Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) Requirements

Which Schools Need to Complete the CEP?

All Reward, Recognition, In Good Standing and Local Assistance Plan (LAP) schools should identify and submit annual goals and action plans in consultation with their School Leadership Team (SLT).

- Explicitly delineate the school's plan for annually increasing student performance through comprehensive instructional programs and services as well as the plan for enhancement of teacher and leader effectiveness.
- Address how the school will use its full range of resources (which may include but is not limited to Title I, Title II, and/or Title III, 1003(a) and/or 1003(g) School Improvement, Race to the Top, School Innovation or local funds) to support improvement efforts for the identified sub-group(s) on the identified accountability measures.
- Develop the CEP in consultation with parents, school staff, the School Leadership Team (SLT), and others in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulations A-655 to provide a meaningful opportunity for stakeholders to participate in the development of the plan and comment on the CEP before it is approved.

Guidance for Developing and Completing the Annual Goals and Action Plan Section

Goal setting for the CEP is done in collaboration with the school community to support student achievement and the implementation of school-wide goals as well as document how your school is meeting Federal, State, and City regulations. For SY 2013-14 when developing their goals, schools should do the following:

- Identify a minimum of three and a maximum of five annual goals.
- Align their goals with the current citywide instructional expectations.
- Develop goals that are "SMART" - specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound.
- Conduct a needs assessment of your school
- Use quantitative and/or qualitative data in providing the rationale for each goal.
- Cite sources that contributed to the rationale such as the Progress Report, Quality Review, School Survey, state and school assessment results, attendance records, inquiry team work, etc. to form the basis of your needs assessment.
- Align the identified goals to the strategies and activities in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP). The PIP template is provided on pages 12 and 13. Your school is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with your school's goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. You may use or amend relevant sections of your PIP so they directly align to the parent involvement activities that support each goal and action plan. All schools should cite strategies to increase parent involvement that align to the goal when applicable. Title I schools should reference these strategies and activities in the school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy (PIP).
- Enumerate the strategies and activities that will be implemented to achieve each goal.
- Identify all fund sources that will be used for the completion of each activity.
- List the projected timeline for completion of each activity, including the start and end date of each activity.
- Describe the programmatic details and resources that will be used for each instructional strategy and activity described for each goal. Do not include the cost for each line-item-expenditure for the strategies and activities listed within the action plans.

School Receiving Title I Funds

School Wide Program (SWP) and Targeted Assistance (TA) Schools receiving Title I funds are required to complete the Title I Information Page located on page 11 of the CEP.

Highly Qualified Teachers (HQT)

Describe the strategies and activities including strategies for recruitment, retention, assignments, and support including high quality professional development that ensures staff is highly qualified.

Our staff is comprised of highly qualified teachers whom are placed in their teaching positions based on the needs of our students and school community. Teachers are placed in teaching assignments to best fit the needs of our students. Professional development is provided to all teachers to equip them with the necessary skills and information to excel in their assignments.

Teaching candidates are hired centrally by the NYCDOE. As described in the NYCDOE Consolidated Application, this process ensures that all NYCDOE teachers meet State eligibility requirements. Schools, in turn, ensure that teachers are HQT, as defined by NCLB.

Prior to hiring a candidate, their credentials are verified by our Network's HR Director to ensure that the candidate holds a valid NYS certification in that license area. The BEDS Survey is reviewed by the Principal and the HR director who work with our school to ensure that every teacher's assignment aligns with their license area so that all teachers are reported as Highly Qualifies on the BEDS survey.

Strategies and activities used to attract HQT to our school include:

- Frequent communication with our Network HR Director when vacancies occur.
- Central Office of Talent and Recruitment partners with colleges and the Network HR Director partners with Central for assistance and guidance for candidate referrals.
- Participating in Central Hiring Fair events where pre-screened HQT candidates are interviewed and recruited.
- Establishing a partnership with a local college to support the grooming of student teachers in our search of HQT candidates.
- Interviewing HQT candidates from the Open Market Hiring System and The Absent Teacher Reserve pool.
- Establishing a rigorous interview protocol that includes intensive criteria for the selection of new staff members including demonstration lessons, interviews, and NYS certification/licensing.
- Maintain a teacher resource center and professional library to promote promising and effective practices.
- Teachers will be provided with curriculum maps, instructional resources and professional learning opportunities.
- Individualized PD plans are created for teachers to ensure continued improvement.

High Quality and Ongoing Professional Development

Describe the strategies and activities for high quality professional development for teachers, principals, and paraprofessionals, and staff that enable all students to meet Common Core State Standards (CCSS).

A variety of Professional Development is available to teachers both in-house and off-site. Teachers set their personal PD goals for the year and are welcome to schedule PD sessions throughout the year to reach their goals. A calendar is displayed in the Principal's office for all to monitor and collaborate. In-house PD is provided on an on-going basis pertaining to Danielson, Common Core and inquiry work.

To meet the PD requirement for Danielson, a variety of sessions are held in-house. Faculty conferences and grade conferences are used for group activities. Webinars are provided for individualized, focused learning opportunities. Teachers also have the opportunity to attend DOE sponsored PD sessions.

