- Cite the strategies and activities within each goal and action plan requires your school to in your Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) that will be implemented to achieve the goal identified. The PIP template is provided on pages 12 and 13. Your school is encouraged to use the template as it is provided, or align it in accordance with your school's goals, or replace it entirely with a Parent Involvement Policy created by your school that meets federal requirements. Schools are encouraged to include feedback from the Parent Coordinator when updating the policy. In addition, if your school community will be engaged this year in central parent involvement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in your policy.

Parent Involvement Policy (PIP) Template

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental involvement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent involvement program that will ensure effective involvement of parents and community in our school. Therefore, our school, in compliance with the Section 1118 of Title I, Part A of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, is responsible for creating and implementing a parent involvement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between our school and the families. Our school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association, and Title I Parent Committee as trained volunteers and welcomed members of our school community. Our school will support parents and families of Title I students by:

- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional development opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of our school community;

Our school's Parent Involvement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of English Language Learners and students with disabilities. Our school community will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent involvement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of our school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents, and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent Involvement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent Involvement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, our school will:

- actively involve and engage parents in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the Comprehensive Educational Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent Involvement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to schools to promote parent involvement, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent involvement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in our Parent Involvement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Committee. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional development, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend our school and will work to ensure that our school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;

4c. “Conceptual” Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes<sup>1</sup>. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds enables, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (SCEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated<sup>2</sup>. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school’s Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.

Program Name	Fund Source (i.e. Federal, State or Local)	Funding Amount: Indicate the amount contributed to Schoolwide pool. (Refer to Galaxy for FY '15 school allocation amounts.) Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for the 2014-15 and 2015-16 SY

Directions: Title III supplemental services for ELLs must include all of the following three components:

- Direct instruction: activities must be used to support language development, English and native language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or other core academic areas.
  - The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need
  - These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ESL services required under CR Part 154.
  - Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs.
  - Teachers providing the services must be certified bilingual education and/or ESL teachers.
- High quality professional development that is “of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers’ performance in classrooms.”
  - Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs.
  - These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

NOTE: The Title III program planning ratio is as follows: 60% direct to instruction, 10% to parental involvement, 10% to professional development, and 20% to OTPS.

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your Senior ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Submit this form to your Senior ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist by October 31, 2014.

- schedule and duration

1. The Common Core Standards place a great emphasis on nonfiction reading and writing skills. The goal of our ESL after school program is to increase our ELLs' comprehension of nonfiction texts and increase their ability to organize, develop responses to nonfiction texts and essays, and learn domain-specific vocabulary. Title III funds will be used to fund the program that will offer ELLs and former ELLs extra support in meeting the Common Core Standards by acquiring language acquisition skills and ESL best practices through content area subjects like Social Studies, Science, and Math. We will be focusing on the error analysis report from the previous state exams to guide our instruction. Additionally, students will be working towards mastering their ESL goals according to their self-assessment checklists.

2. A total of 78 ELLs and former ELLs will be serviced in the ESL afterschool program. The subgroups include 70 ELLs and 8 Former ELLs. Within the subgroups, there are a total of 18 Special Education students and 4 Newcomers (who have been in the country for less than 3 years).

3. Our afterschool program began on November 5, 2014 and will run through April 22, 2015 on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2:20 pm to 4:00 pm. There will be a total of 40 sessions for this program. The ESL teacher will push-in to lead and work with each of the 3 classrooms; (Classroom 1 consists of Newcomers, Beginners, and Low Intermediate students. Classroom 2 consists of a mixed group of Intermediates, Advanced, and a few Proficient students. Classroom 3 consists of all Advanced students. The ESL teacher will rotate between classrooms).

On Wednesdays, she will go to Classroom 1 for 50 minutes and then to Classroom 2 for 50 minutes. On Thursdays, she will go to Classroom 3 for 45 minutes and then go to Classroom 1 for 55 minutes.

The ESL teacher will work with the content area teachers as they help students develop language acquisition and language skills through the content areas of ELA, Social Studies, Science, and Math.

4. The language of instruction is in English. However, the ESL/bilingual teacher does support some of the Spanish speaking students with translation and instruction.

5. There are 4 certified teachers: 1 certified ESL/bilingual teacher, 1 certified special education teachers, and 2 certified common branch teachers that instruct our afterschool program. The ESL teacher will push-in to lead instruction by helping ELLs understand the vocabulary necessary for comprehension, providing ELLs with ways of organizing their writing, and helping them monitor their use of strategies that they can use to navigate challenging texts in English.

6. Title III funds will be used to purchase materials for the ESL after school program. The materials used for the after school program include Language Power: Building Language Proficiency, Imagine Learning, Raz-kids, picture dictionaries, and supplies to create translated notices to parents. Language Power program empowers language learners to build English-language proficiency in a highly differentiated and rich instructional matter within the four language domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Imagine Learning and Raz-Kids are computer programs used to differentiate and enhance student learning in different modalities. Furthermore, we will be using translated notices to communicate with the parents involved in this program.

