DIRECTIONS AND GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING THE ANNUAL GOALS AND ACTION PLAN SECTION

The CEP goal-setting is done in collaboration with the school community to support student achievement and the implementation of school-wide goals as well as to document how yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School is meeting Federal, State, and City regulations.

Below you will find guidance on documenting annual goals and action plans.

WHICH SCHOOLS NEED TO COMPLETE THIS?

All Reward, Recognition and In Good Standing schools should identify and submit annual goals and action plans in consultation with their School Leadership Team (SLT).

HOW DO CEP GOALS RELATE TO GOALS SET FOR THE PRINCIPAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW (PPR)?

CEP goals are generally intended to guide school-wide planning and development. CEP goals may be coordinated with goals set by the principal for the Principal Performance Review (PPR) if they are appropriate for use as school-wide goals.

HOW SHOULD A SCHOOL DEVELOP ITS GOALS AND ACTION PLANS?

- YCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School should identify a minimum of three and a maximum of five annual goals.
- Goals should be aligned with the current citywide instructional expectations.
- Goals should be “SMART” - specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound.
- Goal development should be based on an assessment of yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School’s needs.
- YCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School should use quantitative and/or qualitative data in providing the rationale for each goal. Cite sources that contributed to the rationale, such as the Progress Report, Quality Review, School Survey, NYS Accountability report (SQR, SCRA, or JIT), state and school assessment results, attendance records, inquiry team work, etc.
- Each goal and action plan requires yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School to cite the strategies and activities in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve the goal identified. The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15. YCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School’s goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School that meets federal requirements. You may use or amend relevant sections of your PIP directly to respond to the parental involvement section of each goal and action plan.

Use this template to identify an annual goal. Respond to each section to indicate strategies and activities in support of accomplishing this goal.

Annual Goal #1

- Describe a goal you have identified for the year. Refer to the directions and guidance for assistance in developing your goals.

By January 2013, Cornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School will have a functioning students council, which will include a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and student officers.

Comprehensive needs assessment

- Describe the identified need that generated this goal. The needs assessment should encompass the entire school and be based on the performance of students, in relation to State academic content and student achievement standards.

Our schedule is comprised of monthly PTA and SLT meetings, weekly department meetings, weekly meetings between the principal and teachers, and weekly grade team meetings. We also have a student suggestion box, and weekly emails that consistently communicate to staff that their voice always needs to be heard. After multiple discussions and most importantly, after the willingness of a staff member to take on the responsibility, we decided to work to create a student council, so that students had a platform to express their voice within the school.

Instructional strategies/activities

- Describe the research-based instructional strategies and activities that will be used to achieve this goal. Include descriptions of the following in your response:
 - a) strategies/activities that encompass the needs of identified student subgroups,

Instructionally, we are moving toward a student centered classroom in which students take ownership over their learning by creating rubrics and checklist for assessment, identifying topics and subtopics to research, essay topics to write on, and working more cooperatively to solve problems.

- b) key personnel and other resources used to implement these strategies/activities,

Mr. Johnson, our math special education teacher, and Ms. Phelps our 6th and 7th grade science teacher, went to the principal to promote the idea of a student government. Our partnership with The Sports and Arts After-School foundation allowed us the financial resources to pay teachers for their after school service. 3 days a week.

- c) steps taken to include teachers in the decision-making regarding the use of academic assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies/activities,

The teachers identified above are the facilitators of the program. All decisions regarding the program are maintained by Mr. Johnson and Ms. Phelps.

- d) timeline for implementation.

Students will meet 3x a week for 90 minutes beginning in November to design the parameters of the program.

Instructional strategies/activities

- Describe the research-based instructional strategies and activities that will be used to achieve this goal. Include descriptions of the following in your response:
 - a) strategies/activities that encompass the needs of identified student subgroups,

We view our services through the Response to Intervention (RTI) model. Classes are organized homogeneously to provide more targeted supports to sub groups of students. Tier three students are in smaller classes and receive pull out or push in academic intervention services. Some of the resources used for tier 3 students are the fontas and pinnell kits, rewards curriculum, teenbiz 3000, Wilson reading program, IXL, and I Can Learn. During AIS, students either work individually with a teacher, or in groups no larger than 5 on specified skills. Inside the math and ELA classroom, tier 3 students are in ELA Math, and in some cases science and social studies classes with at least one teacher and or one Para. In some cases 2-3 teachers are in the classrooms. For all tiered students, our instruction is much more targeted as concerns to reading skills and strategies (see attached). Our writing initiative includes weekly narrative, expository, and argumentative assignments, which are rooted in the common core standards. Students receive weekly feedback on their writing and provide peer to peer feedback against the states expository rubric, the 6 traits rubric, and the Odell education evidence based rubric. This weekly writing initiative is also taking place in the social studies classroom and the science classroom has students writing essays after every topic is covered. Socratic Seminar is still a part of our pedagogy and curriculum and provides students great opportunities to have dialogue around text and helps them to practice their listening and speaking skills. Our common core benchmark assessments also provides us with periodic data on how students are performing as it relates to the common core standards and gives us information on how to redesign our lessons where necessary. We no longer have humanities classrooms; our classrooms are now ELA and SS, which give students opportunities to have a deep dive in very rich content. Students also were allowed to learn a language using the Rosetta stone program, which can also be used at home. Students go onto Rosetta stone during unit one of their computer class.