Teams of teachers attend PD sessions for Common Core aligned curriculum throughout the school year. For instance, our Ready Gen Curriculum Team attends five training sessions throughout the school year. A similar team attends for Scholastic Code X, Go Math, and CMP3.

Teachers and administrators collaborate to plan our in-house PD sessions based on the needs of our teachers and staff.

Trainers from curriculum companies are invited to our school for personalized training sessions. Our Data Inquiry Team creates guiding questions and templates for teacher teams to utilize during their inquiry work, which provides assistance towards enhancing learning experiences and reaching all students.

Coordination and Integration of Federal, State, and Local Services and Programs

Describe how the coordination and integration of Federal, State, and/or local funds are used to meet the intent and purpose programs whose funds are consolidated (i.e., services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH), violence prevention programs, housing programs, Head Start, etc.).

- Translation and interpretation funding is utilized to support materials and services required for translation.
- Title III funds are used to support and supplement programs for ELL students.
- Tax Levy funds are used to provide academic programs to support students after school.
- Title I Parent Involvement funding is utilized to support parental involvement.
- Title I and Title IID funding is used to support professional development initiatives.

SWP Schools Only

Transition Plans to Assist Preschool Children (Elementary Schools Only)

Describe the transition plans used to assist preschool children from early childhood programs to the elementary school program (e.g. aligned curriculum, joint PD & parent involvement activities, sharing of records/info, early intervention services, etc.).

- Our Pre K teachers collaborate on an ongoing and regular basis with our Kindergarten teachers regarding students and curriculum.
- Portfolios of student work are passed on to the next grade level.
- Professional Development is offered for Pre K and Kindergarten teachers throughout the year.
- Parents are invited for workshops throughout the year.
- Parents are welcomed into the classroom to visit throughout the year.
- Our ESL Coordinator communicates with our Pre K teachers to plan for Kindergarten LAB-R testing procedures.
- Our Pre K Social Worker assists our Pre K teachers throughout the year.

Measures to Include Teachers in Decisions Regarding Assessments

Describe the decision making process that teachers participate in regarding the use and selection of appropriate multiple assessment measures and the professional development provided regarding the use of assessment results to improve instruction.

- Our MOSL team met several times to discuss the options for our assessments for the 2013-2014 school-year.
- Beginning of the year baseline assessments were administered and utilized as a teaching tool. Teachers met in grade bands to review student work and formulate a plan of next steps and teaching points.
- Our Data Inquiry Team meets on a regular basis to discuss student work, assessments, and how our data can further drive our instruction.
- Teacher teams that are comprised of two grades who meet on a regular basis to ensure vertical alignment of instruction and assessment.

Directions and Guidance for Developing and Updating the Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) (Required for Title I Schools ONLY)

The template below meets the parental involvement requirements of Title I. Your school is encouraged to use the template below to update your school's current policy or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. The activities and/or strategies included in your school's policy should align with current CEP goals for improving student achievement.

The PIP should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent involvement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact is a component of the PIP that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility. Schools are encouraged to include feedback from the Parent Coordinator when updating the policy. In addition, if your school community will be engaged this year in central parent involvement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in your policy.

Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) Template

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental involvement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in our school. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. Our school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association, and Title I Parent Committee as trained volunteers and welcomed members of our school community. Our school will support parents and families of Title I students by:

- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional development opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of our school community;

Our school's Parent Involvement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of English Language Learners and students with disabilities. Our school community will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent involvement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of our school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents, and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, our school will:

- actively involve and engage parents in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the Comprehensive Educational Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy and School-Parent Compact;

This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional development, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend our school and will work to ensure that our school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;
- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., NCLB/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, Progress Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting on or before December 1st of each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent involvement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1118 and other applicable sections under the No Child Left Behind Act;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed;
- conduct an Annual Title I Parent Fair/Event where all parents are invited to attend formal presentations and workshops that address their student academic skill needs and what parents can do to help;

Our school will further encourage school-level parental involvement by:

After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following:

1. Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How will this data help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.

The assessment tools that our school uses in order to assess the early literacy skills of our ELLs include NYC Performance Assessment, NYC Periodic Assessments, Performance Series and Thinkcentral Go Math Chapter Assessments, Acuity, IPA, schoolnet and DYOs.

2. What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?
The data patterns on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT reveal that 60% or 18 out of our 30 students have acquired advanced proficiency levels, 20% or 6 of our 30 students are in the intermediate level, and also 20% or 6 of our 30 students are in the beginner level.
3. How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions? How does your school use information about Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives? What does the data reveal? (see SED memo and AMAO tool)

Within our school's curriculum instruction, ELLs are provided with a rich language instruction method that includes specialized content area differentiation supported by our intervention teachers and our ELL teacher. When in the classroom setting, classroom teachers align their curriculum based teaching method approach in a tailored manner that reaches all ELLs at a differentiated structured setting which includes and is not limited to instruction from the intervention teacher as well as the ELL teacher.

