

ORFF CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

---

2009 - 2010

Dates: Oct. 14, 2009 – Feb. 24, 2010

Location: Trevor Day School
4 E. 90 St. NY, NY 10128
Wednesday evenings, 6:00-9 00pm

Faculty: Danai Gagne, director and movement instructor
Judith Thomas-Solomon, pedagogy instructor
Laura Koulish, recorder instructor

Level I and either Level II or Level III will be offered, depending on registration

The basic premise of the Orff Schulwerk approach is that movement, speech, singing and instrumental playing form an inseparable unity in the music teaching process. The blending of these components contributes to the harmonious development of the child's physical, social, musical and artistic development. The course will be an active workshop, offering extensive materials and lesson sequencing.

College credit (undergraduate and graduate) may be arranged through SUNY Empire State College and Hunter College

For information/registration visit <http://www.trevor.org/podium/default.aspx?t=119738>

and contact Danai Gagne, director: Tel. # 212-426-3393 x224