often placed into the school's ESL program. After the parents choose the program that best suits the needs of their child, placement letters are distributed to the parent in the language of their choice. Once we receive NYSESLAT scores, continued entitlement letters are distributed in their parents language of choice. Students are asked to return these letters with their parent's signatures and date. The originals are placed in that child's cumulative folders and the photocopies are placed in our compliance binder. Parents are welcome to call the school with any questions or concerns regarding their child's placement.

5. After reviewing past Parent Survey and Program selection forms it has become apparent through the rising trend that the parents prefer the English as a Second Language (ESL) freestanding program. We keep records of the numbers of requests for each program. Based on past trend and the present, ESL is the dominant program for our school. However, if the number of requests increase for dual language or TBE, we will accommodate parent's needs based on their choice. The parents have expressed their appreciation for their child's acquisition of English proficiency. Using English the students are engaged in many group activities with a strong emphasis in literacy and language development. This program is directly related to all content areas. All 103 parents survey and program selection forms request their child stay in our school for our freestanding ESL program.

6. Yes, the school's program is aligned with what parents have been requesting. Using the ELPC screen on ATS, we document each parent's choice. The school offers an extensive push-in model. P.S. 66 is comprised of children from many countries. It is important to facilitate their adjustment to their new surroundings. The focus of the ESL program is to enable the students to function effectively within the classroom environment.

Part IV: ELL Programming

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered?
 - a. What are the organizational models (e.g., Departmentalized, Push-In [Co-Teaching], Pull-Out, Collaborative, Self-Contained)?
 - b. What are the program models (e.g., Block [Class travels together as a group]; Ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class]; Heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels]; Homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?
2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
 - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?
3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to enrich language development.
4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages?
5. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
 - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
 - b. Describe your plan for ELLs in US schools less than three years (newcomers). Additionally, because NCLB now requires ELA testing for ELLs after one year, specify your instructional plan for these ELLs.
 - c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
 - d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6 years).
6. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?
7. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs within the least restrictive environment?

1. ESL instruction is delivered for all ELLs as required under CR Part 154. Beginners and intermediate students receive 360 minutes per week of ESL instruction and advanced students receive 180 minutes. Teaching materials are differentiated in each program according to the students' proficiency levels. Instruction will follow the same skills and strategies that are introduced Region wide. The monthly focus for math and literacy are reinforced at these levels.

a. The organizational models used are push-in, pull-out and self-contained.

b. The program models are dependent on the proficiency levels based on the LAB-R and the NYSESLAT scores. The newcomers in grades K-2 and 3-5 are organized homogeneously and ungraded through a pull-out program. Our first grade students are in a self-contained ESL class. Due to our high ESL population, we service the remaining students through a push-in model where students are organized heterogeneously and graded.

2. The school ensures that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels. Each child is examined using the results of the Lab-R and the NYSESLAT. Using the ELL interim assessments, we will be able to identify specific areas giving the beginners and intermediate students more instructional time per week. The grouping will be based on their proficiency levels.

a. ELLs receive ESL instruction as per proficiency levels and as per CR Part 154. Beginners and intermediate students receive ESL instruction 360 minutes per week and advanced students receive ESL instruction 180 minutes per week. All ELL students receive ELA instruction 180 minutes per week. We service our beginner and intermediate students 8 (45 minute) periods a week and our advanced students receive 4 (45 minute) periods of instructional time.

3. Our students come from varied backgrounds and therefore receive content area instruction in core academic areas using sheltered English. Where possible, translations are provided by qualified staff and/or translators, in the native language. Our program for ELLs embodies the conceptual understanding of challenging content and well-developed learning strategies that prepare ELLs to solve problems think critically and communicate in their new language. We deliver instruction to align with the common core state standards in Math, ELA, Social Studies and Science. Translated glossaries are often used, as well as, the use of technology in the content areas. We collaborate with the classroom and cluster teachers to plan lessons in line with the student's needs.

4. We ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native language in numerous ways. Initially, Spanish speaking students get tested with the LAB_R. If the child is entitled for ELL services, the Spanish student is administered the Spanish LAB. All of our students in the testing grades have the opportunity to take their NYS content exams, as well as, preparatory exams in their native language. We utilize translators and translated editions to provide additional support.