Part B: Direct Instruction Supplemental Program Information

Part C: Professional Development

Describe the school's professional development program for Title III Program teachers as well as other staff responsible for delivery of instruction and services to ELLs.

- rationale
- teachers to receive training
- schedule and duration
- topics to be covered
- name of provider

Begin description here:

The 51st Avenue Academy Professional Development Program will focus on providing Title III teachers and staff with scaffolding and differentiated instruction strategies for teaching ELLs. It will also focus on how to prepare ELLs to meet the Common Core Standards. Topics that will be addressed during these professional development sessions are as follows:

ESL teachers meet in Teacher Teams for each grade to analyze and discuss student work and progress as well as best practices once a week.

Mrs. Giannone, the math coach, presents mathematical instructional strategies for ELLs to develop and enhance their understanding of the math curriculum during grade conferences on a monthly basis.

Furthermore, content area teachers, who teach ELLs, will attend workshops offered by Pierre Galvez from our school's network at no cost to Title III. The workshop is called Standards Based Instruction for ELLs, which will be presented in a three-part series and will unpack priority CCLS standards and its implications for teaching ELLs.

ESL teachers will attend a one-day professional development through Imagine Learning at no cost to Title III. They will learn to analyze student data and track their progress through an online intervention program.

ESL teachers, content area teachers, special education teachers, and coaches will receive professional development in The Orto-Gillingham Approach. Teachers will be provided with in-house professional development by using the Multi-Sensory Language Approach in order to build fluency and to recognize grade appropriate academic vocabulary for struggling readers and ELLs. There will be 5 workshops (30 hours) and the total cost will be $3,025 using Title III funds.

Furthermore, ESL teachers will also attend a free workshop on February 6, 2015, offered by The Department of English Language Learners and Student Support (DELLSS). The Standards for Mathematical Practice recognize that discourse and academic language is an essential component for learning Mathematics: a tool for thinking and reasoning mathematically. Although teachers are familiar with identifying math content objectives and articulating the academic language skills, ELLs need to have access to the curriculum proven to be more difficult. This one-day workshop for school teams seeks to provide guidelines in developing mathematics language objectives to assist English Language Learners in achieving academic language fluency.

Part D: Parental Engagement Activities

Describe the parent engagement activities targeted toward parents of ELLs that will impact higher achievement for ELLs. NOTE: These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process.

- rationale
- schedule and duration
- topics to be covered
- name of provider
- how parents will be notified of these activities

Begin description here: At the 51st Avenue Academy, we offer many opportunities for parents to become involved in their child’s education. The Assistant Principal, Mrs. Ruggiero, with the parent coordinator will offer workshops on a monthly basis during school hours. Such topics include the use of technology, preparing ELLs for the NYS exams, and understanding the periodic assessments. In addition, parents are always invited to attend class trips.

Once a month, on Tuesdays from 2:20 to 3:40, parent workshops will be held by the parent coordinator, ESL teachers, guidance counselor, and classroom teachers. Topics include understanding how to navigate the school website, Myon, various DOE websites and resources. Parents will be informed on how to prepare their children for the New York State exams, including the NYSESLAT. The program will also provide tips for ELL parents on how to support their child's literacy development, and social emotional development. This will promote parental support in their child's education and allow parents to have further discussions about their child's needs. Refreshments for the parents will be paid using Title III funds. However, translators for Spanish, Chinese, and Bengali, are available at no cost to Title III.

In addition, our school hosts Family Fridays once a month, which invites parents to attend the school and participate in the lesson. Parents are notified of these activities and opportunities via translated letters/flyers sent home.

Furthermore, our school website provides information (that can be translated in the parents' home language) about their child's unit of studies, homework, assignments, and school activities (at no cost to Title III). The ESL department provides ESL resources on the school website to supplement instruction at home and at school. For example, there are links to specific websites for beginner, vocabulary instruction, bilingual glossaries for the state tests, and interactive educational websites. Also, automated phone messages are sent by the parent coordinator using the system Global Connect (no cost to Title III). This service informs and reminds parents of the upcoming events in their home language.