Withing the push in/pull out model the ELL teacher provides ELL students with specific skill target instruction within the four NYSESLAT modalities: reading/writing/listening/speaking skills in order to strengthen decoding skills, comprehension and listening skills, writing and speaking. Lessons are conducted within small group instruction that taps into the students' multiple intelligences. Within the push-in/pull-out ESL model, the ELL teacher implements self-created curricula that are aligned to the current programs used (Ready Gen, Code x, Go Math, Social Studies content studies, science content and so on). The vocabulary, content and curriculum mapping is strictly aligned to the school's educational map patterns and content based core curriculum standards. Within the instruction, the ELL teacher uses approved internet media, story books, big books and books on tape, that supplement the curriculum, reviews the curriculum content and blends in the required language of the lessons by including self created unit studies, assessments and art based creative projects that enable ELLs to express their language acquisition through their own richly imagined and carefully crated artifacts that are tastefully displayed on bulletin boards and within the classroom in order to promote the self appreciative feeling of success, recognition and respect for the ELLs' strives that will empower them and lead them to a strong and rich educational plateau of success during their current school year and within their future endeavors such as their high school years and their preparation for succesful college work.

4. For each program, answer the following:
- What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
 - Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
 - What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the native language used?

Our students in grades 6, 7 and 8 scored mostly a one level on the ELA, and a two level on the Math.

We do not have any native language test scores for grades 6, 7 and 8.

Our school leadership views the current ELL Periodic Assessments and decides whether to add further curriculum programs and/or enrichment classes that will aid in the students' language acquisition.

Our students have demonstrated significant gains according to our Periodic Assessments results.

Native language is used in accordance with the needs of the ELL student when taking a Math or content area test.

5. Describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within the Response to Intervention (RtI) framework (for grades K-5). (see RtI Guide for Teachers of ELLs.)

Paste response to question here:

6. How do you make sure that a child's second language development is considered in instructional decisions?
 Students are provided with native language books and native language tests. Example: Students are provided with math books in their predominant native language and are given the option of participating in a native language standardized exam. Within ELL instruction students are encouraged to scaffold their language skills by tapping into their prior first language knowledge, such as writing within the native language. This enables the students to bridge the gap of their English language acquisition process and empowers them to strengthen their newly learned language skills in a way that does not constitute their first language skills as detrimental or negatively affecting their English language acquisition process.
 All content area teachers align the curriculum to meet the ELL students' needs in collaboration with the ESL teacher and in sync with the ELL teachers' guides content that is included within all Ready Gen, Go Math, and Code X curriculum standards. Base like assessments are used including the formative assessments within the curriculum, acuity, IPA, school net DYO's and performance based periodic assessments.
7. For dual language programs, answer the following:
- How are the English-proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
 - What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
 - How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?
- Paste response to questions here:
8. Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs (e.g. meeting AYP for ELLs, etc.).
 Paste response to question here:

Part IV: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. (Refer to ELL Policy Brief and EPIC.)
 All parents/guardians are provided with the Home Language Identification Survey upon entering our school system. Once the student registering is identified as a potential ELL student by a trained pedagogue (language indicators have been checked accordingly: questions 1-4 one checkmark, questions 5-8 2 checkmarks) an interview is conducted.
 Trained pedagogues, such as the assistant principal Mr. Dominic Armano, the certified ESL teacher Ms. Despina Anastasi, the guidance counselor Ms. Cami Meyer, provide the parents/guardians with an oral interview and if needed translation services are provided by our multilingual pedagogues with a vast array of languages spoken that include Arabic, Chinese, Greek and Spanish. (Ms. Mliek-paraprofessional, Ms. Chen-paraprofessional, Ms. Anastasi-ESL teacher and Ms. Lopez-paraprofessional).
 After the school secretary Ms. Marie Locastro with the assistance of one of our trained pedagogues mentioned as above have completed all paperwork, within 10 school days the student is tested with the LAB-R, in accordance with the HLS indicator regulations, by Ms. Anastasi, the ESL teacher.
 If the child does not test out of the LAB-R which is hand scored by Ms. Anastasi, the child furthermore receives the Spanish LAB-R if the child is a Spanish speaker.
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.

The process that we follow in order for the parents to understand all three program choices are: Within our 10 day timeline, after the certified ESL teacher, Ms. Despina Anastasi has administered the LABR and the test has been hand scored and the students has been identified as in need of services, the parents/guardians are notified via the Parent Entitlement letter on school letterhead (sent home with the student) and phone calls to attend an orientation workshop about the identification process, placement and their final program choices. If the parents/guardians do not respond within the next day, a follow-up phone call is made by Ms. Anastasi and a translator if necessary in order to inform the parents/guardians of the necessity of their attending the meeting. On the day that the parents/guardians attend the orientation they are shown the video in their language as provided by the NYC Department of Education on line ELL video orientation series and are also provided with a translator as needed. If the language of the parent is not represented with our school pedagogues, the translation unit is notified so that a trained translator for the parent's specific language can be present during the meeting.