5. ELL students are grouped to receive services based on their level of language proficiency. A data driven approach using Standardized and teacher assessments and/or evaluations are used to determine the level of fluency for each student.

a. SIFE students are seen by the ELL teacher on a daily basis in a pull-out model. We will facilitate their adjustment to the new surroundings. The teacher develops language skill that will enable them to function effectively in their regular classroom. In addition the teacher emphasizes self-esteem and confidence as they adapt to a new culture. The ELL teacher shares strategies with the classroom teacher to meet the needs of these students within the confines of the classroom.

b. ELL's in school less than three years are seen 8 (45 minute) periods a week. This gives each newcomer 360 minutes in the ESL classroom where they receive intensive English language instruction. This allows these students to adjust to their new surroundings, and enables them to function effectively in their regular classroom as well as prepare these students for the ELA. In addition to teaching phonics, blending and letter sounds, we incorporate English immersion through Rosetta Stone. We utilize a component of our reading program strictly designed for newcomers in grades K-2 and 3-5. Each student is provided with a picture glossary, as well as a workbook that stresses vocabulary and basic sight words.

c. ELL students receiving four to six years of service continue to receive ESL services dependent on their level of language proficiency. They are provided with English language instruction and instruction in the content areas of math, science, and social studies. Students participate in EdPerformance tasks, a computer program, that assesses student progress in Math, Language Arts and Reading. These students are also provided with AIS instruction dependant upon their language proficiency. Students also participate in inquiry teams, where student progress is assessed on a weekly basis.

d. Long term ELL students will be provided with English language instruction and instruction in the content areas of math, science, and social studies. These students also participate in EdPerformance tasks. They also receive AIS instruction dependent upon their language proficiency and participate in inquiry teams.

6. There are many instructional strategies and grade level materials that teachers use to provide ELL-SWDs with academic content area support, as well as, to help accelerate English language development. Many of our students enjoy hands-on, tactile manipulatives. Our activities are delivered via the SMART Board, where many students can interact with the lesson. Laptops are incorporated as well. The ELL teacher will link with the SETSS teacher in order to help the ELL students who are identified as having special needs. The ELL teacher will also discuss and review the needs of each child. The SBST and guidance counselor will have a part in helping plan appropriate lessons according to the needs of each student. In our ICT classrooms, we meet with the general education and special education teachers to focus on specific skills that the students need, based on their Individualized Education Plan. Each student with an IEP are targeted specifically based on the needs of the child by each provider. All mandated service providers record attendance through SESIS. This ensures that all ELL-SWDs are receiving their entitled services.

7. Based on the curricular, instructional and scheduling flexibility of school, we meet the diverse needs of ELL-SWDs in the least restrictive environment by conferencing with service providers and parents to better understand the needs of our students. ELL-SWDs are accommodated on a daily basis and during times of assessment based on their IEPs.

ELL-SWDs

- Attend before and after school programs that focus on specific skills and strategies that is grade and level appropriate.
- Attend Extended Day Program on Mondays and Tuesdays where tutoring is provided through targeted and differentiated small group instruction; providers of services carefully plan lessons to address not only each student's needs but their interests and skills.
- English Language Learners who have not met the performance standards utilize the school-wide reading program, Treasures. ELL students use Treasure Chest reading program specifically tailored to ELL students and Triumphs reading program specifically tailored to SWDs.
- Inquiry Teams are established school-wide and meet weekly to analyze and discuss data to target students' needs.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

- Receive small group instruction that provides comprehensive literacy instruction and Common Core State Standard based content area teachings.