After reviewing and analyzing the assessment data, answer the following:

- Describe what assessment tool your school uses to assess the early literacy skills of your ELLs (e.g., ECLAS-2, EL SOL, Fountas and Pinnell, DRA, TCRWP). What insights do the data provide about your ELLs? How will this data help inform your school's instructional plan? Please provide any quantitative data available to support your response.
DRA2s and TCRWP are the assessment tools used to assess the early literacy skills of ELLs. The data shows that beginning ELLs can't always verbally retell a story but can respond to yes/no questions and point to pictures in order to answer a question. Therefore, beginning ELLs are placed in a newcomer program where students learn basic social and academic language to support language development. The data also shows specific needs for the more proficient ELLs. All ELLs are further supported by the push-in model. The ESL teacher collaborates with the classroom teacher for reading and writing instruction. For reading, the ESL teacher guides and scaffolds the content as well as builds academic Tier2 and Tier3 vocabulary. Additionally, reading strategies are implemented through the Fountas and Pinnell Guided Reading program. For writing, the ESL teacher provides support to organize their thoughts using graphic organizers and teaches element specifics for each genre. Writing conventions are explicitly taught and reinforced.

2. What is revealed by the data patterns across proficiency levels (on the LAB-R and NYSESLAT) and grades?

After review of data, the following patterns across proficiency levels and grades have been observed: Many of our new admits are unable to respond on the LAB-R. For those students that are able to respond, we find the reading and writing scores on the NYSESLAT and LAB-R exams are lower than the listening and speaking scores. We find that our students perform better in listening and speaking sections because they are in the process of attaining speaking skills and acquiring everyday language. Reading and writing skills are acquired after the ELL child has reached the speech emergent stage.

3. How will patterns across NYSESLAT modalities—reading/writing and listening/speaking—affect instructional decisions? How does your school use information about Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives? What does the data reveal? (see SED memo and AMAO tool)

Overall NYSESLAT proficiency results indicate that many of our students tend to be more proficient or closer to proficiency in reading and listening, and are less proficient in writing and speaking. Therefore, we are making changes to our programs to place more emphasis on writing and speaking. More emphasis will be placed on the use of graphic organizers and rubrics and self-assessment sheets to help students organize their thoughts for both writing and speaking activities, and to then assess themselves.

4. For each program, answer the following:

- What are the patterns across proficiencies and grades? How are ELLs faring in tests taken in English as compared to the native language?
- Describe how the school leadership and teachers are using the results of the ELL Periodic Assessments.
- What is the school learning about ELLs from the Periodic Assessments? How is the native language used?

For all of our ELLs, translated versions of state tests are available. ELL students tend to do better when they have the support of a test translated in their native language if they read fluently in their native language and understand its content-specific vocabulary. Otherwise, the translated test is of no real value to them.

We use periodic assessment data to prepare all our ELL students for the NYSESLAT, which is administered in the Spring only. We use the New York State exams, NYSESLAT, and periodic assessments, along with informal assessments and student portfolios to assess individual student progress. The ESL teachers meet frequently to discuss how programs are working and to monitor student progress. They evaluate what is working and what is not working, based on students' progress, and plan accordingly with classroom teachers on a daily to weekly basis.

From periodic assessments, we are able to see patterns in students' performance, thus allowing us to utilize it towards planning of instruction.

5. Describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within the Response to Intervention (RTI) framework (for grades K-5). (see RTI Guide for Teachers of ELLs.)

Both formal and informal assessments, which include but are not limited to, Ed Performance, DRA2s, NYSESLAT, and TCRWP, allow the RTI team to determine the appropriate tier of intervention for ELLs. Students under the Tier I Intervention are those who perform with average or slightly below average success in the core instruction. During the classroom teacher's lesson, the ESL teacher scaffolds the language by rephrasing and providing prompts and visuals. Guided reading instruction is also provided to build comprehension and fluency. For writing, resources such as word banks, sentence starters and thesauruses are utilized to aid in academic language development. Small-group writing instruction also targets individual needs, based on rubrics. Students are monitored regularly and grouped according to a specific skill or strategy that needs to be targeted during small-group instruction. Students under the Tier II Intervention are those who need considerable help to succeed in the core instruction. Their reading levels fall from one to three or more years below grade level. Progress is monitored more closely, at least bi-weekly, with research-based interventions. Our extended day, after-school and Saturday programs provide them the extra time needed for making adequate yearly progress. The RTI team meets every Wednesday to discuss academic and social concerns, interventions done in the classroom, feedback from parents and results of progress. Interventions may include Wilson, behavior charts, one-to-one support and push-in/pull-out instruction. Computer programs such as Raz-kids and Brainpop are also used for students in Tier I and Tier II, granting them reading sources. These programs not only provide feedback for teachers, but the ability for students to self-assess and the opportunity to access it in their own homes. Tier III students' reading levels are more than three years below grade level and exhibit serious problems in decoding and/or comprehension. Many of them are eligible for special education services. Reading and writing strategies are also applied to both Tier II and Tier III students.

6. How do you make sure that a child's second language development is considered in instructional decisions?

ESL and classroom teachers, as well as administrators, use students' information from formal assessments, data from daily class observations and professional opinions based on rapports in order to ensure that a child's second language development is within instructional decisions. ESL teachers have common planning time with classroom teachers to help classroom teachers adapt their lessons to meet the language needs of ELLs while teaching in the content areas.

