

SUMMARY OF SCHOOL ALLOCATION MEMORANDUM NO. 36, FY08

READING FIRST (SUMMER)

Summary

This allocation supports the summer instruction and professional development component of the federal Reading First program.

Purpose

Reading First is a program started by the federal government as part of the No Child Left Behind law to ensure that every student is reading at grade level by the end of third grade. Through Reading First, states and districts receive funds to put in place reading programs that are based on scientific research and have been proven to work in classrooms. With this allocation, schools receive funds to train summer school teachers on how to implement and use the selected program. It also covers the coaches who provide the professional development.

Restrictions on Funds

These funds should only be used to provide per session payment to teachers participating in the Reading First Summer Program.

Allocation Formula

Classroom teachers will receive 48 hours of per session funding
Reading First Coaches will receive 51 hours of per session funding

SCHOOL ALLOCATION MEMORANDUM NO. 36, FY08

DATE: July 11, 2007

TO: COMMUNITY SUPERINTENDENTS, INTEGRATED SERVICE CENTERS AND SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

FROM: Susan Olds, Executive Budget Director

SUBJECT: READING FIRST (SUMMER)

The following allocation amounts are being allocated to public schools participating in the Reading First Program to provide funds for per session for summer school. This program, which is a K-3 literacy initiative, is being funded by a federally sponsored, state-managed grant. Each school is receiving an allocation for school year per session based on the following categories:

- K-2 classroom teachers will be providing instruction as well as receiving Professional Development (Reading First program only) based on list of actual classroom teachers provided by each school - 12 hours per teacher per week/total 48 hours per teacher
- School based Reading First coaches providing Professional Development (1-2 per school) 12 hours per coach per week/total 51 hours per coach

Funds are being placed in the READING FIRST allocation category.