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

8. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.
9. Describe your plan for continuing transitional support (2 years) for ELLs reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.
10. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?
11. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?
12. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.
13. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?
14. How is native language support delivered in each program model? (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)
15. Do required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels?
16. Include a description of activities in your school to assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year.
17. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

8. We provide targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other content areas. Our newcomers utilize Rosetta Stone, Starfall and Destination Reading to enhance language proficiency. Phonemic awareness is developed through the use of a specific reading program, Treasure Chest, which incorporates visuals, picture dictionaries, retelling cards and vocabulary building cards. The primary focus is to provide extra assistance with the students' acquisition of English and the development of language skills that will enable them to function effectively in the regular classroom. The teacher will base instruction on the individual needs of the students to the greatest possible extent in Language Arts, Math, Science and Social Studies. Hands on activities are used during science experiments whenever possible. In social studies, the students learn through a multitude of ways including, maps skills, role-playing activities and DBQs. Work samples are reviewed and groups are formed and changed periodically. AIS support is integrated in all grades, as well as inquiry teams to give added support in small groups. The primary focus is reviewing necessary skills and strategies that the students will need to perform on their academic grade. In addition, the ELL students will practice strategies to assist them with the NYSESLAT, ELA and MATH standardized tests.

9. Transitional support for students reaching proficiency includes students being more accountable for their regular class work while building their stamina in timing and using advanced strategies. The students are targeted for AIS and inquiry teams. These students receive testing accommodations, time and a half, during assessments for the next two years after reaching proficiency on the NYSESLAT.

10. We are currently using Treasure Chest, an ESL component to our school-wide reading system. We use Rosetta Stone to help with language acquisition. We started a trial program "Destination Reading" to engage students interest in reading, while differentiating students abilities.

11. We are not discontinuing our methods or programs at the present time because we find them effective.

12. ELL's are offered equal access to all school programs by participating in AM/PM Literacy/Math Academy for 4 days a week. ELL services include:

- supplemental services to grades 3-5. Reading and Math Instruction takes place during an AM Literacy/Math Program—7:00 am-8:00am, 4 days a week Monday through Thursday for 52 sessions. Other funding will supplement this program for it to continue for 92 sessions. The AM Literacy program will address the needs of the at-risk children in these grades. There are 20 students in each class group. The emphasis is on language acquisition, reading and math performance standards. The focus of the teachers in these before school classes is to develop language skills that will enable students to function effectively in their regular classrooms and to gain confidence in their ability to perform to the standards. The program will be served by 5 teachers, 3 teachers have NYS Literacy Certification and 2 teachers have NYS TESOL Certification.

- Thursday and Friday Academy Literacy/Math (2 days a week)—after school 2:45 pm-3:45 pm for 30 sessions - provides the same services as the AM program. There are 20 students in each class group. The emphasis is on language acquisition, reading and math performance standards. The focus of the teacher in these after school classes is to develop language skills that will enable students to function effectively in their regular classrooms and to gain confidence in their ability to perform to the standards. The program will be served by 6 teachers, 3 teachers have NYS TESOL certification and 3 teachers have NYS Literacy Certification

- All ELLS are encouraged to attend the AM Literacy/Math program as well as Thursday and Friday Academy.

13. The instructional materials used to support the learning of ELLS are:

- Balanced literacy components: read aloud, shared, guided leveled books, writer’s workshop model
- Treasures Reading Program
- Leap Frog
- Treasures Reading Program—Treasure Chest for ELLs
- Kaplan Strategies
- Everyday Math & Math Steps
- AM Morning Program (4 times per week)
- PM Thursday and Friday Academy
- We also use computer programs such as Rosetta Stone, Destination Reading and Practice Planet. These programs assess and analyze student needs to differentiate instruction.

14. Teaching materials in ESL are differentiated in each program according to the students’ proficiency levels. Instruction will follow the same skills and strategies that are introduced city wide. The monthly focus for math and literacy are reinforced at these levels. The students in the freestanding ESL program receive all instruction in English. The implication for the school’s LAP and instruction are to provide information in English using ESL methodology and strategies. LAP will address the differing languages, cultures, and education levels in order to implement a coherent ESL program. ESL instruction includes content-based instruction, which is aligned to the New York State learning standards. ESL instruction must also comply with CR Part 154. Native language support is systemic, and not limited to the ESL classroom. In addition to glossaries, dictionaries and materials, in the native languages represented by ELLs, school personnel who can provide support to students during the school day are utilized to help clarify difficulties in content and concept learning in their subject area classes.