7. For dual language programs, answer the following:
  - a. How are the English-proficient students (EPs) assessed in the second (target) language?
  - b. What is the level of language proficiency in the second (target) language for EPs?
  - c. How are EPs performing on State and City Assessments?

N/A

8. Describe how you evaluate the success of your programs for ELLs (e.g. meeting AYP for ELLs, etc.).

The ESL teachers meet monthly to discuss how programs are working and to monitor student progress. They evaluate what is working and what is not working, based on students' progress, and plan accordingly with classroom teachers on a daily to weekly basis. During our weekly inquiry period, ESL teachers work with classroom teachers to analyze student assessments and classwork. Teachers analyze the results of benchmark assessments, end-of-module assessments from the ReadyGen program, math unit assessments. ESL teachers then work with the classroom teachers to plan lessons based on the needs of individual students..

Part IV: ELL Identification Process

Describe how you identify English Language Learners (ELLs) in your school. Answer the following:

1. Describe the steps followed for the initial identification of ELLs. These steps must include administering the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) which includes the informal oral interview in English and in the native language, and the formal initial assessment. Identify the person(s) responsible, including their qualifications, for conducting the initial screening, administering the HLIS, the LAB-R (if necessary), and the formal initial assessment. (Refer to ELL Policy Brief and EPIC.)

Upon registration, the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) is administered to the parents/guardians of students who are first time admits to the New York City school system. An informal interview in English and in the native language is done by a certified ESL teacher and translator. We have Spanish, Chinese, and Korean translators readily available in our school who have been trained in the ELL identification process. For lower incidence languages, we use the translation unit when necessary. Using the information provided on the HLIS and the answers given to the questions asked during the informal interview, the ESL teacher who administered the HLIS and the informal interview determines whether or not to administer the Language Assessment Battery-Revised (LAB-R) to the child. If the ESL teacher determines that the child is eligible for testing, the ESL teacher invites the parents to watch the Parent Orientation Video at that time. After watching the video, the ESL teacher answers any questions the parents have regarding the program choices offered in New York City. Parents then choose the program they'd like their child to be in if they are eligible for services according to the LAB-R. The LAB-R is administered to the child within the first ten days of enrollment and proper placement is determined based on the results of the test. The Spanish LAB is also administered to Spanish-speaking new admits within the same 10 day window.
2. What structures are in place at your school to ensure that parents understand all three program choices (Transitional Bilingual, Dual Language, Freestanding ESL)? Please describe the process, outreach plan, and timelines.

We have the following structures in place to ensure parents understand the three program choices offered in New York City public schools:

  1. Entitlement letter is given to the parents in the language they read and understand, which briefly explains the three program choices.
  2. Parents watch the Parent Orientation Video in the language they understand.
  3. Parents have the opportunity to ask questions about each program after watching the video. A translator or the translation unit is utilized to translate questions and answers. The translators available in our school have been trained in understanding the three program choices offered to parents.
  4. This is all completed within the first ten days of enrollment.
3. Describe how your school ensures that entitlement letters are distributed and Parent Survey and Program Selection forms are returned, and secured/stored. (If a form is not returned, the default program for ELLs is Transitional Bilingual Education as per CR Part 154 [\[see tool kit\]](#).)

Entitlement letters are distributed the same day the child was administered the LAB-R if the results indicate the child is entitled to receive ESL services. The entitlement letter is sent home with the student in an envelope addressed to their parents. A copy of the letter is placed in the student's cum. The ESL Coordinator also keeps a copy on file. If the child is not entitled to receive services, a non-entitlement is sent home to the parents. The Parent Survey and Program Selection form is given to the parents following their viewing of the parent orientation video which is shown at registration. The parents fill out these forms after watching the video and the ESL teacher keeps them on file. A copy is also placed in the student's cum. If parents request time to make their decision, the ESL teacher follows up with the parents if the form is not brought back by the return date stated on the form. Additional letters are sent and translated phone calls are made, if necessary, to ensure that the forms are returned in a timely manner. Once returned, the original form is placed in the child's cum folder and a copy is kept in the ESL Coordinator's binder.

Each September, Continued Entitlement letters are sent home with each student who is eligible to continue receiving ESL services. The letter is sent home in English and the parents' preferred language. A copy is also placed in student's cum. Each classroom teacher is given a roster to check off when a student returns the letter. The ESL Coordinator collects all the letters and keeps them on file. A second copy is sent home if the letter was not returned in a timely manner. If the second letter is not returned, the parents are contacted by phone, using the translation unit.

4. Describe the criteria used and the procedures followed to place identified ELL students in bilingual or ESL instructional programs; description must also include any consultation/communication activities with parents in their native language.