The three programs of transitional bilingual, dual language and freestanding ESL are explained to the parents, and the parents make their selection and sign the form during this time. If parents request more time they are allowed to review the form at their leisure and they further return the form within the next school day. If the selection form is not returned Ms. Anastasi calls the parents and reminds them of the importance of returning the form. Once the form is returned, the original is stapled on the back of the student's HLS form and kept in their cumulative folder. Copies are kept by Ms. Anastasi and stored in a secure ESL file cabinet. We have had 100% selection choices as Freestanding ESL up to now and none of our parents have chosen any transitional bilingual or dual language programs. If a parent does choose a TBE/DL program within the future we will make sure to keep the parent informed and the communication open when the program becomes available and also the locations where the program/s are currently available by contacting our ELL liaison, Ms. Janet Farrell who will advise us of the programs in accordance to the parent/guardians' choices.

3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned, and secured/stored. (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [\[see tool kit\]](#).)

The entitlement letters are distributed right after the student(s) have been tested and the LAB-R has been reviewed and hand scored by the ESL Teacher/Coordinator, Ms. Despina Anastasi, with records kept in order to determine the eligibility of a student's entitlement or non-entitlement. This is conducted within the first ten day after the student(s) enrollment in the school system. Once the student(s) are determined to be in need of services the entitlement letters are sent home inviting the parents to an orientation session. The meeting is held by the ELL Teacher/Coordinator, Ms. Despina Anastasi, the Parent Coordinator/Ms. Andrea Achilles and the school's administrators, Mr. John Buffa, the principal, and Mr. Dominic Armano the assistant principal. The on line informative video is presented in each parent's language of choice and enables the parent to understand their educational options and rights for their child. Parents are encouraged to ask questions and are provided with clear answers in regards to the choices that are available for them in making a sound educational decision that will help their child succeed in their language acquisition process. The parent selection forms are distributed by Ms. Anastasi in the native language of the parents. If needed, a translator is available to explain all selection choices. The forms are returned to the ELL Coordinator who stores them in a secure file cabinet. If not returned during the orientation meeting, Ms. Anastasi ensures that parents are contacted in order to reschedule a meeting that will ensure the return of all forms.

Continued entitlement letters are also given out by the ESL teacher/coordinator, Ms. Despina Anastasi who utilizes the RLAT and HISE on ATS in order to determine continued entitlement for all ESL students. The continued entitlement letters are distributed within the first 10 days of students's attendance and the collection is maintained with copies in the secure ESL file cabinet in room 204 that is maintained by Ms. Anastasi.

4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.

Placement letters are distributed by the ELL teacher/coordinator within the first ten days of the ELL identification process. Parents are notified by the initial placement letter that their child(ren) has/have been identified as an ELL learner. The parent is further invited to attend an orientation meeting that will culminate in the parent's choosing of a bilingual or an ESL instructional process approach. During this orientation meeting, the parents are given all the existing information of all programs designed to help their child's English Language Acquisition. It is at this orientation workshop that parents choose the program that they would like for their child. The placement letter records are maintained by Ms. Anastasi in the designated ESL file cabinet in room 204. Objective presentations of the Language Acquisition Models are demonstrated through the on line videos by the NYC Dept of Education and parents are encouraged to ask questions and provided with translators if needed. Once they have made their decisions they are provided with the mandated parent program survey that they can fill out and sign right away or review at their leisure and return to the ELL Coordinator/Ms. Despina Anastasi in a timely fashion so that their choice can be honored and the students placed timely and appropriately within the program that fits their needs. Once all final records have been collected originals are returned to the student's cumulative folder and copies are furthermore secured by Ms. Anastasi in room 204.

5. Describe the steps taken to administer all sections of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) to all ELLs each year.

The ELL teacher/Coordinator Ms. Despina Anastasi ensures that all ELL students present during the NYSESLAT administration are grouped accordingly within the given grade testing bands and are administered all NYSESLAT sections: The RLAT report from ATS is utilized as well as the HISE for new admits who are not right away included within the RLAT in order to double check that all information on student data is accurate and all students are tested in accordance to the NYSESLAT procedures. Students are grouped accordingly and each test section is administered in a timely and organized fashion: The four components of the NYSESLAT are administered in the advised order: 1st-Speaking, 2nd-Listening, 3rd-Reading, and 4th-Writing. Only one section of the test is administered during the school day for each corresponding testing grade band. Students that are absent are given a make up test during the make-up test dates.

6. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.) Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

The way that we monitor our parent choice trends is as follows: The ESL Coordinator, Ms. Despina Anastasi, collects and maintains secure copies of all parent choice selection forms and informs the principal, Mr. John Buffa, of the selection that the parent/s have made for their children. Our ESL program has been very popular withing our current year and previous school years, and about 98%-99% of our parents/guardians have chosen a free standing ESL program. The trend is monitored by Ms. Anastasi, and our principal, Mr. Buffa is informed when a parent chooses a program that we do not offer in our school. This year we have had no parents at all choosing a different program other than our offered ESL program.

We currently have 30 students with a vast array of languages represented. We do not have the numbers for a bilingual class, or a self-contained class therefore we engage our students in an academically rich ESL pushi in/pull out model that fosters a significant advantage: small group instruction that enables students and teachers to reinforce content based academic learning.

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered? (see The Practitioners' Work Group for Accelerating English Language Learner Student Achievement: Nine Common Features of Successful Programs for ELLs)

- a. What are the organizational models (e.g., departmentalized, push-in [co-teaching], pull-out, collaborative, self-contained)?
- b. What are the program models (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?