15. All services and resources correspond to ELLs’ ages and grade levels. However, newcomers are grouped based on their proficiency levels, often times as beginners. Newcomers in K-2 and 3-5 are grouped together, utilizing the reading program Treasure Chest. Lessons are designed based on students' needs, as well as interests. The lessons are aligned with the common core state standards and the lessons are grade appropriate. The treasure chest reading program incorporates vocabulary building, based on thematic units that are age appropriate.

16. Before the school year, the ESL teacher greets newly enrolled ELL students for a period of introduction and to help the child acquaint themselves to the new building.

17. As an elementary school, our school does not offer language electives at this time.

C. Schools with Dual Language Programs

1. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
2. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
3. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
4. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
5. Is emergent literacy taught in child’s native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

D. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What support do you provide staff to assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle and/or middle to high school?
3. Describe the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff (including non-ELL teachers) as per Jose P.

1. The professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school is ongoing. ELL personnel are required to participate and receive 175 hours of professional development. Such professional development include: new teacher training, BESIS survey collection, extension of services technical assistance, Title III funding, initial enrollment procedures, inquiry data and analysis, preparation and scoring for NYSESLAT, ARIS and Aquity training, Treasures and Destination Reading training, etc. The professional development plan for ELL personnel is current and maintained every year. We are encouraged to attend workshops to learn additional strategies and stay abreast of current trends.

The principal, assistant principal, and ELL Teachers will provide professional development using the LAP learning packages. The discussion will include ESL Learning Standards to meet the new Common Core State Standards and all components of the Language Allocation Policy. Portions of the LAP video will be viewed to provide members of the team and personnel of ELLS at the school with information on the features of the ELL class. Participants of these ongoing workshops include subject area teachers, the guidance counselor, special education providers, service providers, paraprofessionals, school secretaries and the parent coordinator. Ongoing professional development will be implemented for all staff. Strategies and analysis of the ELL program will be shared with all classroom teachers. We provide in-service training to all personnel providing instruction or other services to such pupils in order to enhance their appreciation for the pupils' native languages and cultures and their ability to provide appropriate instructional and support services.

2. We provide strong school-based guidance counselor support so that the ELLs receive high quality assistance to transition from our school to the middle school classroom teachers. We provide student workshops on numerous topics that will help our ELLs transition to their new environment. Such workshops include: anti-bullying, career readiness, leadership and character development, pep rallies, math bee, and student/parent policy awareness for middle school.

3. The ELL teachers provide teachers with strategies for use in the classroom to develop language and literacy skills in our ELL student body. The PD plan for all ESL teachers, as well as the plan for facilitating PD among classroom and content area teachers to support ELLs in the development of academic language is the use of ESL methodologies to scaffold understanding. Professional development takes place on designated Chancellor's Staff Development days in September, November, and June. PD is also provided on a monthly basis at Principal's Staff meetings as well as monthly grade conferences. For this current school year, our calendar of Professional Development dates, that include the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff, are:

- Thursday, September 22, 2011
- Thursday, October 27, 2011
- Tuesday, November 17, 2011
- Thursday, December 15, 2011
- Thursday, January 26, 2012
- Thursday, February 16, 2012
- Thursday, March 22, 2012
- Thursday, April 26, 2012
- Thursday, May 24, 2012
- Thursday, June 7, 2012

A certificate is issued to the teachers after the completion of the 7.5 hours, as per Jose P. Teachers are encouraged to keep their certificate in their teacher file and as part of their 175 hours of professional development.

E. Parental Involvement

1. Describe parent involvement in your school, including parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

1. P.S. 66 Queens is committed to developing and implementing a parent policy that fosters a partnership between the home, school and community. We have identified six key areas that contribute to a partnership that supports greater student achievement.