We use the results of the LAB-R, and then the Parent- Survey and Program Selection form to place students in the appropriate class. We have one ESL class with newcomer beginner ELLs on each grade level. If a student scores at a beginning or intermediate level on the LAB-R, they are placed in this class. The fourth grade class is taught full-time by a certified ESL teacher. The fifth grade class is serviced for the mandated minutes by a certified ESL push-in teacher. In addition, students that score at an advanced level on the LAB-R are placed in a 4th or 5th grade class that has other advanced ESL students. These classes are serviced for the mandated minutes by a certified ESL push-in teacher. The Entitlement letter indicates to parents what class their child is in. Although the LAB-R is used to make the final determination in class placement, the informal interview allows the ESL teacher to get a good sense of what class the child should be put in. Most of our new admits are placed in the appropriate class setting from day one. If parents select TBE or DL, the ESL Coordinator contacts ELLProgramTransfers@schools.nyc.gov to find placement for the student. We currently offer an ESL program only, based on parent choice.

5. Describe the steps taken to administer all sections of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) to all ELLs each year.

Prior to the testing window, a testing schedule is made to ensure that all ELLs (based on the NYSESLAT eligibility report and cross-referenced with other reports) are administered each section of the NYSESLAT. During the month of April students are administered the speaking portion of the test. If a student is absent for one or more sessions of the test, the student is tested during the make-up sessions.

6. After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, what is the trend in program choices that parents have requested? (Please provide numbers.) Are the program models offered at your school aligned with parent requests? If no, why not? How will you build alignment between parent choice and program offerings? Describe specific steps underway.

After reviewing the Parent Survey and Program Selection forms for the past few years, we find that a majority of parents requested that their child be placed in a Free-Standing ESL program. One parent requested a transitional bilingual program (Chinese). The parent was notified that we currently do not offer that program and that if we get 15 or more parents between two consecutive grades who request that program, we will offer that particular program. The parents are notified that their child will be placed in an ESL program in the meantime.

Part V: ELL Programming

A. Programming and Scheduling Information

1. How is instruction delivered? (see The Practitioners' Work Group for Accelerating English Language Learner Student Achievement: Nine Common Features of Successful Programs for ELLs)

- a. What are the organizational models (e.g., departmentalized, push-in [co-teaching], pull-out, collaborative, self-contained)?
- b. What are the program models (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogeneous [proficiency level is the same in one class])?

Instruction is delivered through the following organizational models: Push-In ESL, Pull-Out ESL and Self-Contained. Advanced ELL students are placed in heterogeneously grouped fourth and fifth grade classes. In fourth grade, intermediate and beginner ELL students are placed in a heterogeneously grouped classroom or a self-contained ESL classroom with mixed proficiency levels. In fifth grade, ELL students are placed in heterogeneously grouped classes with mixed proficiency levels. 4th grade newcomer students are placed in the self-contained ESL class and 5th grade newcomers are placed in a heterogeneously grouped class.

2. How does the organization of your staff ensure that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, ESL)?
  - a. How are explicit ESL, ELA, and NLA instructional minutes delivered in each program model as per CR Part 154 (see table below)?

The organization of our staff ensures that the mandated number of instructional minutes is provided according to proficiency levels. All beginner and intermediate students receive at least 360 minutes of ESL services. All advanced students receive at least 180 minutes of ESL services. The fourth grade self-contained is serviced for 200 minutes a day (4 periods), five days a week, by a certified ESL teacher. All of the beginners in fourth grade are in this class. All intermediates in fourth grade not in the self-contained class are serviced 8 periods a week for a total of 400 minutes by the push-in certified ESL teacher. The advanced students are serviced four periods a week for a total of 200 minutes by a certified ESL teacher. All fifth grade beginners and intermediates are serviced by a certified ESL teacher for 8 periods a week for a total of 400 minutes. Advanced fifth grade students are serviced four periods a week for a total of 200 minutes. Service for all ELLs is provided during the literacy block.

3. Describe how the content areas are delivered in each program model. Please specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods used to make content comprehensible to foster language development and meet the demands of the Common Core Learning Standards.

To make the content areas comprehensible for ELLs and meet the demands of the Common Core Learning Standards, our ESL teachers plan lessons with the classroom teachers using the SIOP model. Each lesson has a content objective, as well as a language objective. Teachers build students' background knowledge and contextualize vocabulary through use of the following instructional approaches and methods: adaptive texts, leveled study guides/ trade books, jigsaw text reading, graphic organizers, note-taking outlines, and other hands-on supplementary materials. Content instruction is delivered in English, however our bilingual (English-Chinese) ESL teacher and our bilingual para-professional are able to offer native-language support in the content areas. We also utilize the Spanish edition of our science and social studies textbooks

4. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their native languages throughout the year?

ELL students who read and write in their native language are evaluated in their native language on the New York State

Mathematics and Science exams.