- b) key personnel and other resources used to implement these strategies/activities,

AIS teacher, ELA, SS, and Science teachers. Teenbiz 3000, rewards, Wilson, fontas and pinnell, Houghton Mifflin common core. We also have an ESL teacher that uses a variety of resources to support our ELL's.

- c) steps taken to include teachers in the decision-making regarding the use of academic assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies/activities,

All decisions made at Cornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School involve teacher input. This is a part of our culture. Email, text messages, face to face conversations through weekly meetings, telephone calls, etc, are all used to acquire teacher input.

d) timeline for implementation.

During the months of September all tier three students were assessed using fontas and pinnell and teenbiz. Every other program was implemented at the beginning of the school year.

Strategies to increase parental involvement

- All schools should cite strategies to increase parent involvement that aligned to the goal when applicable. Title I schools should reference these activities in yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School’s Title I Parent Involvement Policy (PIP). The PIP template is provided on pages 11 through 15 in this CEP.

Parents can log on to Pupil Pal to see how their students are doing academically. They can also allow their children to go onto teenbiz or Rosetta Stone to get some extra work done as time on task usually dictates achievement. Parents were informed of child’s classroom placements and participated in adjustment discussions based on student need and IEP data.

Budget and resources alignment

- Indicate yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School’s Title I status: School Wide Program (SWP) Targeted Assistance Program (TAP) Non-Title I
- Select the fund source(s) that yCornerstone Academy for Social Action Middle School is using to support the instructional goal.

Comprehensive needs assessment

- Describe the identified need that generated this goal. The needs assessment should encompass the entire school and be based on the performance of students, in relation to State academic content and student achievement standards.

New York City has instructional expectations in which students must complete 6 common core aligned tasks in ELA, SS and Sci. Students in 2011-2012 only completed one aligned tasks and did a fair job. After participating in a Jay Mctigh workshop on Cornerstone (performance) Tasks, it was evident that 21st century skills, and the completion of performance tasks are aligned to the common core standards, especially when considering the 2014-2015 school assessment will be performance tasks based.

Students use graphic organizers, exemplars, rubrics, and teacher cues, prompts, and questioning to complete the assignments. Work products and grades are based on diagnostic results and student growth over time. Teachers are implementing more cooperative learning opportunities and giving students the chance to struggle through problems together. Classes are becoming more student centered.

- b) key personnel and other resources used to implement these strategies/activities,

Curriculum Mapping Institute in July 2012 in Saratoga Springs New York. Literacy Design Collaborative resources as well the Ohio, North Carolina, and Arizona Breakdown of the common core standards. Engageny resources as well. Leverage Leadership by Paul Bambrick Santoya was an anchor text for the principal, as well as the Align, Assess. Achieve, flipbooks by McGraw Hill. Per session provided over the summer for teachers to create curriculum plans.

- c) steps taken to include teachers in the decision-making regarding the use of academic assessments to evaluate the effectiveness of the strategies/activities,

Teachers created the Cornerstone (performance) tasks as they saw fit. They just had to make sure that the tasks provided opportunities for students to transfer their knowledge and skills.

Part II: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of those students who may possibly be ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. Also describe the steps taken to annually evaluate ELLs using the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT).
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned? (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [see tool kit].)
4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.
5. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.)
6. Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2011-2012

CEP Appendix 7

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 11x462 School Name: Cornerstone Academy Middle School

Cluster: 2 Network: 608

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

Upon registration non English speaking parents are provided with a Home Language Identification Survey(HLIS) in their native language, along with a Preferred Lanfugue form which allows them to state what their oral and written language preference is. These documents provide the school with insight and data to further assist parents in our community. During registration our Parent Coordinator meets with parents and students to help answer any questions or concerns. Data collected from the forms is analyzed by the ESL teacher who identifies students O.T.E.L.E. code. All school related information will be disseminated to parents of ELL students in English and or in their native language which are provided by the Department of Education. Handouts and letters sent to parents are translated using the Translation & Interpretation Unit for languages that are not covered by the DOE. The Translation and Interpretation Unit is also used to supply oral interpretation for workshops, mettings, provided to parents.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

Data collected form HLIS and Preferred Language forms that 6% of our students parents require written translation and oral interpretation needs. The 6% are all spanish speaking. Findings were reported to the school by the Pupil Accounting Secretary via ATS reports and data.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Translation services will be provided in house by Pupil Accounting Secretary. We will use parent letters that are provided by the Department of Education. Any letters or reports from teachers, deans, principal will be translated by the Pupil Accounting Secretary. D

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Oral interpretation services will be provide in house by pupil accounting secretary, parent coordinator and paraprofessional.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link: <http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.