- The school will join parents in providing for the health and safety of our children, and in the maintenance of a home environment that encourages learning and positive behavior in schools. The school will provide training and information to help families understand their children's development and how to support the changes the children undergo.
- The school will reach out to provide parents with information about school programs and student progress. This will include phone calls, report cards, parent conferences, as well as new information on topics like school choice. Communication will be in a form that families find understandable and useful.
- Parents can make a significant contribution to the environment and functioning of our school. Our school will encourage parent volunteerism and make every effort to match the experience and talents of our parents to the needs of the school.
- With the guidance and support of the school, family members can assist their children with homework and other school related activities. Our school will encourage parents to join in learning activities at home (library cards, home reading corner, Parent Teacher Association (PTA) resource centers, book sales, following directions, reading recipes, etc.)
- The school will work to assist parents in having meaningful roles in the school decision-making process. The school will provide parents with training and information so they can make the most of this opportunity.
- The school will help parents gain access to support services by other agencies, such as health care, Supplemental Educational Services (SES), Academic Intervention Services (AIS), and childcare programs.
- Parents will be encouraged to attend PTA meetings that will be held at times that are convenient for parents. A rotational schedule of PTA meetings will be developed in coordination with the PTA executives and the school in order to accommodate parents that cannot attend evening meetings only. When necessary, translators will be available, so those parents will understand all of the proceedings at PTA meetings. Additional accommodations will be made for parents with disabilities so that they too can attend meetings.
- Through the efforts of the Parent Coordinator, the PTA President with Regional support, an outreach will be made to parents of students in temporary housing (STH) so that these families will be involved in all parent/school activities.
- Parents will be invited to attend culminating celebrations marking their child's success at the school.
- Student of the month celebrations will be held in conjunction with PTA meetings and an Honor's Assembly will be held at the end of each marking period.
- School publications (i.e. pamphlets, newsletters, and letters to parents) will be used to apprise parents of important upcoming events including testing dates, school events and open school.
- The school calendar will be disseminated each month by mail to all parents, two weeks before the start of the month.
- At an Open House, the parents of English Language Learners/Limited English Proficiency (ELL/LEP) students will receive an orientation session on state standards assessment program, school expectations and general program requirements for bilingual education and/or free standing ESL programs.

Parent workshops will focus on basic educational concerns, health care, and financial planning.

Professional Development for Parents:

Monthly professional development for parents will be provided by district and parent coordinator. This professional development will focus on school life for students, curriculum standards, assessments, and health and medical issues for families.

Professional Development is provided by professionals at monthly PTA meetings in areas of health, school curriculum, assessment and other matters pertaining to family social and educational issues.

Professional Development is provided for parents on the School Leadership Team (SLT) in order to assist team members in making informed decisions about school matters.

ELL Professional Development: Regional monthly ESL/Bilingual professional development will be made available to all parents of ELLs. Parents will be afforded opportunities to learn about NYS-ESL standards, instructional strategies and NYS and NYC assessments given to their children.

Students with disabilities/Professional Development: Regional monthly professional development will be made available to all parents of students with disabilities. Parents will be afforded opportunities to learn about NYS standards, instructional strategies and NYS and NYC assessments given to their children.

Annual evaluation of the Parent Involvement Policy

At the end of each year, the school's parent involvement policy will be evaluated for its usefulness in meeting the needs of all parents of students at the school. This evaluation will be coordinated with the executives of the PTA and the school's parent coordinator and administration.

2. Yes, our school partners with other agencies to provide workshops or services to ELL parents. Examples of these agencies are:

- we have had the NYPD present workshops;
- the Richmond Hill Block Association has outreach programs;
- Cornell University provides workshops on nutrition and other issues;
- The Boys' and Girls' Club.

3. Through our learning survey we evaluate parent needs. We provide translation services for parents in all aspects of their child's education. Parents are comfortable enough with our school environment to speak to the Parent Coordinator freely about their specific needs.

4. The Parent Coordinator reaches out to parent and has weekly meeting to meet the needs of parents. She creates a welcoming school environment for parents.; she works with the principal to address parent issues and concerns at the school; she conducts outreach as needed to engage parent in their children's education and strengthens parent involvement by showing how parent are an integral part of their child's education.

B. After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following

1. Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How can this information help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
2. What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
3. How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions?
4. For each program, answer the following:
 - a. Examine student results. What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - b. Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - c. What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the Native Language used?
5. For dual language programs, answer the following:
 - a. How are the English Proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - b. What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - c. How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
6. Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs.