5. How do you ensure that ELLs are appropriately evaluated in all four modalities of English acquisition throughout the year?
Throughout the year ELL students are assessed by both their classroom teacher and the ESL teacher through classroom quizzes and tests, and other informal assessments. ELLs are also evaluated formally when being administered the Ed Performance Test three times a year. In addition, ELL students are administered the ELL Periodic Assessment once a year.
6. How do you differentiate instruction for ELL subgroups?
  - a. Describe your instructional plan for SIFE.
  - b. Describe your plan for ELLs who have been in US schools less than three years (newcomers)..
  - c. Describe your plan for ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years.
  - d. Describe your plan for long-term ELLs (completed 6+ years).
  - e. Describe your plan for former ELLs (in years 1 and 2 after testing proficient).

We differentiate instruction for ELLs in the following ways:

- a) We currently do not have any SIFE students.
- b) Students who have been in US schools for less than three years, and who levels of proficiency are low (beginners) will be part of our newcomers program. Newcomer students are pulled-out eight periods a week for ESL instruction. The Newcomer’s program focuses on survival English language, vocabulary building, reading and writing skills. The newcomers program uses visuals, technology, Raz-kids and phonics through various units of studies to improve language development.
- c) ELLs receiving service 4 to 6 years will receive, in addition to a rigorous curriculum taught by the classroom teacher and the ESL teacher, the opportunity to attend an afterschool program and / or the Saturday school program, both of which are designed to increase reading comprehension and improve reading, writing and mathematics skills. These ELLs also use Raz-kids at least twice a week.
- d) We currently have no long-term ELLs.
- e) Classroom teachers and ESL teachers continue to provide language support to former ELLs. These students also have an opportunity to attend an after-school program and/or Saturday school, both of which are designed to increase strategy usage in reading and improve reading comprehension. The after-school program also provides support in writing and math.

7. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials do teachers of ELL-SWDs use that both provide access to academic content areas and accelerate English language development?

The 51 Avenue Academy implements the following instructional strategies and grade-level materials to provide access to academic content areas and to accelerate English language development:

- a. Raz-Kids / Brainpop
- b. Guided and scaffolded instructional groups
- c. Individual conferences to support students’ access to academic content and language development.
- d. Phonics through educational websites such as Starfall, Learn to Read with Phonics, and ABCya.com
- e. Social and academic vocabulary building through units of studies supported with visuals and technology.

8. How does your school use curricular, instructional, and scheduling flexibility to enable diverse ELL-SWDs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Students with IEPs receive ESL services in their ICT class or self-contained class by a push-in ESL teacher. All teachers servicing the student with an IEP work collaboratively to ensure that the student will achieve their IEP goals and language proficiency.

The chart below is a visual representation designed to show the variation of native language usage and supports across the program models. Please note that native language support is never zero.

TBE and dual language programs have both native language arts and subject areas taught in the native language; ESL has native language supports.

B. Programming and Scheduling Information--Continued

9. Describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, math, and other content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Please list the range of intervention services offered in your school for the above areas as well as the language(s) in which they are offered.

The 51 Avenue Academy uses the following instruction materials and technology to support ELLs:

- Guided reading books
- Leveled libraries
- Wilson
- Raz-kids
- Brianpop
- Low-level / high interest books
- Bilingual glossaries for math, science and social studies
- Bilingual trade books
- Picture dictionaries
- Online academic websites

In math, push-in ESL teachers provide support with academic language and work on improving writing skills. In addition, ELLs and former ELLs are given the opportunity to attend the afterschool program and Saturday school. These program offer homework assistance, as well as support in writing and reading to accelerate the growth of their academic English, reading skills, and test-readiness. Former ELLs also receive the same testing accommodations as current ELL for two years after they test out of ESL.

10. Describe the effectiveness of your current program and how it is meeting the needs of your ELLs in both content and language development.

The 51 Avenue Academy supports newcomers with low language proficiency through a beginners program. The newcomer program pulls-out beginners 8 periods a week to implement language building through units of study. The program teaches newcomers basic survival language skills, which allow these students to be part of the school community, as well as social and academic language. Intermediate and advanced ELLs receive ESL services by a certified push-in ESL teacher. The ESL teacher supports ELLs across content areas by implementing language skills. The push-in teacher scaffolds, reteaches, and conducts individual conferences to meet the needs of students in both content and language development. The classroom teachers and the ESL teachers collaborate and plan lessons together to ensure ELLs' needs are being met.

11. What new programs or improvements will be considered for the upcoming school year?

We are considering what other materials or programs we could use to teach our beginners and low intermediates. We are also looking in programs to help intermediate and advanced ELLs develop questioning and discussion skills.

12. What programs/services for ELLs will be discontinued and why?

No programs will be discontinued at this time.

13. How are ELLs afforded equal access to all school programs? Describe after school and supplemental services offered to ELLs in your building.