In our school, we value the quality education that our ELLs receive on a daily basis and we have high performance expectations that are aligned to grade level standards. Our students use critical thinking techniques that are modeled by our highly qualified classroom teachers, ITR teacher, content area teachers and the ELL teacher.

Our population numbers dictate our program delivery, since we are only funded for one ELL teacher, and the practice that we choose has to carefully service all ELLs towards their utmost high performance targets. Therefore, we utilize the push-in-pull out model. Our administration has carefully organized the program models in a way that equalizes the services provided for all students in small instructional groups that are heterogeneously grouped within their progress levels.

Our push-in model pertains to the service of our 7th graders during Math instruction. The ELL teacher pushes in the Math class twice a week and is able to deliver the Math content in supplement to the Math teacher's instruction, thus enabling the students to have a rich understanding of the content of the class. The ELL teacher provides students with vocabulary (Mathematical terms) enhancement and explanations. Also, she helps them with the steps to their logical thinking that leads to a thorough understanding of the Math concepts being taught.

Our pull-out model is utilized with mostly all the other grade spans, from grades K-8. Since we only have thirty ELL students our grouping models are heterogeneously mixed within the grade spans and homogeneously mixed within their proficiency levels.

We have our beginners and intermediates from K-4 in one group, our advanced 5-6 students in another group, and our advanced 7-8 students in yet a different group. Our intermediate and beginner students also get the second instructional period within a group setting that stresses quality language acquisition by keeping our numbers low in order for each student to receive the maximum attention they need in order to thrive during the instructional comprehension of the lessons. (Our smallest group has two students while our largest group has seven students).

2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?

- a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?

Our Beginner and Intermediate students receive 360 minutes of ESL instruction per week and our Advanced students 180 minutes of ELL instruction per week as well as 180 minutes of ELA instruction per week.

NLA support is given to our students through materials in their native language such as native language dictionaries and content area workbooks, native language translation websites, and native language expression through writing (native language projects, picture to description work, and translation practices within the lesson that the ELL teacher utilizes in order for the student(s) to bridge the language acquisition gap.

3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to foster language development and meet the demands of the Common Core Learning Standards.

In our school, we do not offer the models of Transitional Bilingual English or Dual Language. We only offer the free standing ESL model in which the content areas are delivered in collaboration and careful planning of all classroom teachers with Ms. Despina Anastasi the ESL teacher with emphasis given to Phonics instruction, Reading comprehension and decoding, Social Studies content, Science and Math content. The current materials that we are utilizing are the Ready Gen, Code X, Go Math, Social Studies and Science school based curriculum. The ELL teacher creates original assessment and study guides for all students in order to bridge the learning gaps due to the new language acquisition process. The Ready Gen word content is blended in within all instructional lessons and the ELL teacher incorporates the Common Core Standards vocabulary and critical thinking strategies techniques within all lessons.

Since a lot of students are auditory and/or visual learners, song instruction is incorporated within many ESL lessons.

Realia are used during vocabulary noun enrichment, visual images through technology and interactive internet programs on the smartboard enable students to be active participants within all ESL lessons.

The ELL teacher aligns all ESL lessons with the Common Core Learning Standards. The pacing calendar is utilized within all lesson planning and a strong communication practice is essentialized with all classroom teachers in order to facilitate congruent teaching goals that enable the students to achieve their learning goals.

The ELL teacher also incorporates Native language(s) usage during the deliverance of an ESL lesson.

Newcomers and Intermediate students, are brought back on track by the re-stating of the lesson content in the student's native language. Sheltered English is utilized and Ms. Anastasi provides the students with individualized instruction including and not limited to flash card reinforcement techniques for scaffolding skills such as letter recognition, consonant and vowel recognition, decoding skills reinforced and so on.

Content area support is provided within the Ready Gen and Code X lesson intervals, as well as the Go Math, and Social Studies and Science curriculum. Ms. Anastasi groups the students accordingly to their instruction needs and provides the support needed within each area of instruction within the pull-out model by utilizing copies of each grade's teaching guides, chart stands and smartboard teacher typed lessons which include comprehension question techniques as well as interactive supplementary support instruction with tools as brainpop.com or starfall.com. Also, original literature is richly provided, illustrated and explained to the students within the blending of the curriculum requirements that are included within the teaching guides such as sequencing of folktales and character analysis of fairytales that culminate in English language acquisition enhancement that includes the four modalities of speaking, listening reading and writing.

4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages throughout the year?

Students are given the opportunity to take the standardized math exam, science exam and social studies exam in their native language. A translator is present if the student needs additional help during the exam time.

5. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in all four modalities of English acquisition throughout the year?

The diagnostic assessments used for our ELL students include the formative assessments of the as required LAB-R and yearly NYSESLAT. The ELL periodic assessments as per formal frequency, the yearly standardized ELA, Math, Social Studies and Science exams. The Acuity, IPA schoolnet, DYOs and Performance Based Periodic Assessments are administered as per formal frequency rate and informal assessments are created by the ESL teacher, Ms. Anastasi, and administered on a bi-weekly frequency rate.

6. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?

