CARNEGIE HALL LAUNCHES NYO2 Nominate Your Students by December 1

In the summer of 2016, Carnegie Hall's Weill Music Institute will launch the first season of NYO2, a two-week, intensive summer training program for outstanding young American instrumentalists ages 14–17 from communities that are underserved by and underrepresented in the classical orchestral field. Running in conjunction with the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America's annual summer residency at Purchase College, SUNY, and NYO2 will offer an opportunity for participants to play alongside exceptionally talented peers and learn from a world-class faculty. The program culminates in an exciting side-by-side performance with members of The Philadelphia Orchestra.

NYO2 is free for all participants, including room and board and all rehearsal, teaching, and performance activities. There is no fee to apply.

APPLY TO BE AN ENSEMBLE ACJW PARTNER SCHOOL

Created in 2007 by Carnegie Hall's Executive and Artistic Director Clive Gillinson and The Juilliard School's President Joseph W. Polisi, Ensemble ACJW is an inspirational collective of young professional musicians who are fellows in a two-year program that supports them in building careers as top-quality performers, innovative programmers, and dedicated teachers who fully engage with the communities in which they live and work.

Each fellow is partnered with a public school within the five boroughs of New York City for school residencies in collaboration with the school's instrumental music teacher.