ELLs are afforded equal access to all school programs. Parents of ELLs and special education students are given the opportunity to enroll their children in our afterschool program and Saturday school. Depending on the enrollment and the number of teachers, these programs are then open to general education students. These programs offer homework assistance, reading and writing support to ensure academic language growth and test readiness.

14. What instructional materials, including technology, are used to support ELLs (include content area as well as language materials; list ELL subgroups if necessary)?

Technology is used constantly to support ELLs' academic growth. Raz-kids, an online leveled reading program, is implemented to help students improve their reading level and reading strategies. Classroom teachers and ESL teachers utilize a smart board or an Elmo to promote visual support for ELLs and ensure access to academic content. Bilingual dictionaries and classroom books in various languages are also used for language support and development.

15. How is native language support delivered in each program model (TBE, Dual Language, and ESL)?

Native language support is delivered by paraprofessionals who push-in and work with beginner ELLs and students whose IEPs require a bilingual paraprofessional. The paraprofessionals help make sure students understand what is expected of them. They help them organize their writing and work on English vocabulary, as well as spelling rules. In addition, bilingual ESL teachers occasionally employ students' native languages to support and ensure content comprehension.

16. Explain how the required services support, and resources correspond to ELLs' ages and grade levels.

Required services support and resources correspond to ELL's ages and grade levels. Beginner and intermediate ESL students receive at least 360 minutes of ESL services. Advanced ESL students receive at least 180 minutes of ESL services.

17. Describe activities in your school that assist newly enrolled ELL students before the beginning of the school year. Please include activities for new ELLs who enroll throughout the school year.

Newly enrolled ELLs are given the opportunity to attend our summer school program. This will allow them the opportunity to become acquainted with our school building, some of the students who may be in their class or grade, and the teachers and school staff. Newcomers who arrive at our school throughout the school year will be placed in the self-contained classroom for 4th grade or be included in the newcomer's program. Both of these settings will offer newly arrived students a classroom buddy to help the new student get acquainted with our school and support in adjusting to a new environment.

18. What language electives are offered to ELLs?

We currently do not offer any language electives to our ELLs

19. For schools with dual language programs:

- a. How much time (%) is the target language used for EPs and ELLs in each grade?
- b. How much of the instructional day are EPs and ELLs integrated? What content areas are taught separately?
- c. How is language separated for instruction (time, subject, teacher, theme)?
- d. What Dual Language model is used (side-by-side, self-contained, other)?
- e. Is emergent literacy taught in child's native language first (sequential), or are both languages taught at the same time (simultaneous)?

C. Professional Development and Support for School Staff

1. Describe the professional development plan for all ELL personnel at the school. (Please include all teachers of ELLs.)
2. What professional development is offered to teachers of ELLs (including ESL and bilingual teachers) in supporting ELLs as they engage in the Common Core Learning Standards?
3. What support do you provide staff to assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle and/or middle to high school?
4. Describe the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training (10 hours for special education teachers) for all staff (including non-ELL teachers) as per Jose P.

The 51st Avenue Academy Professional Development Program will focus on providing all teachers and staff with scaffolding and differentiated instruction strategies for teaching ELLs. It will also focus on how to prepare ELLs to meet the new Common Core Standards. Topics that will be addressed during these professional development sessions are as follows:

Scaffolding across the Disciplines: Types of Scaffolding

Quality Teaching and Best Practices to improve ELL performance

Differentiated Instruction

Strategies needed to prepare ELLs to meet the Common Core Standards.

Mathematics instructional strategies to develop and enhance students' skills and performance on Common Core assessments.

Ed Performance

Professional development takes place during faculty conferences, grade conferences, and in-service (Election Day, Brooklyn Queens Day, and the days teachers report back to work in September.) These professional development opportunities count towards the minimum 7.5 hours of ELL training for all staff (excluding teachers who hold ESL licenses). Records of these professional development opportunities are maintained by our assistant principal.

In addition, we will seek professional development opportunities to support moving our level 3 students to level 4. Teachers will continue to be involved in curriculum planning and create lessons which take into account the Common Core Standards and the strategies they learned to meet the academic needs of ELLs and level 3 and 4 students. Additionally, the Office of English Language Learners offers professional development days during the year for administrative staff and teachers. Staff members attend professional development provided by OTI and other organizations.

To assist ELLs as they transition from elementary to middle school, teachers and students are given opportunities to meet with middle school teachers from the school across the street, where the majority of our students will attend. Teachers and students are invited to tour the school and learn more about the programs offered at the school. We also host the same in our school for parents and our incoming fourth grade students being that our school only has fourth and fifth grade classes.

D. Parental Involvement

1. Describe ELL parent involvement in your school. Include specific activities that foster parental involvement for parents of ELLs.
2. Does the school partner with other agencies or Community Based Organizations to provide workshops or services to ELL parents?
3. How do you evaluate the needs of the parents?
4. How do your parental involvement activities address the needs of the parents?