1. Our school uses LAB-R, ECLAS-2, Treasures Reading Program Weekly Assessments, weekly conference logs during guided reading, Fountas and Pinnell, PPR Goals, and the NYSESLAT (RLAT/RNMR reports) to assess the early literacy skills of the ELLs. The data provides insight into each ELL learner in terms of understanding and using the four skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) necessary to be English proficient. This data informs our school's instructional plan by seeing what areas need more focus and attention. In our inquiry groups, we group the children based on their needs in reading, writing, listening and speaking. After analyzing the data, we align our lessons to support those skills and strategies that the students are weak in. We also create computerized assessments on Aquity to see if progress was made in each skill. In guided reading, we group the students based on their reading levels through ECLAS, NYSESLAT reading modality score and running records. We assess the student's comprehension of the stories by their ability to answer questions about the story through oral and written form.

2. After examining the data of students' results on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT, we have noticed a pattern across proficiency levels and grades. On the LAB-R, we notice that most of our newcomers are limited in English, therefore often scoring at the beginner level. On the NYSESLAT, K-5th proficiency levels are clearly higher in the listening and speaking modalities. The scores also reveal lower proficiency levels within the writing and reading modalities.

3. Patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/ speaking—affect instructional decisions. Instruction will be driven and designed to improve reading and writing strategies. Ongoing professional development will be implemented for all staff. ESL strategies will be shared with all classroom teachers. More time will be given to examine student's writing portfolios. There will be more time to practice all strategies and skills needed to improve the student's proficiency levels within the writing and reading modalities.

4a. In the areas of science, social studies and math, ELL students who are intermediate or advanced choose to use the English version test. However, students who are taking these content area tests for the first time, who are beginners, prefer to take tests in their native language with the aid of a translated glossary. The patterns across proficiencies and grades are that our students tend to perform at a satisfactory level.

4b. The school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL periodic assessments to drive instruction. The school leadership will utilize AIS teachers along with the ELL teacher to meet the needs of each ELL student. Their strengths and weaknesses will become clearer using the results of these assessments along with other work the students have completed as evidenced in their portfolios. The teachers of the ELL students target the areas of weakness, specifically reading and writing, in their classroom on a daily basis.

4c. ELLs with some proficiency tend to show growth on periodic assessments from year to year. In the content areas, these ELL students are comfortable using the English versions of the assessments. However, newcomers struggle and prefer to use the native language tests.

5. N/A

6. After examining NYSESLAT scores and other interim and benchmark assessments, we notice gains in ELLs' language acquisition. The regular classroom teacher observes growing confidence in the children who receive ELL services. We evaluate the success of our ESL program for our ELLs based on progress shown throughout the school year via assessment tools used in the school (e.g., ECLAS-2, Fountas and Pinnell, Treasures Reading Program Weekly Assessments, Periodic Assessments, and NYSESLAT). We also evaluate the success of our programs through test scores on our NYS ELA and Math Exams, as well as observing student progress from one level to another, based on the NYSESLAT modality report, RNMR. Student progress is pertinent in our decision making when deciding on an ELL program that is successful for our school.

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 27Q66 School Name: Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis School

Cluster: Two Network: CFN211

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

Using the data recorded in ATS based on the home language survey, annual school report, blue emergency card indicators, discussions at school leadership meetings and PTA meetings, and daily parent teacher contact, we assess the school's need for written translation and oral interpretation. During the school day, we use staff to translate. In the event we find the need for a translator, we contract outside agencies to work for us. During our school review parents and teachers indicated a need to translate all letters and monthly newsletters into Spanish. We also need a person to translate during individual parent teacher conferences to ensure progress in instruction.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

At school leadership and PTA meetings our needs were reported to the community. Based on the data, our greatest need is Spanish translation it was announced that our parent coordinator and several teachers and other staff communicate fluently in Spanish to provide parents with needed translation. We provide written translation on all documents as provided by the DOE website to those parents in need of translations. A translated letter is sent home informing parents of translation services available in school. Parental notices are sent in English and other target languages informing parents of the availability of translation and interpretation services at the school. In addition, a copy of such notice is posted in a prominent location near the main office of the school. Letters are sent home to parents in the home language whenever possible. Our parent coordinator holds workshops to help parents learn English and to disseminate information. Signs posted in the main lobby indicate Spanish is spoken here as well as signs for events and other services. Individual student and other school data are reported by school staff to parents in the native language. Results are disseminated as soon as the information is received. Workshops are given at PTA and leadership meetings, to explain standardized tests and results.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