- a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
- b. Describe your plan for ELLs who have been in US schools less than three years (newcomers)..
- c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
- d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6+ years).
- e. Describe your plan for former ELLs (in years 1 and 2 after testing proficient).

Our instructional plan for SIFE students includes utilizing hands-on activities, such as project making, letter to sound recognition with alphabet cards, vocabulary cards with pictures and meanings printed front to back, students working in pairs, utilization of technology with appropriate programs, individualized instruction with the ESL teacher and classroom teacher, as well as beginner level reading and writing activities. The ESL minute instruction for our SIFE students is 360 minutes.

Our newcomers also receive the 360 minute instruction requirement within the ESL model. We utilize Ready-Gen, Go-Math, our phonics program as well incorporate these instructional experiences with interactive websites and Smart Board lesson instruction while students utilize their notebooks during an activity to enhance their writing skills.

Our students that are here for 4-6 years receive the 180 or 360 minute mandate per week in agreement with their Nyseslat level. The Ready-Gen, Go Math and Phonics programs are also followed in collaboration with the classroom teachers planning and in alignment with all RL Common Core Standards

Our long term ELLs also participate in our ESL program accordingly within their minute mandates and are provided with extra support on test taking techniques, adequate explanation of the Code X literature program that includes step by step guidance through many required writing processes and vocabulary enrichment through the use of websites and technology.

Also, the Social Studies and Science content area lessons are incorporated within the ESL instruction.

Our former ELLs are also given the extra support within the classroom setting and are provided with reading and writing workshops as well as content area support within all subject areas as well as vocabulary enrichment through the classroom instruction and the utilization of technology. The test accommodations for our former ELLs are adhered and followed through in advise from our ELL coordinator Ms. Despina Anastasi and our testing coordinator Ms. Carol Drucker.

7. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?

Our related service providers are: Ms. Carla Bentley and Ms. Daniella Cleghorn- IEP providers, Ms. Mariam Poulad - Speech Provider that utilize the push in model when they service our ELL-SWDs students. Within a small group setting, our students are immersed within the Ready-Gen, Code-X lessons with experience chart utilization methods and differentiated instruction that includes chunks of reading lessons and hands-on techniques. The materials used are grade and age appropriate since they are the same ones that are already being used in the classroom of the students. Mr. Dominic Armano, our assistant principal ensures that all ELL-SWDs receive all mandated IEP services, including the ESL instruction provided by the ESL teacher, Ms. Anastasi. The technology used to support our ELL-SWDs students is: approved curriculum websites such as Ready Gen, and Go Math that ensure content area, grade appropriate instruction for all our students in conjunction with the grade appropriate classroom materials that are reinforced within the related service providers' instructional time within collaboration with all classroom teachers.

8. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to enable diverse ELL-SWDs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

All ELL-SWDs are exposed and included to all curriculum areas within a non-restrictive, flexible environment. Participating in all classroom instruction with the extra support of the special Ed teachers within the classroom experience, they are able to reach their academic potential in a setting that challenges their language acquisition to reach its maximum potential without any exclusions or setbacks since they participate in every single aspect of the curricula with the extra support they are entitled to with exceptional results that instill pride and recognition of their accomplishments.

The flexible programming is in place within every classroom setting and students are paired with non-disabled peers at all times of instruction giving both student categoris, disabled and non-disabled, the opportunity to learn from each other and augment their academic and social growth as well.

Native Language Usage and Supports

The chart below is a visual representation designed to show the variation of native language usage and supports across the program models. Please note that native language support is never zero.

TBE and dual language programs have both native language arts and subject areas taught in the native language; ESL has native language supports.

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

9. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.

Our ELLs receive a vast amount of intervention program within ELA, Math, Social Studies and within all content area instruction: The licensed early childhood reading/spec. ed. teacher and the upper grade reading/special ed licensed teacher provide our ELLs with small group differentiated support instruction by incorporating the ELA and Math curriculum within their teaching strategies that include decoding skills as well as fluency and comprehension skills practice, listening comprehension, computer lab projects with one-to-one support from the teachers, and interactive smart board lessons. All ELL subgroups are targeted in a non-restrictive environment since we do not have self-contained classrooms and students are mainstreamed within all subject areas. Specifically, within our instruction of the 5th and 6th bridge class, the ESL teacher, Ms. Anastasi, targets both grades within the Social Studies content areas. In collaboration with Ms. Maria Tsiros, the classroom teacher, the ESL teacher reviews the Social Studies curriculum and guides the students to comprehend the content by utilizing ESL methodology. Students are also provided with teacher created study and test materials that are modeled and guided study guides. Classroom tests within content are also administered and assessed. Within the science curriculum content, Ms. Anastasi, pushes in the science classroom, and utilizes the driven data that guide instruction in a push-in model with specific grouping of the ELL students in collaboration with the science teacher, Mr. Trevor Licausi. Data is utilized in all content area instruction, including Math, where the push-in model is also utilized in collaboration with the Math teacher, Mr. Henry Lee.

10. Describe the effectiveness of your current program and how it is meeting the needs of your ELLs in both content and language development.

P.S./M.S 84 Q has a small population of only 30 ELL students. This is a plus towards the delivering of ESL services and success we have accomplished in every previous school year and the ones we anticipate in the upcoming years.