At the 51st Avenue Academy, we offer many opportunities for parents to become involved in their child's education. We offer workshops at the Parents Association meetings, on topics such as how to obtain affordable health insurance, how to access and understand ARIS and acuity, and outside groups such as "Dial- A -Teacher". We also facilitate workshops on how to succeed in middle school. We also organize art workshops for the parents facilitated by our art teacher and parent coordinator. We have "Family Fridays" where parents are invited into the classrooms for celebrations of student work and academic activities. We have a Student Of The Month ceremony on the second Tuesday evening of each month. Two students from each class are chosen per month to receive a certificate for their work in class.

For our parents of ELL students, we use the translation unit to translate letters sent home to parents. At Parent Teacher conferences we offer translators in three languages. We send home a newsletter called "Home School Connection" offered in English and Spanish. The Learning Environment Survey, which is distributed to parents in April, is given in the parents' preferred language. In September, we sent out parent surveys to assess the needs of parents, inquiring as to what workshops would be of interest to them and what would be the best method for them to receive flyers and letters going home to them. We discuss the needs of parents at School Leadership Team meetings and Parents Association meetings.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION 2013-2014 TO 2014-2015

Requirement under Chancellor's Regulations – for all schools

DBN: 24Q877 School Name: 51st Avenue Academy

Cluster: 2 Network: 209

Goal: To communicate whenever feasible with non-English speaking parents in their home language in order to support shared parent-school accountability, parent access to information about their children's educational options, and parents' capacity to improve their children's achievement.

Part A: Needs Assessment Findings

1. Describe the data and methodologies used to assess your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

To assess our school's written translation and oral interpretation needs, we sent home a parents' preferred language questionnaire. The questionnaire asked parents to indicate in what language they would like to receive written information from the school and in what language they would prefer to communicate orally with school staff. Our goal is to ensure that all parents are provided with appropriate and timely information in a language they can understand.

2. Summarize the major findings of your school's written translation and oral interpretation needs. Describe how the findings were reported to the school community.

Here are our major findings: A majority of our parents prefer written and oral communication in English. Following closely behind English is Spanish. The next major language is Chinese Mandarin. The fourth major language indicated by parents is Bengali. Lower incidence languages reported include Korean, Urdu, Indonesian, Nepali, Vietnamese, and Burmese. These findings are reported to parents at PA meetings, Student of the Month assemblies, and in the future we will be reporting these findings on our school website. These findings are reported to teachers and staff on class rosters.

Part B: Strategies and Activities

1. Describe the written translation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Include procedures to ensure timely provision of translated documents to parents determined to be in need of language assistance services. Indicate whether written translation services will be provided by an outside vendor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Written translation services will be provided by NYCDOE translation unit, school staff, outside vendors and/or parent volunteers depending on the topic. We are also currently considering subscribing to eChalk. eChalk is a software platform that schools use to manage communication and instruction. eChalk can translate information in many languages.

2. Describe the oral interpretation services the school will provide, and how they will meet identified needs indicated in Part A. Indicate whether oral interpretation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers.

Oral translation services will be provided by an outside contractor, or in-house by school staff or parent volunteers, depending on the situation. For parent-teacher conferences, translators are hired to translate Spanish, Chinese, and Bengali. For lower incidence languages, the translation unit is used. Oral translators are hired to provide oral word-for-word translation of the state exams for lower incidence languages. A translation service is accessible to all staff in the school, so that teachers and school staff can communicate with parents. The hours of operation are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m to 5 p.m. Our school also has a phone messenger service called "School Messenger". This system relays important messages via phone calls/ voicemail to parents such as school events, school closings, etc. You can schedule the messages to be sent to parents phone numbers at any time desired. The system then gives you a report via email so you can view how many parents received the calls.

3. Describe how the school will fulfill Section VII of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 regarding parental notification requirements for translation and interpretation services. Note: The full text of Chancellor's Regulations A-663 (Translations) is available via the following link: <http://docs.nycenet.edu/docushare/dsweb/Get/Document-151/A-663%20Translation%203-27-06%20.pdf>.

The 51st Avenue Academy distributed a copy of the Bill of Parent Rights and Responsibilities, as well as Family Guides in different languages to parents. Our Parents Association meetings are translated in the languages that the parents attending speak. The NYS Discipline Code book was distributed in different languages. We have a visible flyer located in the main office that states that we will provide all needed translation services. During parent teacher conferences we provide translators in Chinese, Spanish, and Bengali. For lower-incidence languages we use the translation unit to communicate with parents at parent teacher conferences, as well as any other time that translation is needed. All flyers and forms (medical, etc.) are always available in the parents' preferred language. Next year we will also be giving out blue cards in languages other than English.
