for Ailey's season at New York City Center, December 2, 2009 through January 3, 2010.

This year, in addition to our regular repertory favorites, we have special programming to celebrate Judith Jamison's 20th Anniversary as Ailey's artistic director, including:

- Three world premieres of new works including one by Ms. Jamison, as well as Ronald K. Brown and Company member Matthew Rushing
- Special evenings with highlights of popular works by some of the world's best choreographers hand-picked by Ms. Jamison over the last twenty years
- Guest star Anna Deavere Smith performing live on stage with the Company in a new production of Hymn, Ms. Jamison's award-winning tribute to Mr. Ailey

Most performances will conclude with Revelations, Mr. Ailey's signature work.

As Oprah Winfrey said last season, "Every American owes it to him or herself to see the Ailey company perform Revelations. It is an American phenomenon. I've probably seen it countless times and every time it's magical and spiritual and hopeful – everything we want ourselves to be and hope that our country will be."