We pride ourselves in delivering instruction in very small group settings, ranging from as small as two students and not exceeding fifteen students per instructional group. This is a wonderful experience for the students to grow in a nurturing, tutor-like environment that enables them to reach their utmost potential and prepare for college. The ELL teacher meticulously maintains alignment of all Core Curriculum Standards including and not being limited to Ready-Gem, Code X, Go Math and extra curricula support from self created materials that contain additional rich language enrichment through projects and activities. All of our classroom teachers have received and are constantly replenishing their ESL professional development hours, as they are fully aware that they are also teachers of ELLs and deliver the lessons in such ways as to incorporate ESL methodology as well. Data is reviewed on a weekly basis by the classroom teachers/inquiry team members in order to sustain the academic plan course that ensures successful content area and language acquisition.

11. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?

We plan to replenish our technology programs for extra support for our SIFE students, early admit students as well as our newcomers and 4-6 years students. We will utilize the Rosetta Stone program, and add many more interesting, department approved websites during computer lab instruction as well as within the ELL differentiated instruction setting.

We also will purchase additional test practice Nyseslat materials and instill a data clearinghouse in our building in order for all teachers to be able to align their instruction and keep up with the educational progresses of our students through a data center that will drive instruction.

12. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?

We do not plan to discontinue any of our programs/services since we have had a great amount of success in all of our previous school years and our students have thrived continuously.

13. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.

All of our ELLs are included and invited to participate in all of our school programs:

We offer test prep classes in ELA and Math for grades 3-8, our Title III ELL afterschool programs, the CHAMPS afterschool program, the CASAS-Queens Museum program, the BOKS physical education program as well as the extended day differentiated instruction.

We ensure that our ELLs are always offered all of the services our school provides by sending home the invitation letters in English as well as the students/parents native languages. Parents are also individually informed about the programs we offer by our Ms.

Andrea Achilles, our parent coordinator.

14. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?

We utilize our Ready-Gen, Code X and Go Math programs, our Social Studies nonfiction and fiction Core Curriculum, our Nyseslat and Beyond curriculum program, our rich classroom library fiction and non-fiction books, our LeapFrog Technology for our early grades, the Rosetta-Stone program and various websites such as starfall.com and other ELL aligned websites as well as technology programs including dictionary.com and smart board interactive lessons.

15. How is native language support delivered in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)?

Within our ESL program and classroom settings we provide students with native language workbooks in content areas such as Math, Social Studies and Science. During test taking students are allowed to take their standardized exams in their predominant language with a pedagogue present to aid them with translation at that time. Also, we provide our students with translation dictionaries and websites they can use as a resource guide during instruction as well as encouraging students to express themselves in their native language.

16. Explain how the required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels.

We carefully place our students in groups of grade bands that are age appropriate and level based and support instruction within the ESL push/in-pull out model as well as within the classroom setting.

17. Describe activities in your school that assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year. Please include activities for new ELLs who enroll throughout the school year.

We keep our newly enrolled Students engaged in various activities and we support our parents in many ways: We have parnterships with many community based organizations such as: Urban Advantage that supports learning for students and their families in Science and Social Studies by enabling them to particiapate in experiential learning. In this way, families can attend museums, aquariums and many more cultural institutions. Throughout the year, we provide on-going workshops that are presented by our assistant principal, our parent coordinator , the NY Horticultural society and the NY Cares Restoration Project. Our classroom activities include pair-work with advanced students that guide our newcomers through their English language learning process, Leap-pads provided by the classroom teachers within the classroom setting, English language acquisition technology programs such as the Rosetta Stone program, flashcards, bookmaking processes that enhance the scaffolding of the English language acquisition and one-to-one teacher- student language instruction within the content areas.

18. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

Our ELLs are offered the elective of Spanish.

19. For schools with dual language programs:

- a. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
- b. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
- c. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
- d. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
- e. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

We do not offer any dual language programs due to our number limitations.

C. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What professional development is offered to teachers of ELLs (including ESL and bilingual teachers) in supporting ELLs as they engage in the Common Core Learning Standards?

Our school leadership and our guidance counselor provide our teachers and our parent coordinator with needed support for our ELLs in the areas of transition from middle school to high school, disciplinary occurrences and emotional support for the challenges of transitioning to their new cultural environment. Our guidance counselor, Ms. Cami Meyer, participates in many professional development workshops that are geared towards helping our students reach their potential.

Ms. Meyer also provides our students with small group support instruction and guidance throughout their academic year with students becoming engaged in socializing activities and interacting in a welcoming and accepting environment that includes our SWDs ELLs.

D. Parental Involvement

1. Describe ELL parent involvement in your school. Include specific activities that foster parental involvement for parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

Parental Involvement is one of our targeted aims throughout this year and every school year. We strive to keep our parents well informed and we provide them with ample support in many areas such as assistance with accessing the ARIS Parent Link Portal to monitor their childrens' progress provided by our Parent Coordinator who also explains school policies and the educational programs offered. Our trained pedagogues and our ESL Coordinator meet with parents at the time of registration and conduct an interview that facilitates the identification process of the ELL student. Also, in collaboration with the ESL Coordinator, the Parent Coordinator facilitates Parental Workshops of interest to all parents based on a needs and interest survey as well as conversations with parents. Computer workshops, English as a Second Language for adults, Reading, Writing and Math are included.