The school always provides written translation services by the parent coordinator, the ELL/ESL teachers, other staff and volunteer parents who translate letters to parents. This enables parents to understand standardized exams, informal assessments and it provides parents with individual student's progress. Translated letters keep parents informed as to school closings, half days, and important events being conducted in the school. We will monitor and maintain a folder containing samples of translated letters and scheduled meetings. Translated Bill of Parents' Rights and Responsibilities are included in what is disseminated to parents. We provide written translation on all documents as provided by the DOE website to those parents in need of translations. Copies of these documents are kept with the parent coordinator and in the main office at all times. As in the past, we will provide translation services by an outside vendor when necessary or as provided by the DOE.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

The school provides oral interpretation services as well. Our parent coordinator and other staff members conduct bi-monthly meetings to keep parents informed of changes within curriculum. Curriculum planning, pacing and discussing individual needs are needed to achieve high standards. Our school had many in-house people to interpret during scheduled meetings to translate English to Spanish or other languages. Our SBST is also bilingual and provides translations for mandated services. Our parent coordinator and other staff are always available to provide translation when needed. When necessary, we provide services with an outside vendor as contracted by the DOE.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link: <http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

Translation service funds provided by the DOE will be used for in-house interpreters to translate at PTA meetings and parent teacher conferences or to hire an outside vendor to perform the services needed. This will allow parents to understand standardized exams, informal assessments, and to notify parent of individual students' progress. All important documents are provided in translated form. They are distributed from the main office and the parent coordinator also maintains a file of these documents in her office. Parental notices will be sent in English and other target languages informing parents of the availability of translation and interpretation services at the school. In addition, a copy of such notice will be posted in a prominent location near the main office of the school.

We have identified six key areas that contribute to a partnership that supports greater student achievement.

Part D: Parental Engagement Activities

The school will join parents in providing for the health and safety of our children, and in the maintenance of a home environment that encourages learning and positive behavior in schools.

The school will provide training and information to help families understand their children's development and how to support the changes the children undergo.

The school will reach out to provide parents with information about school programs and student progress. This will include phone calls, report cards, parent conferences, as well as new information on topics like school choice. Communication will be in a form that families find understandable and useful.

Parents can make a significant contribution to the environment and functioning of our school. Our school will encourage parent volunteerism and make every effort to match the experience and talents of our parents to the needs of the school.

With the guidance and support of the school, family members can assist their children with homework and other school related activities. Our school will encourage parents to join in learning activities at home (library cards, home reading corner, Parent Teacher Association (PTA) resource centers, book sales, following directions, reading recipes, etc.)

The school will work to assist parents in having meaningful roles in the school decision-making process. The school will provide parents with training and information so they can make the most of this opportunity.

The school will help parents gain access to support services by other agencies, such as health care, Supplemental Educational Services (SES), Academic Intervention Services (AIS), and childcare programs.

Parents will be encouraged to attend PTA meetings that will be held at times that are convenient for parents. A rotational schedule of PTA meetings will be developed in coordination with the PTA executives and the school in order to accommodate parents that cannot attend evening meetings only. When necessary, translators will be available, so those parents will understand all of the proceedings at PTA meetings. Additional accommodations will be made for parents with disabilities so that they too can attend meetings.

Through the efforts of the Parent Coordinator, the PTA President with Regional support, an outreach will be made to parents of students in temporary housing (STH) so that these families will be involved in all parent/school activities.

Parents will be invited to attend culminating celebrations marking their child's success at the school. Such events include: Holiday Festivals, Literacy Night, and Multicultural Celebration.

Student of the month celebrations will be held in conjunction with PTA meetings and an Honor's Assembly will be held at the end of each marking period.

School publications (i.e. pamphlets, newsletters, and letters to parents) will be used to apprise parents of important upcoming events including testing dates, school events and open school.

The school calendar will be disseminated each month by mail to all parents, two weeks before the start
