MEMORANDUM

DATE: December 19, 2001
TO: JOHN T. COMER, SUPERINTENDENT
COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT 22
FROM: Marshall Goldman
SUBJECT: FY'02 SUSPENDED PEDAGOGUE ALLOCATION: $48,190

In District 22's memorandum dated December 12, 2001, Module 5 Suspended Pedagogue funds were requested to defray the salary costs of two pedagogues -- File #0433659 and File #0455395.

File #0433659 was officially suspended by the Chancellor on June 14, 2001. Module 5 funds will be allotted as follows:

File No.	0433659
Date of Suspension	June 14, 2001
Allocation Period	one year
Average Teacher Salary	$48,190
ALLOCATION	$48,190
Quick Code	22004577
Object-Line	053-5141

File #0455395 is facing criminal charges. Due to the nature of the charges, for allocation purposes, this will be treated as a suspension. After four months (12/13/00 through 4/18/01) the criminal charges were resolved and the pedagogue was returned to his classroom. An FY'01 credit of $19,352 covering the teacher's four month salary was given to the district in the April Budget Variance Report. As a result, no further action is to be taken.

Module 5 Suspended Pedagogue funds are provided to reimburse districts for up to twelve months' salary cost of properly suspended school-based staff. The allocation for File #0433659 covers the maximum of twelve months' cost at the district's average teacher salary. Resources will be placed into the account codes indicated above. A budget modification should be prepared scheduling the allocation as soon as possible.

Should a decision be rendered that is subsequently appealed, the district will be eligible for up to a second twelve-month reimbursement. The "Notice of Petition" is required to support the claim.