All ELL parents are invited to participate in PTA meetings and functions. Translation services are provided when needed and available.

Parents are asked at PTA meetings and given questionnaires in regards to future workshops that interest them.

Community Based Organizations such as Urban Advantage and CASAS interest parents with ongoing hands-on trips and workshops in partnerships with museums and many more New York affiliates such as the NY Horticultural society and the NY Cares Restoration Project. Many hands on activities and workshops are provided by our parent coordinator, Ms. Achilles and range from how to help your child with standardized exams topics as well as arts and crafts activities that enable parents to spend quality time with their children. At all meetings, our PTA president, Ms. Jennifer Casas, translates in Spanish for our Spanish speaking parents,

Ms. Mliek our Arabic speaking paraprofessional is also present upon request for Arabic translation and our translation unit is notified and sends our specific needs language translators. LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2013-2014 TO 2014-2015

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 30Q084 School Name: PS 84Q Steinway

Cluster: _____ Network: 2.02

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

In our PS84Q school community we collect and analyze our data from our Home Language Identification Surveys, that the parents/guardians submit with the help of our ESL Coordinator, trained pedagogues, and our Parent Coordinator. During the interview process, translation services are provided for the parents/guardians and the information is accurately recorded. Throughout the school year, we are pro-active in inquiring with the translation services during our scheduled parent orientation meetings and all letters are sent home in the various available languages. Data from ATS as well as data from the Emergency Contact Cards guide us as to the parents' preferred language choices.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

Our highest frequency languages are in the order as follows: Spanish, Arabic, Bengali, Urdu, Greek and Tibetan. These findings are supported through our ATS data and is also reported by our parents during our monthly PTA and SLT meetings.

We also consider feedback from parents in regards to our interpretation needs and we have a "Parent Compact" a written agreement which is also translated in Spanish. This compact indicates responsibilities in improving and maintaining partnerships, providing parents with their rights on being informed and appropriately aided through the departmentalized translation and interpretation unit.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Our school will provide all letters sent home in the parents' preferred languages as indicated by parent surveys initially sent out by our school in the very beginning of the year. Also, many of our staff members are able to translate documents and also perform other necessary translation procedures. Our staff members have identified the language requirements as per their classroom needs and are prepared in advance to disseminate all translated notices in a timely fashion. The STARS Program also offers report cards in languages other than English.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

During our Parent Teacher Conference Meetings, our PTA meetings and other important meeting such as the School Leadership Team meetings we request the presence of oral translators from the DOE's translation unit. Also, translation services are provided by our in-house school staff. In addition, a survey is given out to the classrooms prior to our school meetings and the parents' requests are studied and followed through. The translation Kit is also available for translation services during all meetings.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link: <http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

In order to fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services we primarily rely on the services of the Department of Education's Translation Unit. When the need is immediate, we recruit the language expertise of several of our staff members who are able to orally translate and/or provide written translations for our parents. We also prominently display the DOE poster in multiple languages at the entrance of our school and in the main office which indicates the parents' rights regarding translation and interpretation services in the appropriate covered languages and instructional language services. The Parent Handbook is available at all times for all parents by the Parent Coordinator. Title I parent involvement meetings are held by the Guidance Counselor in conjunction with the Parent Coordinator and copies of the Parents' Bill of Rights and safety plan procedures are available during the meetings as well as found on the Parent welcoming bulletin board upon entering our school. Feedback from our parents is always welcomed and we plan accordingly for our future parent meeting in order to facilitate all language needs.

Parental Involvement is one of our School Wide Goals for 2012-2013. Parents are assisted in accessing the ARIS Parent Link Portal to monitor their children's progress. In addition, the Parent Coordinator reaches out to parents to explain school policy, educational programs, and expectations, and provide parents with support. The Parent Coordinator facilitates Parental Workshops of interest to all parents, based on a needs and interest survey, as well as conversations with parents. This year workshops include, but are not limited to, Reading, Writing, and Math. Classes are provided for parents such as computer classes, and English as a Second Language for Adults.

Parents are invited to participate in PTA meetings and functions. Translation services are provided when needed and available. Our PTA President speaks fluent Spanish and provides translation when needed.

In addition, we have partnerships with the following Community Based Organizations. Urban Advantage supports learning of the students and their families in Science and Social Studies with a strong emphasis on experiential learning. Families attend museums, aquariums and cultural institutes. CASA: the Queens Museum provides an art program for our students and involves the parents to participate at the end of the program so students can share or present their work. NY Horticultural supports learning of parents and students in becoming environment friendly. Parents received workshops explaining hands-on Science exploration in our school garden which can translate to their own house gardens. On-going parental involvement involves workshops with NY Cares Restoration Project on perserving our garden and school environment, while creating a sense of community and ownership. The BEACON Program provides tutoring and homework assistance to our students and workshops for parents.

The ELL Coordinator is planning a culminating celebration of the students' year-long accomplishments where parents are invited to appreciate their child's growth demonstrated through projects and classwork.
