Instructions for completing "CN Foundation Course, CN Course or Workshop"

Select appropriate CN Foundation Course, CN Course or Workshop only"

1. Use the "official" Course or Workshop name.
 2. Select appropriate subject area of the Course or Workshop.
 3. Select Activity Type:
 - A Check this box if student is enrolled in a College Now Foundation Course.
 - B Check this box if student is enrolled in a CN course.
 - C Check this box if student is enrolled in a College Now Workshop. Students in these activities meet for 21 or more hours per semester.
- A CN Foundation Courses are a Central Office initiative; all CNFCs must be developed in collaboration with Central Office staff.
- B CN Courses are developed locally and should run for at least 27 hours so that they may be considered for a half or full high school elective credit. The curriculum includes graded assignments. Although students are graded, outcomes are reported to Central Office as either a Pass (P) or Fail (F). There are no W's in pre-college activities.
- C CN Workshops are at least 21 hours. Activities are designed to give students an opportunity to develop skills and acquaint themselves with college in a more informal environment, e.g. arts or film workshops. Attendance and participation are the primary factors for assigning either a Complete or Incomplete.

Use the SAME form only if student is enrolled in a second CN Foundation Course, CN Course or Workshop.

Use the College Now COLLEGE COURSE Registration Form if student is enrolled in a college credit or non-credit course this semester.

You MUST submit a separate form for each semester even if the student was enrolled in the prior semester.
